Sports Illustrated

INDEX

Vols. XX, XXI

1964

PUBLISHED BY TIME INCORPORATED

540 NORTH MICHIGAN AVE., CHICAGO, ILL. 60611 TIME & LIFE BUILDING, ROCKEFELLER CENTER, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10020

INDEX VOLS. XX, XXI 1964

Note:
Cov. cover portrait
d. drawing
p. photo
r. reproduction of painting
diag. diagram
c. color (e.g.—colored photo: c.p.)
Dates are indicated as follows:
8 Ja 50 (January 8, page 50)

A

AAU
See also TRACK & FIELD
Point of Fact. AAU indoor swimming quiz, by Hal Peterson. 30 Mr 8
The Playing Fields of West Point. SI proposes memorial to the late General Douglas MacArthur be resolution of differences between AAU and NCAA; quotes MacArthur lines inscribed on West Point gymnasium wall. 13 Ap 18
Fort Sumter. Big Ten college conference votes to declare ineligible any athlete who takes part in competition not sanctioned by the NCAA; despite AAU-NCAA truce to guarantee strong U.S. Olympic showing, feud will probably explode when games are over. 1 Je 18-19

ABDUL RAHMAN, MOHAMED (Zanzibar) See BOAT RACING

ACCIDENTS
See also AUTOMOBILE RACING
Downhill Danger. While competing in the Olympics, Ross Milne of Australia is killed and two members of the Liechtenstein team are injured on the men's downhill course in Innsbruck. 3 F 8
Frank Sinatra fails to show up at the Palm Springs golf tournament because of a broken hand. 10 F 46
Continuing to amaze doctors six months after trampoline accident paralyzed him, one-time champion Pole Vaulter Brian Sternberg (quotes) is confident of complete recovery. 10 F 46
Upon the completion of his new movie Send Me No Flowers, Actor Hal March went skiing in the Catskills, broke his leg, and ended up in Monticello Hospital. 24 F 40
Artist Andrew Wyeth and Wife Betsy collide on motor scooters owned by son Jamie and friend. 30 Mr 49
Singer Vic Damone had barely warmed up his $15,000 Ferrari sports car when he sped off the highway and landed, unhurt, 50-feet below in a canyon. 6 Ap 80
While filming Ride the Wild Surf, Australian Swimming Star Murray Rose has his handsome profile crunched and several teeth knocked out by his new competitor—the surfboard. 6 Ap 80
Out On Their Own. British Motorcycle Racers David Wheeler and Arthur Poulton fly through the air after cycle hits guardrail and overturns; other cycle team swerves to miss them, its sideman leaning almost to track surface. p. 13 Ap 30-31
Wife of Horseman John H. Clark designed arm sling for self and friends, went into sling business for good. Customers include Polo Player Lewis Smith, Kentucky Horseman A. B. (Bull) Hancock Jr. and Texas Governor John Connolly. 13 Ap 103
When the Going Was Worse. Penn State Pitcher John Zanhiser, hit in the elbow while pitching against Penn State freshmen, considers self fortunate compared to previous game against freshmen when he was unable to escape multiple freak injuries. 18 My 14
Over, Under and Over Again. Hugh Whall recounts experience sustained by crew of ocean-racing yawl Doubloon (p.) as boat floundered in Gulf Stream, completely turning over and righting itself twice in huge waves. 1 Je 32-33
Frank Sinatra is rescued by firemen as he is swept 200 yards out to sea off Kauai Island in Hawaii; prepares to return to work on film None but the Brave. 1 Je 63
Astronaut Scott Carpenter, who recently flew to Bermuda to take part in a Navy diving test, breaks his left arm in a motorbike accident. 27 Jl 45
Desi Arnaz assured companions he was an excellent swimmer when his chartered deep-sea fishing boat hit a rock and began to sink in Gulf of California; shipmate turned Arnaz around to remind him they were only 20 feet from land. 27 Jl 45
Texas Representative James C. Wright, Jr. breaks ankle during volleyball game. 27 Jl 45
Political opponents Sir Alec Douglas-Home and Harold Wilson insist that injuries did not result from settling differences: Douglas-Home pricked finger pruning roses, Wilson bruised his face climbing rocks. 24 Ag 44
Former Red Sox Slugger Ted Williams, out of hospital after back injury, will be able to play golf again by November. 7 S 86
Mexico's Brigadier General Humberto Mariles shoots bricklayer in Mexico City traffic altercation, bricklayer dies; whereabouts of Mariles unknown. 7 S 86
When Prince Karim Aga Khan's yacht Amaloun rammed onto a rock, he and his guests, Princess Margaret and the Earl of Snowdon, jumped overboard into a raft, paddled to island of Mortorio. 7 S 86
Kingston Trio Folk Singer Nick Reynolds hits oil patch at Santa Barbara raceway in Lotus 22, picks up seven stitches in face, $1,500 in damages to Lotus. 5 O 70
Former Duke Guard Larry Karl has, since taking over as publicity man for the Dallas Cowboys, been hit by a car, sliced his toes with a power mower, knocked out front teeth, twisted his knee, and broken his jaw; latest injury put him in hospital with his wife Judy, who gave birth to their sixth child. 19 O 62
Let's Imitate the Japanese. After a wooden barn at Laurel racetrack burned, killing 34 horses, Laurel President John Schapiro announces new barn will be constructed of fire-resistant wood. 16 N 13

ADAMS, EDIE See TENNIS

ADAMS, K. S. (BUD), JR. See FOOTBALL—Professional

ADAMS, YATES See GOLF

ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA See TENNIS

ADENAUER, KONRAD See BOCCIE; HIKING

ADVERTISING
Sailmaker and Yachtsman Colin Ratsey has been replaced by onetime Diamond Sculls Champion Jack Kelly as Ballantine brewers' ale man. 10 Ag 48
Avis Rent A Car President Winston V. Morrow, Jr.'s "We Try Harder" buttons are being used by the Princeton varsity football team, which is awarding them to underclassman showing exceptional team effort. 12 O 57

AGA KHAN, KARIM See ACCIDENTS; OLYMPICS; SPORTS

AGE
Steps To The Stars. Houston Horn profiles 54-year-old Sportsman John Stewart Day (p.), who did not make the U.S. Olympic cross-country ski team this year because he lacked certain requirements set forth by the Olympic subcommittee. p. 3 F 52-58
Dawn Keeps Churning Along. Whitney Tower profiles the best woman swimmer in history, Australia's Dawn Fraser (p.), who, at the age of 26, is still in competitive swimming and practicing for the Tokyo Olympics. 17 F 26-31
Former President Harry S. Truman (quoted), pausing on his way to Florida Keys after attending funeral of Greece's King Paul, kids about his age, wife's fishing. 30 Mr 49
The Conservative Pros. Sixty-five-year-old pro football players of the NFL with over five years in the game can retire on $487-a-month pension. 4 My 25
The Irrepressible Mr. Mulloy. Gilbert Rogin profiles Tournament Tennis Player Gardner Mulloy, who, at the age of 50, can still beat many of the world's young, top ranking tennis stars. p. 13 Jl 56-62
San Francisco gives party for Former Baseball Star Joe DiMaggio on his 50th birthday. p. 30 N 54
Archie Moore tells Honolulu Quarterback Club he is opening a health club in the Islands; when asked about his age, Moore maintains he is 47, says listing of 50 in The Ring Record Book is a joke. 7 D 83

AHMANSON, HOWARD See BOAT RACING

AILES, STEPHEN See SPORTS

AIME, BUD See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred 23 Mr 24-36

AKIHITO, CROWN PRINCE OF JAPAN See JAPAN; TENNIS

AKIN, WILLIAM See AUTOMOBILES

ALABAMA, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College

ALBERT, PRINCE OF MONACO See SOCCER

ALBERT, FRANKIE See TENNIS

ALBERT, JANIE See TENNIS

ALCORT'S CATFISH (BOAT) See BOATS 20 Ja 16-17

ALLEN, MEL See SPORTSCASTERS

ALLEN, RICHIE See BASEBALL

ALLEN, SCOTTY See OLYMPICS

ALLEN, THOMAS B. See FISH & FISHING

ALONGI, TONY See BOXING

ALPHAND, MME. HERVE See PHYSICAL FITNESS

ALSTON, WALTER See BASEBALL

AMATEUR ATHLETIC UNION See AAU

AMBUSCH, MRS. HATTIE See BOXING

AMERICAN BASEBALL LEAGUE See BASEBALL

AMERICAN BROADCASTING COMPANY See BASEBALL; BILLIARDS; FOOTBALL—Professional

AMERICAN EAGLE (BOAT) See BOAT RACING

AMERICAN FOOTBALL LEAGUE See FOOTBALL—Professional

AMERICAN HORSE SHOWS ASSN. See HORSE SHOWS

AMERICA'S CUP See BOAT RACING; BOATS

AMERINE, RICHARD R. See AWARDS 30 N 36

AMONTI, SANTE See BOXING 20 Ja 44-46

AMORY, CLEVELAND See CLUBS

ANDERSON, CLINTON See FOOTBALL—Professional

ANDERSON, GARY See SPORTS

ANDERSON, HERBERT See FISHING

ANDERSON, PAUL See TRACK & FIELD

ANIMALS
New Mexico's Oilman-Sportsman Tom Bolack temporarily relinquishes political burdens to cope with problem of removing 17-foot crocodile, which he shot while in Africa, from a second floor Denver taxidermy shop. 13 Ja 38
Joseph Mayo, grandson of the Mayo Brothers of Rochester, who studied animal husbandry at the U. of Minnesota, is on his way to the Nepalese jungles in search of the world's smallest pigs. 10 F 46
Spring On A Florida River. Shelly Grossman photos capture early spring along Florida's Weeki Wachee River. Mary Louise Grossman byliner interprets photos, provides glimpses of animal life during lush season. c.p., c.map. 30 Mr 38-46
More News Of Electronics. Odd electronic devices aid man in strange areas: transmitters placed around bears' necks will enable biologists to track black bears who are damaging forests; electrode implanted in bull's brain enables matador to send "messages" to him. 6 Ap 19
Just Out From Under a Rock. Naturalist John Terres probes world of insects and other animal life to be found under rocks; describes methods for searching, dangers, types and habits of life forms. c.d. 4 My 50-51, 65-68
Thanks to Brigitte Bardot, who pleaded over TV on behalf of the Oeuvre d' Assistance aux Betes d' Abattoirs, a French society dedicated to the prevention of cruelty to animals, the French government passed a law providing that all animals be shot with an anesthetizing pistol before being slugged to death. 11 My 62
Spelling Bee. With birth of ibex twins, Albuquerque Zoo now has five ibexes, eight oryxes and eight kudus offering orthographical complications for plurals; federal law prohibits releasing of rare beasts in the wilds, but does not apply to offspring. 15 Je 18
After spending six months working with cats and lap dogs for a veterinarian, Susan Huxley begins work on 870-acre farm of cattle-raising Industrialist Cyrus Eaton. p. 2 N 53
Beastly Place For A Hunt. Jack Olsen discusses the unexplored interior jungles and rivers of Surinam, the new hunting-and-fishing frontier for those with cash and raw courage; drawings show Surinam style hunt, various types of wildlife to be bagged. c.d. 9 N 62-66, 71-74
Hunting and Fishing By Ear. Electronic transmitters have been developed which can be attached to hunting dogs to tell hunters where they are and what they are doing; similar devices have been attached to wild deer and inserted into stomachs of fish. c.d. 16 N 13, 18
Pop Goes the Ferret! Bil Gilbert recalls visit to New London, Ohio, once called Ferretville, U.S.A., where ferrets were bred in abundance before being declared illegal. c.d. 7 D 98-114
Baltimore Orioles' Harvey Haddix comes to rescue as neighbor Gayle Locke's half-grown buffalo bull, a gift from Arthur Godfrey, goes berserk; Haddix killed bull with five shots from a .22 caliber rifle. 21 D 70

ANNAPOLIS See FOOTBALL—College; LACROSSE

ANNE, PRINCESS OF GREAT BRITAIN See POLO

ANSTRUTHER, IAN See GREAT BRITAIN

ANTELOPES See HUNTING

ANTIGUA (ISLAND) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

APEX HANOVER (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Harness

APPLETON, SCOTT See FOOTBALL—College
AQUA JET (BOAT) See BOATS 20 Ja 16-17
ARCHER, JOEY See BOXING
ARCHERY
Young Robin. Fourteen-year-old Mike Lindemon shot 516 in archery round, topping Archery-record-setter Clifford Necessary in the National Field Archery Association championships; Lindemon has also shot a "Robin Hood" (explained). 19 O 18
ARCHITECTURE
A Honeycomb House For All Seasons. A-Frame Designer John Carden Campbell designs all-weather, all-terrain hexagonal house for SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. c.d. 23 Mr 40-45
The Setting For a Glorious Olympiad. Photos by Pete Turner of Tokyo's partially constructed Olympic structures point up architectural quality in Japan's attempt to make Asia's first Olympiad a memorable one. c.p., c.map. 6 Jl 32-43
Park a Boat At Your Doorstep. Builders Harry Hicks and Hugo Nadaner and Architect John Lord King build apartment-on-the-water complex called The Cove near San Francisco; apartments described. p., c.d. 3 Ag 14-17
Goof Three. SI recalls architectural blunders in third (present) Madison Square Garden as builders prepare to begin construction of fourth Garden. c.d. 24 Ag 8
AREF, ABDUL SALAM MOHAMMED See FISH & FISHING
ARFONS, ART See AUTOMOBILE RACING
ARFONS, WALT See AUTOMOBILE RACING
ARKANSAS, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
ARMENTEROS, MARCELINO See BOXING
ARMY See BOXING; HUNTING
ARNAZ, DESI See ACCIDENTS; FISH & FISHING
ARNEL See CLOTHING
ARNESS, JAMES See SURFING; TELEVISION
ART
See also DRAWINGS
A Race Can Be A Cruise. Paintings by Franklin McMahon spotlight sailors relaxing and having fun while competing in the San Diego to Acapulco sailboat race. c.d. 3 F 28-36
Sport In Art Again. Former Rodeo Performer Leo Jensen is winding up successful show at the Amel Gallery in New York, where his sculptures representing various sports are selling for as much as $1,600. p. 17 F 7-8
Venus de Milo left her pedestal in the Louvre and departed Paris by train for Marseilles to board the ship which will take her to the Tokyo Olympics. 17 F 44
The Din, the Color, the Mood of Indoor Track. Paintings by Jerome Martin illustrate the spills, body contact and violence encountered during indoor track and field meets. c.r. 24 F 34-39
Out In the Sun Again. Ronald Searle's paintings reveal the leisurely pace set by baseball players at spring training in Arizona and California. c.r. 2 Mr 16-23
When The Shad Come Home From The Sea. Francis Golden's paintings depict pleasures of angling for shad as spawning fish herald spring by reaching peak of striking probability. c.r., c.d. 16 Mr 40-51
When It's 3 And 2. Bernie Fuchs' paintings depict impressions of classic full-count baseball situation. c.r. 13 Ap 42-48
22° Grand Prix Automobile. Paintings by Al Parker depict the glories of the Grand Prix of Monaco Automobile Race. c.r. 11 My 44-53
A Horse to Play In But Great to Watch. Portfolio of paintings by Bernie Fuchs depicts tension and excitement of U.S. Open Golf Tournament from last year. c.r., c.d., cov. 15 Je 32-37
An Era Of Elegance. Paintings by Paul Davis capture the bygone elegance of tennis when played in the '20's and '30's at the private tennis houses of the country's wealthiest families. c.p. 13 Jl 34-39
A Month of Bull's-Eyes and Maggie's Drawers. Paintings by Franklin McMahon focus on the National Rifle and Pistol Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio. c.r., d. 10 Ag 28-33
Two-time Olympic Decathlon Champion Bob Mathias strikes javelin-throwing pose at Newport, R.I. for the Drexels, the Langleys, the Auchinclosses, and the Van Alens to capture his image with finger paint and charcoal. 24 Ag 44
When A Golf Course Turns On You. Paintings by Robert Osborn show what a golf course looks like to the overplayed golfer in the hot, weary month of August. c.r. 31 Ag 36-45
A Runners' Year. Paintings by Frank Mullins spotlight some of the best college football runners of the 1964 season. c.p., c.r., c.d., cov. 21 S 36-44
Where The Antelope Play. Bill Shields' paintings portray some of the unforgettable moments of an antelope hunt in Montana. c.r. 12 O 46-54
Pop Artist Pat Jensen says he only likes football and only watches the New York Giants; likenesses (r.) of Y. A. Tittle and Willie Shoemaker are recognizable, but that of Mickey Mantle is not. 19 O 62
Green Bay May Be Little, But Football Is A Giant. Paintings by Robert Weaver depict preoccupation of residents of Green Bay, Wisconsin with NFL Packers. r., c.r. 2 N 44-49
Tomi Ungerer Links the Past and the Future with Pro Football. Satirist Tomi Ungerer's paintings present grotesque image of pro football. c.r. 16 N 32-36
Throw Away That Stem. Austrian Skier, Stowe Instructor Helmut Falch, demonstrates parallel skiing in sketches by Robert Handville. c.r., cov. 23 N 46-51
A Bowl of Orange For A Pick-Me-Up. Paintings by Milton Glaser focus on assorted sports events held in Florida during winter season. c.r. 14 D 40-47
Monotony. Horse of the Year Artist Richard Stone Reeves is chagrined by prospect of another portrait of Kelso as Mrs. Richard duPont's thoroughbred wins honor for fifth year; previous portraits of Kelso described. 21 D 17-18
ARUBA (ISLAND) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49
ATHLETES
See also OLYMPICS; specific sports
At Bay And At Bat. Memphis State's Russell Vollmer is reminiscent of legendary athlete Frank Merriwell. Athletic prowess outlined in descriptions of feats in three football, two baseball games. 13 Ap 17
Breathtaking Experiment. Tests conducted on athletes from Leadville, Colo. and Lexington, Ky. to determine effects of altitude on athletic performances show that ability factors may be more critical than oxygen utilization. 29 Je 6
Very Funny, Bibb. Kansas Budget Director James Bibb suggests to Lawrence, Kansas Rotarians that University of Kansas inaugurate School for Professional Athletes, thus avoiding loss of top athletes such as Wilt Chamberlain and Wayne Hightower. 24 Ag 8-9
The Mad Hatter In Photoland. Edwin Shrake profiles Jim Laughead, the most successful photographer of athletes, who puts his subjects through a strenuous drill for his photography sessions. p. 21 S 78-87
Whispering Hope. Florida A & M's Jake Gaither advances theory that bowlegged, pigeon-toed athletes are faster, have more flexibility, than those with straight legs and feet. 21 D 18-19
ATHLETIC ASSN. OF WESTERN UNIVERSITIES See FOOTBALL—College
ATHLETIC INSTITUTE See SPORTS
ATLANTA, GEORGIA See AUTOMOBILE RACING; BASEBALL
ATTENDANCE See BASEBALL; FOOTBALL—Professional
AUERBACH, RED See BASKETBALL—Professional
AUGUSTA, GEORGIA See GOLF
AUGUSTA NATIONAL GOLF CLUB See GOLF
AUGUSTA NATIONAL GOLF COURSE See GOLF
AUSTRALIA See BOAT RACING; SWIMMING
AUSTRIA See OLYMPICS
AUTOMOBILE RACING
Roger Ward, two-time winner of the Indianapolis "500", accumulated 12 penalty points, or enough to lose him his driving license when he was found guilty, for the second time, of speeding on Indiana's highways. 20 Ja 43
Rallying Fast, Paddy's Wagon Beat Them All. Report by Paul Evan Ress on the Monte Carlo spotlights Ireland's Paddy Hopkirk, who won the race in a Morris-made Mini Cooper. p. 3 F 48-50
A Cool Fireball Named Roberts. Barbara Heilman profiles Stock Car Racer Edward Glenn (Fireball) Roberts (biopers, quotes, p.); recent leap in stock car interest has made automobile racing third in popularity among American spectator sports. 10 F 31-39
A New Race Produces An Old Ferrari Story. Bob Ottum reports that Carroll Shelby's Cobra places third in the Ferrari dominated Daytona Continental. p. 24 F 52, 54
Swoop of a Secret Weapon. Huston Horn reports on the Daytona 500 Stock Car Race, spotlighting Chrysler Corporation's Plymouth, which suddenly demolished the supremacy of the Ford Motor Company by finishing 1, 2, 3. p. 2 Mr 26-31
It Was Snakebit Day at Sebring. Hugh Whall points up new direction in dull Ferrari-dominated Sebring races of late as Carroll Shelby's Ford-engined Cobras take Grand Touring laurels. p. 30 Mr 20-23
The Little Engine That Could. Chrysler confidence, boosted after Plymouths swamped Fords at Daytona 500, is deflated as hurriedly-revamped Ford engines win at Atlanta in race marked by accidents on rain-soaked clay track. Bob Ottum's Motor Sports column outlines engine changes, strategies of racing bosses—Ford's Frank Zimmerman, Chrysler's Ronnie Householder. p. 13 Ap 106-107
Push vs. Pull. Trenton (N.J.) 100-mile national championship provides test in rear-engine vs. front-engine sports car racing controversy between respective exponents Roger Ward and A. J. Foyt, but proves inconclusive as Ward withdraws after near accident on rain-slicked track. 27 Ap 14
No Whipsocket Yet. Mickey Thompson, who in 1962 won an award for the best-engineered car at the Indianapolis Speedway, will be racing three fendered conventional Fords on wide, flat model Sears, Roebuck tires at this year's "500." 11 My 21
22° Grand Prix Automobile. Paintings by Al Parker depict the glories of the Grand Prix of Monaco Automobile Race, which is run on a course of just under two miles on the principality's streets. c.r. 11 My 44-53
Ford's Up, Jaguar's On Deck, Mercedes Aims To Play. Gregor Grant reports that Ford Motor Company, using electronic computers in the prototype's development, will compete in the Le Mans Automobile Race along with Jaguar of England, which has been absent eight years, and Daimler-Benz with its silver Mercedes cars. 11 My 65-68
Fast Fords And A Great Scot. Bob Ottum reports on the qualifying trials for this year's Indianapolis "500," spotlighting Ford Motor Company's Lotus-Fords, Fords with American chassis and British Lotuses with American Ford overhead camshaft engines which shattered all speed records. p. 25 My 32-35
Speed in Bright Repose. Martin Nathan photos present kaleidoscope of bright colors in automobile racing components, capturing tense anticipation of Indianapolis "500"; text discusses business angle of race as manufacturers vie for sponsorship of cars and drivers. c.p. 1 Je 34-39
Driver In A Tight Corner. Bob Ottum spotlights Race Driver A. J. Foyt (biopers, p., cov.) in Indianapolis "500" preview; reviews rivalry between oval track and road racers. 1 Je 78-90
The Show. Review of the closed circuit television broadcast of the Indianapolis "500." 8 Je 17
The Magnificent And The Macabre. Bob Ottum reports that A. J. Foyt (p.) wins Indianapolis "500" at a record average speed of 147.35 mph after a fiery disaster that took the lives of Dave MacDonald and Eddie Sachs. p. 8 Je 24-29
Singer Keely Smith's presence added glamour to A. J. Foyt's pit crew at the Player's 200 sport car race in Ontario, but she couldn't do much for Foyt's Scarab, which broke down and had to abandon the race. 22 Je 48
After The Indianapolis Fire: An Argument. Kenneth Rudeen reports on Kenneth Grimm's special committee's recommendations and reforms to be made in the Indianapolis "500" as a result of the disastrous fire that killed Eddie Sachs and Dave MacDonald. d. 22 Je 54-55
New Sport In Nippon. Japanese build superspeedway for stock car racing at the base of Mt. Fuji; scheduled for completion in March, the top technical assistant will be NASCAR President Bill France. 29 Je 7-8
For Ferrari, Some Fast Company At Last. Paul Evan Ress reports that record crowds attend Le Mans race as Ford challenges Ferrari's dominance with three V-8 coupes which showed well but did not finish the race. 29 Je 51-52
They Called Him Fireball. Thirty-three-year-old Stock-Car Driver Edward Glenn (Fireball) Roberts dies after crack-up at the Charlotte Motor Speedway. 13 Jl 6
The True Bluebird. Britain's Donald Campbell and his racer Bluebird break land speed record with a 403.1-mph dash in Australia, but fail to equal Craig Breedlove's jet-powered speed. 27 Jl 10
Jimmy Clark defeated Graham Hill in the European Grand Prix automobile race, then beat him 76 to 12 on a cricket pitch in England. p. 27 Jl 45
Japan Zeroes in on World Racing. Lovesey's motor sports column reveals Japan's entrance into Grand Prix competition with Honda racing automobile at grueling Nurburgring course; car performed beyond expectations despite 12th lap crackup. p. 17 Ag 70-71
The Furious Fun of Pinkie and Pat. Barbara H. LaFontaine spotlights Women Racing Drivers Pat Mernone and Pinkie Rollo (career sketches), who placed well in Upper Marlboro (Md.) 12-hour endurance run for small sedans, ahead of 17 teams of men drivers. p. 24 Ag 20-21
Fame And Terror At 200 MPH. Mark Kram profiles Drag Racer Don Garlits, who has a haunting fear of speed, but became the first man to break hot rodding's 200-mph barrier. p. 31 Ag 26-34
If You Can't Beat Them, Get Them To Join You. Ottum's motor sports column reports new look in automobiles after Ford swept Milwaukee's 200-mile big-car championship with Lotuses and Ford rear-engined cars. 7 S 88-91
Showdown at Watkins Glen. Bob Ottum previews U.S. Grand Prix at Watkins Glen, N.Y.; season's world championship title hangs in balance with only the Mexican

Grand Prix remaining to count for title; explains method of picking world champion, lists front-runners. p. 5 O 91-94
A Cool Win In A Crowded Glen. Bob Ottum gives account of the U.S. Grand Prix at Watkins Glen, N.Y., won by Graham Hill, who moved ahead of Jim Surtees and Jim Clark to claim the world driving championship. p. 12 O 28-29
Two Old Shoestringers Jolt the Jet Set. Hays Gorey byliner spotlights Walt and Art Arfons, both of whom broke the land speed record with their jet engined automobiles, Wingfoot Express and Monster, at the Bonneville Salt Flats. p. 12 O 66-67
On a recent trip to the U.S., Prince Souvanna Phouma ordered a brand-new Cobra sports car and flew off to Paris with the word that he would be competing at Le Mans next spring. 26 O 59
Fast, Wet—And Almost Dead. Hays Gorey byliner spotlights Craig Breedlove, who survived a crackup moments after he drove the Spirit of America to a new land-speed-record at Bonneville Salt Flats. Parnelli Jones wins the Los Angeles Times Grand Prix but later in the week he leaped to safety after his car crashed and caught fire. p. 26 O 72-74
From a Wild Race in Mexico: A Surprise Champion. Stirling Moss reports on Dan Gurney's win of Mexico's Grand Prix, which made second-place John Surtees the 1964 world champion driver on point system. p. 2 N 60-62
Ugliest, Cheapest and Best In the World. Hays Gorey reports on Art Arfons, who drove his inexpensive, bulky jet engined Green Monster to a new record of 536.71 mph at Bonneville Salt Flats. c.d. 9 N 24-25
Scourge Of Hangover Square. Bob Ottum reports on Nassau's Speed Week and automobile race won by Chaparral Driver Roger Penske. p. 14 D 68-69

AUTOMOBILE RENTAL See AUTOMOBILES

AUTOMOBILES
Peter Sellers, who has had 62 new cars and one wife in the last 8 years, proves his love for fiancée Britt Eklund by plighting his troth with a red Lotus Elan sports car. 24 F 40
Soviet High-Jump Hero Valeri Brumel traded Russian Volga Automobile, received for breaking world high jump record, for American-made Rambler, seeks spare parts in New York. 23 Mr 46
The All-Purpose Car. Rafael Bonnelly invents combined car bumper and bottle opener, believes auto manufacturers can incorporate design at little or no cost without impairing bumper's function. 30 Mr 15
Newest member of Vintage Chevrolet Club is Chevrolet Founder's Widow Mrs. Louis Chevrolet, who drives a Mercury. 30 Mr 49
A Sports Car For Everyone. Robert Grossman, who test drove Ford Motor Company's new sports four-seater Mustang, reports on its ample racing capabilities, options, size and body construction. c.d., d. 20 Ap 38-45
Fun For Rent. Hertz inaugurates sports-car rentals in new Sports Car Club. 4 My 16, 19
Seeing seventh Earl of Lonsdale in a yellow Mercedes reminds London columnist Peterborough of the fifth Earl, the Yellow Earl, who drove to Ascot every year in a yellow wagonette with matched chestnuts and postillions in yellow livery. 18 My 76
Compulsive Car Collector Tony Curtis has a 1932 Rolls-Royce, a 1937 Bentley, a 1964 Silver Cloud III, a Lincoln Continental and a Thunderbird, also builds plastic models. 18 My 76
Lost Heroes of Touring. Robert Cantwell traces history of free road maps from the time William Akin and Gulf Oil Corp. teamed up to give them away to the motoring public. c.d., d. 22 Je 60-71
Chevy's Corsa: A European Flair With A U.S. Feeling. Bob Ottum spotlights General Motors' new Chevrolet Corvair Corsa (p.), a sports car designed to combine European flair with American prestige. 21 S 96-97
Texan John Murchison attempts to buy 1954 Mercedes-Benz for his wife's birthday, has trouble with Junction City, Kansas dealer who did not know enough about Murchison to accept his check. 19 O 62
Aston Martin Director David Brown, Jr. announces availability of car modeled after James Bond's Goldfinger car for about $15,000 over list price, lists extras. 2 N 53

AUTRY, GENE See BASEBALL

AVARELLI, WALTER See BRIDGE

AVENA, SALVATORE J. See BOXING

AVERY, NATHANIEL See GOLF

AVIATION
World War I's "Mad Major" Christopher Draper, who survived controversy of flying under 15 Thames River bridges to retain flying license ten years ago, loses license because, at 72, he is too old. 16 Mr 63
Newly-married Winnie Churchill plans to try for a new round-the-world record in light planes with Max Conrad. 17 Ag 63
Charles Masefield flies 28-year-old plane, alternating controls with Lord David Trefgarne, from London to New York in 45 hours. 24 Ag 44
Roger Ward brought his Bonanza airplane down successfully on a highway after it developed engine trouble while he was flying his wife and son to a Milwaukee stock car race. 31 Ag 54

AWARDS
See also DOGS; OLYMPICS
Kenneth Rudeen profiles National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle (p.), who decisively guided a great and growing sport in the year of its most alarming crisis; chosen by SPORTS ILLUSTRATED as Sportsman of the Year. 6 Ja 22-29
Most Invaluable Trophy. Washington Touchdown Club has gained reputation for most dubious football awards: it picks Navy as nation's No. 1 team just before Texas routs Middies in Cotton Bowl; names Navy's Wayne Hardin Coach of the Year; choses Longhorn Tackle S. Appleton Lineman of the Year but asks Coach D. Royal to suggest another nominee when it learns that Appleton is unable to attend banquet; previous incident involving Terry Baker noted. 20 Ja 6, 8
Two-time loser Richard Nixon (quoted) addresses National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics as he receives their alumnus award. 23 Mr 46
An Era Shaped By War. Brief sketches by Robert Cantwell on the 25 winners of SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's Silver Anniversary All-America Awards, college football heroes selected for outstanding achievements, contributions made since their graduation in 1940; twelve judges spotlighted. c.d., d. 30 N 36-45
Alfred Wright reports SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's choice of Golfer Ken Venturi (c.p., p., cov.) as Sportsman of the Year. c.p. 21 D 32-39

AYRES (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Harness

AZTECS See OLLAMALIZTLI

B

BABY SCOOT (BOAT) See BOATS 20 Ja 16-17

BACKGAMMON
Everyone For Backgammon. Edwin Shrake reports on inauguration of International Backgammon Tournament at Grand Bahama Islands' Lucayan Beach Hotel by Prince Alexis Obolensky and Jet Setters. p. 4 My 42-49

BADMINTON
Richard Nixon demonstrates his badminton style to Chinese children (p.) while touring Far East. Some suggest reason for Nixon tour is session with Henry Cabot Lodge on Lodge's possible G.O.P. Presidential candidacy. 20 Ap 47
New Emerging Sportsmen. Indonesia retains badminton's Thomas Cup by defeating Denmark in Tokyo. 1 Je 14

BAEZ, JOAN See GAMBLING

BAHAMAS See TRAVEL 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49; BACKGAMMON

BAILLIE-GROHMAN, WILLIAM ADOLPH See RIVERS

BAKER, TERRY See FOOTBALL—College

BALL, EDWARD See HUNTING

BALTIMORE BULLETS See BASKETBALL—Professional

BALTIMORE COLTS See FOOTBALL—Professional

BALTIMORE ORIOLES See BASEBALL

BANNISTER, ROGER See HIKING

BARBADOS (ISLAND) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

BARBER, JERRY See GOLF

BARDOT, BRIGITTE See ANIMALS

BARNES, DUNCAN See FISH & FISHING; HUNTING

BARON, HERMINE See BRIDGE

BARR, NEAL See SPORTS

BARROW, JOSEPH LOUIS, JR. See BOXING

BARRY, RICK See BASKETBALL—College

BARTLEY, MAX D. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

BASEBALL
Week's results compiled: 4 My 111; 11 My 93; 18 My 109; 25 My 109; 1 Je 93; 8 Je 93; 15 Je 95; 22 Je 73; 29 Je 69; 6 Jl 69; 13 Jl 65; 20 Jl 61; 27 Jl 66; 3 Ag 65; 10 Ag 68; 17 Ag 85; 24 Ag 67; 31 Ag 76; 7 S 124; 14 S 77; 21 S 115; 28 S 100; 5 O 127; 12 O 93.
Oh Give Me A Home. Kansas City Athletics Owner Charles O. Finley's deteriorating relations with baseball is pointed up by recent public arguments over his lease of city-owned Municipal Stadium, the Rules Committee's refusal to allow his team to use brightly colored equipment, and his suggestion that the Hall of Fame be moved from out-of-the-way Cooperstown, New York. 6 Ja 8
Excerpt from LIFE Magazine article by General Douglas MacArthur on the baseball game he helped win for West Point in 1901. 20 Ja 43
Britain's Minister of Public Building and Works Geoffrey Rippon quoted on the Houston Colt .45s' new dome covered stadium. 20 Ja 43
Stan Musial and Sandy Koufax, in Syracuse for a banquet, are 5-pounds overweight and underweight respectively; Musial asks for location of steam bath. 3 F 46
Shortsighted. Writer and Relief Pitcher Jim Brosnan (quotes) will not sign baseball contract offered by Chicago White Sox General Manager Ed Short until clause that forbids him to write for publication is removed. 10 F 11
Gummed Up. A special hearing is being held in New York on charges by the Federal Trade Commission that Topps Chewing Gum, Inc., with more than 400 major league players signed, has a monopoly on baseball trading cards. 10 F 12-13
The Dome To Date. Houston Colts' new $20-million domed stadium will feature restaurants serving French and Chinese food, 46,000 "rocking chair seats," and for $18,000 a season, a Colt's fan may buy a 14-seat box on the top level, equipped with bar, bedroom and closed-circuit television. 17 F 7
Trouble Sprouts for the Yankees. William Leggett reports on attendance war between Yogi Berra's New York Yankees, the first place American League team, and Casey Stengel's New York Mets, the last place National League team, who in their new Shea Stadium (p.) are drawing nearly as many spectators as the Yankees. p., cover photo of Berra and Stengel. 2 Mr 12-15
Out In the Sun Again. Ronald Searle's paintings reveal the leisurely pace set by players at spring training in Arizona and California. c.r. 2 Mr 16-23
U.S. millionaire Cyrus Eaton (quotes) tells a Russian audience that a World Series between baseball teams from Moscow and New York is what the world really needs. 2 Mr 51
There may be rivalry on the field between New York's National and American League managers but when it comes to giving up smoking there is no contest between Yogi Berra, who swears off cigarettes every year for Lent and chain smoking Casey Stengel, who admits that the only time he is not smoking is when he's asleep. 2 Mr 51
This Pitcher May Need Relief. Writer-Pitcher Jim Brosnan (p.) recounts contract negotiations with Chicago White Sox General Manager Ed Short (p.). 16 Mr 24-29
Number One Baseball Bat Manufacturer Hillerich & Bradsby disdains Kentucky Governor Breathitt's attempt to buy Louisville Sluggers for Peace Corpsmen in Venezuela. 16 Mr 63
New York Yankee Owner Dan Topping temporarily releases Bandleader Guy Lombardo for one-day stint playing for Mets' opener at Shea Stadium. 16 Mr 63
Baseball Is Played All Wrong. Frank Deford byliner outlines Metallurgist Earnshaw Cook's (p.) plan for "percentage baseball" using mathematics to determine batting sequence, scoring index (table) etc. p. 23 Mr 14-17
Senator Ted Kennedy thanks Boston Red Sox and Owner Tom Yawkey after announcement that Red Sox will contribute proceeds from opening game to the Kennedy Memorial Library at Harvard. 30 Mr 49
Write If You Get Work. Late report on Jim Brosnan, the pitcher-writer who was released by the Chicago White Sox last month because he would not agree to give up writing or publishing during the season. 6 Ap 19-20
Spahn and Who? Is the Braves' Battle Cry. Frank Deford spotlights the Milwaukee Braves' pitching prospects Tony Cloninger, Denny Lemaster, Hank Fischer, Bob Sadowski, Ron Piche and Bobby Tiefenauer. p. 6 Ap 84-85
The Mets Think Big. Mets install seven-story sing-along scoreboard backed by gigantic, color-changing band shell, which will be topped with 18-by-24-foot movie screen. c.d. 13 Ap 17-18
Dugout Blues. Veteran Baseball Players Russ Kemmerer and Carroll Hardy finished 1963 season in minor leagues, but are invited to Houston Colts' spring training. 13 Ap 18
Can The Pitchers Stay On Top? William Leggett reviews emergence of pitchers as mainstays of major-league baseball; team owners, managers, players offer reasons and solutions; new strike zone offered as possible cause. Tables show comparison of teams' batting averages in first and second half of season, earned run averages of last four teams in each league for 1953 and 1963. p., cov. 13 Ap 38-41
When It's 3 And 2. Bernie Fuch's paintings depict impressions of classic full-count baseball situation. c.r. 13 Ap 42-48
Scouting Reports. 1964 scouting reports for American and National League include prospects for each team in hitting, pitching, fielding. 13 Ap 49-88
That Johnny Keane Is A Fine Manager Is What He Sure Is. Jack Olsen examines record and personality of St. Louis Cardinals' Manager Johnny Keane (biopers, p.) as minor league player, player-manager and major league manager; he was recently named Manager of the Year. 13 Ap 110-130

The Rookie From Wampum, Pa. William Leggett profiles the Philadelphia Phillies' new Third Baseman Richie Allen (p., quoted), who may be the best first-year man in baseball. 20 Ap 28-29

A Happy Start For a Happy New Willie. San Francisco Giants Veteran Willie Mays hits six homers in first six games for NL favorites; Frank Deford takeout records how "Say Hey Kid" (career sketch, p.) overcame financial and personal difficulties to become mature, accepted community member; discusses Giants' acquisition of gray-haired newcomer Duke Snider. p. 27 Ap 22-27

'I'm The Worst That's Ever Been'. Gilbert Rogin spotlights Baltimore Orioles Pitcher Milt Pappas (biopers), p. 27 Ap 54-56, 61-63

National League President Warren Giles (quoted) orders "No Smoking" signs posted in all NL dugouts, says he is worried about public image, not fires. 27 Ap 64

The .400 Club. Ted Williams (.406 in 1941) is among those who share opinion that Willie Mays will maintain batting average to become first over-.400 hitter since 1941; qualities essential for such a hitter listed. 4 My 19, 22

The Running Game Comes Back. Running returns to prominence in baseball as players, led by Dodgers' Willie Davis and Maury Wills, scamper around fields stealing bases, bunting and using the hit-and-run. William Leggett believes Angels' Dick (Briefcase) Simpson is fastest man in baseball. p. 4 My 40-41

Funny Girl producer refuses to let Barbra Streisand play in the showgirls' weekly softball league, so she buys two season tickets to Yankee Stadium. 4 My 78

Washington Hostess Perle Mesta transfers allegiance from politics to baseball as she gives party for Casey Stengel's Mets and their wives. 4 My 78

The Torments Of Excellence. Jack Olsen profiles Al Kaline (p., cov.) of the Detroit Tigers, who at the age of 20 won the American Baseball League batting championship, but is now finding himself disliked by Detroit fans because he hasn't won it since. 11 My 32-42

Walter Alston, after a masterful run of 129 on the pool table, swears off the game until the baseball season is over. 11 My 62

When the Going Was Worse. Penn State Pitcher John Zanhiser, hit in the elbow while pitching against Penn State freshmen, considers self fortunate compared to previous game against freshmen when he was unable to escape multiple freak injuries. 18 My 14

Seat of Sorrow. Mount Vernon (N.Y.) Commissioner of Recreation John Branca negotiates to acquire some of the old grandstand seats from the Polo Grounds for use in city's stadium. 18 My 18

Home Run Heaven. Frank Deford reports that recent rash of home runs at Kansas City's Municipal Stadium and Minnesota's Metropolitan Stadium (photodiagram) were caused by strong winds in both parks; analyzes effect on statistics. p. 18 My 22-25

The Dodgers' Troubled Giant. William Leggett profiles Power Hitter Frank Howard (p., cov.) of the Los Angeles Dodgers. 25 My 66-72

Ailing Former President Herbert Hoover (quoted) writes to National League President Warren Giles, says baseball is better curative than all his doctors' medicine. 1 Je 63

House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck (quoted) presents trophy to Silvio Conte as Republicans defeat Democrats in annual congressional baseball game. 1 Je 63

A Star on the Wrong Team. Deford's baseball column spotlights Los Angeles Angels Shortstop Jim Fregosi, the best young player in the American League; aborted acting career discussed. p. 1 Je 69-74

Figuring that any man who can successfully send Leo Durocher to the showers can sentence anybody, a Texas judge invites Baseball Umpire Jocko Conlan (quotes) to share his bench for a day. 8 Je 53

The Whiz Kids Are Still Going Strong. William Leggett sketches careers of onetime Philadelphia Phillies Whiz Kids Robin Roberts (p.) of the Baltimore Orioles and Curt Simmons (p.) of the St. Louis Cardinals. 8 Je 60-64

A Wild Scramble in the National League. Photos illustrate close early-season NL pennant race as six teams are bunched near top of standings. p. 15 Je 22-27

What's-My-Liners Bennett Cerf, Dorothy Kilgallen and Arlene Francis watch New York Mets 20-plus-inning game on studio TV. Cerf causes sharp drop in What's My Line Neilsen rating by telling fans to change channels to watch game. 15 Je 57

Prohibited by American League powers from moving the Kansas City Athletics out of Kansas City, Owner Charles O. Finley plans to erect a moveable statue of Connie Mack in the stadium. 15 Je 57

The Longest 90 Feet In Baseball. Photo essay by Neil Leifer views baseball players running the 90 feet from home plate to first base after hitting infield ball which takes about the same time to be fielded and thrown to first for a close play, c.p. 22 Je 32-36

Pitcher Don Drysdale quoted on sometimes not noticing his recording of Our Love, which is heard nightly over the public-address system at Dodger Stadium. 22 Je 48

He Sends In The Smoke For The Green Goose. Mark Kram profiles John Wyatt (p., quoted), the best relief pitcher on the Kansas City Athletics; cites Wyatt's use of slang. 22 Je 56-58

The White Sox Hex That Failed. William Leggett examines day-by-day account of Chicago White Sox' struggle to maintain American League lead over New York and Baltimore in 14 consecutive games; despite superb play and General Manager Ed Short's voodoo doll, Sox wind up in third place. p. 29 Je 20-21, 54-57

The Richest Bonus Baby Ever. Edwin Shrake examines pressures surrounding acquisition by Los Angeles Angels of Rick Reichardt for a record $200,000; evaluates Reichardt's amazing ability in baseball and football, outlines negotiations by teams to attract him. p. 6 Jl 16-21

Time of Trial for Alvin Dark. Robert H. Boyle reports on San Francisco Giants Manager Alvin Dark's (career sketch, p., cov.) difficulties with San Francisco gossip and rumors of a feud with Owner Horace Stoneham, as Giants attempt to overcome weaknesses in tight NL pennant race. 6 Jl 26-31

Philadelphia Orchestra Concert Master Anshel Brusilow (quoted) leaves rehearsal to watch his son, David, strike out twice in Cheltenham Township (Pa.) Little League practice session. 6 Jl 48

Baltimore's Two Flag's. Frank Deford reports that the American League's patriotic Baltimore Orioles, who are wearing patches to celebrate the "Star Spangled Banner Sesquicentennial 1814-1964" are, on the Fourth of July, the leading team in the League's 1964 pennant race; All-Star third baseman Brooks Robinson spotlighted. p. 13 Jl 12-15

Jackie Robinson, while in San Francisco to organize committees to stump for Governor Scranton, says Casey Stengel is a lousy baseball manager. 13 Jl 46

Lou Bunning takes the mound for the Osborne-Kemper-Thomas Calendar Company in its annual slow-pitch softball game, throws a home run pitch after telling everyone that strikeout talent runs in the family. 13 Jl 46

The Mets' Throwback To Cobb. Mark Kram profiles All-Star Second Baseman Ron Hunt (p.) of the New York Mets. 13 Jl 48, 51

How I Know What Pitchers Will Throw. Bob Turley, baseball's No. 1 spy and former American League pitcher, reveals the many telltale habits by which pitchers unconsciously give away the type of ball they are about to throw. d. 20 Jl 30-33

Call Them Mickey's Mice Or Pluto's Pups. Mel Durslag reports that Gene Autry's Los Angeles Angels, unhappy as tenants in Walter O'Malley's Dodger Stadium, will move to Disneyland; points of friction between the two owners discussed. c.d. 20 Jl 44-45

Giant, Spare That Bat. Giant Pitcher Gaylord Perry breaks Nellie Fox' bat after game-winning, ninth-inning hit gave Houston Colt .45s the ball game. 27 Jl 8

Cliffhanger For Yogi and Crucial for July. Frank Deford details crucial Yankee-Orioles series in unusually tight AL pennant race, examines tactics of respective managers Yogi Berra and Hank Bauer. p. 27 Jl 16-19

Los Angeles Angels Owner Gene Autry (quoted) says he still rides a horse in an occasional parade, after tour of links with L.A. Manager Bill Rigney. 27 Jl 45

Wax effigy of San Francisco's Willie Mays is shipped back to Madame Josephine Tussaud's London museum for corrective action. 3 Ag 46

Not Much To Do But Eat, Sleep And Play Baseball. Deford's column spotlights 19-year-old Boston Red Sox Rookie Tony Conigliaro (biopers, p.); outlines family life, first season in minors, first home run in Fenway Park. 3 Ag 49-50

Let's Go Phillies! Jack Olsen reports that the city of Philadelphia, butt of jokes for decades because of its bad baseball teams, is now wide-awake and cheering for the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies; star right fielder John Callison spotlighted. p., cov. 10 Ag 10-15

Houston's Big New Bubble. Photo focuses on Houston, Texas' $32 million sports stadium (p.) which will be the home of the Colt .45s and the Oilers when it opens in April of 1965. 10 Ag 26-27

Little Leaguers Stu Stram and Hermie Bauer, both sons of prominent sportsmen, pace a Johnson County, Kansas YMCA ball team to its seventh victory in 10 starts in the Hot Stove League. 10 Ag 48

Giant Manager Alvin Dark trades autographed baseball for batter's helmet, which he booted into Mrs. Barbara Dewaine's lap after losing his temper with Phillies. 10 Ag 48

Faith or Works. SI defends San Francisco Giants Manager Alvin Dark, accused by columnist of saying that Latin American and Negro ballplayers lacked mental alertness of white players. 17 Ag 7

Record Tantrum. Tacoma Giants First Baseman Norm Larker disagrees with umpire, huffs back to dugout, hurls 12 bats, baseballs and eight helmets onto the field, is thrown out of ball park. 17 Ag 8

'I Managed Good, But Boy Did They Play Bad'. Gilbert Rogin profiles San Jose Bees Manager Rocky Bridges, p. 17 Ag 22-26

Break Up The Percentages. Earnshaw Cook's book, Percentage Baseball, now available; two NL clubs have approached Cook for more information. 24 Ag 9

Arrivederci, DiMaggio. Cincinnati Reds Scout Reno DeBenedetti will go directly to Italy to lure Italians into American baseball in first of a series of baseball schools; Italian kids will be told how much money Joe DiMaggio made as an inspiration. 24 Ag 11

The Big Sellout. American League is in turmoil as CBS President William S. Paley conspires with AL President Joe Cronin to buy 80% of New York Yankees; Commissioner Ford Frick's tenure mysteriously extended a few days before deal. p. 24 Ag 12-17

Greasy Neale: Nothing To Prove, Nothing To Ask. Gerald Holland recreates cocktail party at NFL annual meeting at which all-around Elder Sportsman Greasy Neale was star guest; recounts conversations with Allie Sherman, other sports figures of present and past. Neale played in World Series, took a team to Rose Bowl and coached Philadelphia Eagles to two NFL championships, p. 24 Ag 32-34, 39

Pittsburgh Pirates Pitcher Vernon Law and wife, VaNita, have four boys, Veldon, Veryl, Vance and Vaughn; reporter suggests name Victor for new arrival, but Laws have a dog with that name and will call baby Varlin. 24 Ag 44

Not Enough Talkative Bats in Cincy. Kram's baseball column reports on Cincinnati's difficulty in pennant race despite strongest hitters and pitchers in NL; Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson have not lived up to expectations, but Deron Johnson (p.) hits strong, shows Yankees could have been mistaken trading him. 24 Ag 54-57

They Went And Got 'Em. William Leggett discusses how the Baltimore Orioles and the Chicago White Sox, who are now battling for first place, pushed the American League leading New York Yankees back into third place. p., cov. 31 Ag 14-19

Cuban-born Minnesota Twins Pitcher Camilo Pascual learns that his family is enroute from Cuba shortly after he and his teammates met President Johnson at game between Twins and Senators. Pascual then pitched winning game, his 13th of season. 31 Ag 54

Bring Whitewash. AL will hold special meeting in Boston to review sale of New York Yankees to CBS, but little hope remains that deal will be rescinded because of Yankees' stranglehold on league. 7 S 19

Insouciance. Philadelphia Phillies Rookie Richie Allen, a $50,000 bonus baby, is indifferent to probable Rookie-of-the-Year award, says there is no money in it. 7 S 20

No matter what Hubert Humphrey says about his favorite baseball team, the Minnesota Twins, his Chauffeur remains loyal to Gil Hodges and the Washington Senators. 7 S 86

Hands Across the Pacific. Masanori Murakami is the first Japanese to play for an American major league team, pitches for San Francisco Giants. 14 S 8

A Sad Day For Baseball. William Barry Furlong gives first full report of how the American Baseball League club owners, at a Boston meeting, sold the New York Yankees to Columbia Broadcasting Company. 21 S 26-27, 102-104

Milwaukee Braves Outfielder Lee Maye, whose recording Halfway Out of Love has sold nearly half a million copies, comments on his singing ability and future plans. 21 S 88

Futile Surge Amid The Shuffle. William Leggett spotlights former St. Louis Cardinals Owner Fred Saigh's letter to present Owner August Bush, in which Saigh, prompted by firing of General Manager Bing Devine and Business Manager Art Routzong, offered to buy back the Cardinals, who have moved from eighth place to second in the latter part of the season. 21 S 98-101

Little League ABC's. Before ABC-TV taped the finals of the Little League World Series for its Wide World of Sports, one of the directors told players to be sure they faced the camera. c.d. 28 S 15

"Mother . . . Please!" Houston Colts Manager Harry Craft disliked having General Manager Paul Richards tell him how to run team, so Richards fired him, promoted Third-base Coach Luman Harris to fill spot. 28 S 16

Out In Front With a New Look. William Leggett outlines New York Yankees new image with new players, Joe Pepitone, Phil Linz, Jim Bouton, Pedro Ramos, Al Downing and Mel Stottlemyre; compares them with older players, notes influence of Mantle's courage. 28 S 26-29

The Big Red Surge. William Leggett outlines tight-pennant-race switch from American to National League as Cincinnati Reds take over NL top spot from Phillies, beginning with dramatic three-game sweep in Philadelphia; box shows how each NL contender would do against the Yankees in the World Series. 5 O 26-29

In addition to Charles O. Finley's difficulties with lackluster Kansas City Athletics losing ball games, crimps on promotional publicity gimmicks, and AL owners keeping him in Kansas City, the benefit for which he hired the Beatles was a money loser; Finley donates $25,000 to a children's hospital anyway. 5 O 70

Debacle In Cincinnati. Frank Deford describes how the Cincinnati Red Sox lost their chance of becoming the National League pennant winners; Leo Cardenas (p.) of the Reds spotlighted. 12 O 22-26

Miracle In St. Louis. William Leggett describes how the St. Louis Cardinals rallied to win the National League pennant; Mike Shannon (p. with Tim McCarver) of the Cardinals spotlighted. 12 O 22-27

New York's incumbent Senator Kenneth Keating attends New York Mets game and, in accordance with challenger Robert Kennedy's suggestion to lay off campaigning until after the World Series, describes in "Stengelese" the game he'd seen at Shea Stadium. 12 O 57

An Even Series—With Some Fresh Faces. William Leggett gives day-by-day account of first five games in Yankees-Cardinals World Series. p., c.p. 19 O 22-29

Citizens of Alba, Mo. are unsuccessful in bid to have mayor or city clerk issue proclamation honoring town's most famous citizens, Baseball's Ken and Clete Boyer; mayor and city clerk are Boyers' father and mother, respectively. 19 O 62

Speed Won The World Series. William Leggett discusses the St. Louis Cardinals' World Series victory over the New York Yankees, noting weaknesses in the Yankee outfield. 26 O 30-37

Supreme Court's Chief Justice Earl Warren quoted on likelihood of Washington Senators ever winning the pennant. 26 O 59

By Any Other Name. Houston's NL baseball team plans to change name because of legal action taken by Colt Patent Fire Arms Mfg. Co. 2 N 13

Esteemed Sportsman. SI eulogizes Former President Herbert Hoover, recalls interest in baseball as Stanford University manager and Yankee fan, excerpts his recently-published book, Fishing for Fun and to Wash Your Soul. 2 N 13

Bravura Battle For The Braves. Huston Horn reports on long-time behind-the-scenes negotiations to move the Milwaukee Braves to Atlanta. p. 2 N 32-33, 66

Tim McCarver of the World Series winning St. Louis Cardinals quoted on the blessing he received from Monsignor M. F. Kearney before the Cardinals won a doubleheader. 9 N 47

Crossroads. Baseball's third commissioner, Ford C. Frick, approaches retirement after proposing to favorably-minded team owners that they restore to the commissioner the absolute power Kenesaw Mountain Landis enjoyed. 16 N 13

Music Man Meredith Willson (quoted) regrets giving up baseball playing for piccolo playing at an early age. 23 N 67

Former Baseball Pitcher Dizzy Dean shows his appreciation to the 3,700 country music enthusiasts, who christened him "U.S. Fan No. 1," by sliding up and down the scale a few times with The Wabash Cannonball. 30 N 54

I Remember Lucadello. Textpiece by Robert Creamer is humorous description of the unusual name-dropping technique he employs; at cocktail parties and cultural affairs he substitutes names of baseball players when discussing the arts. c.d., d. 14 D 29-30, 32, 37-38

Cleveland Indian Left Fielder Leon Wagner, before getting role in TV series The Man From U.N.C.L.E., eschewed his eye glasses in hopes that a movie scout would notice him; Wagner will wear tinted contact lenses next season. 14 D 49

BASKETBALL

Curry's Beau Geste. Peace Corpsman Don Curry, who coaches Champion Colombian basketball team, puts integrity and sportsmanship before winning as he prevents team's captain from playing in championship game because he bopped an opponent on the head in a semifinal game. 2 Mr 7-8

Under Secretary of the Navy Paul B. Fay, Jr. falls during basketball game for aging Navy officers. 23 Mr 46

Who Says You Can't Win 'Em All? Brody's basketball column follows Olympic Basketball Coach Hank Iba as he selects U.S. 1964 Olympic Basketball team from 94 aspirants. p. 13 Ap 104-105

Star In Sight. University of Cincinnati Basketball Player George Wilson, passed over by NCAA Olympic selectors for more publicized teammate Ron Bonham, bounces back on AAU team, is selected for Olympics over Bonham and others picked by NCAA. 27 Ap 21

New Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. President Victor Holt, Jr., onetime All-America basketball player and member of 1930 company team, cheers Goodyear's first AAU basketball championship. 4 My 78

Don Murray, Gardner McKay, Pat Boone, Scott Miller and Rafer Johnson, all members of the Sinners, the hottest basketball team in the Los Angeles Recreation Department, win the studio league title. 25 My 74

Singer Johnny Mathis comments on playing basketball before record sessions and night club performances. 22 Je 48

Zone Defenses Set the Style. Mervin Hyman, with drawings by Frank Mullins, explains newly popular zone defenses once deplored by better coaches; was assisted in preparing article by Providence Coach Joe Mullaney. c.d. 7 D 74-80

College

Week's results compiled by Mervin Hyman: 13 Ja 57; 20 Ja 61-62; 27 Ja 87-88; 3 F 59-60; 10 F 69; 17 F 52-53; 24 F 69; 2 Mr 77-78; 9 Mr 71-72; 16 Mr 84-85; 23 Mr 74; 30 Mr 78; 14 D 84-85; 21 D 82.

The Small Men Arise. Frank Deford reports that the virtues of hustle and teamwork enabled the undersized UCLA team to win their second straight title in the Los Angeles Classic, the best of this year's holiday tournaments and kept the Kentucky Wildcats undefeated. p. 6 Ja 48-49

Week's college basketball scores, statistics and highlights compiled by Herman Weiskopf. 6 Ja 61-62

Bob Ottum reports that Davidson College's basketball team, coached by Charles Driesell, is the only undefeated major college team in the south. p. 13 Ja 12-13

Miami's Picks: Slick and Rick. John Underwood reports that Miami's blasé attitude toward basketball has changed considerably since Bruce (Slick) Hale (biopers) has begun coaching the U. of Miami team, whose best front-court player and top scorer is Rick Barry. p. 20 Ja 18-19

Down Bloody Nose Lane. John Underwood account of game in which Coach Dave Strack's (quotes, p.) U. of Michigan team defeats Ohio State taking the lead in the Big Ten; Cazzie Russell's (p.) plays noted. 27 Ja 26-28

Wally's Cue: 'Sidney! Sidney!' John Underwood reports that the unusual defense tactics employed by Villanova U. basketball team, coached by Jack Kraft (quotes), have made it the best team in the east; Quarterback Wally Jones (p.) spotlighted. p. 10 F 26-28

Carleton College President John Nason, after accumulating five fouls, was tossed out of game between sophomores and faculty, but later talked his way back into game and scored six points for the faculty. 10 F 46

Back Home In Indiana. Basketball fans travel from all parts of the country to see Evansville College, the #1 small college team in the U.S., play its home games. 17 F 7

The Urbane Baron Concocts Another Surprise. John Underwood profiles U. of Kentucky Basketball Coach Adolph Rupp (p)., who, at 62 years of age, has eased up on the strict disciplining of his players. 17 F 24-25, 52

Five Midgets and a Wink at Nell. John Underwood reports on Coach Johnny Wooden's UCLA basketball team, the best major college team in the country despite the comparatively small size of the players. p. 24 F 42, 45

The King Of the Hill Is No Patsy. John Underwood profiles Loyola U. Basketball Coach George Ireland (p.), Coach of the Year four times and Man of the Year twice, who has his team hopping to defend their 1963 NCAA championship; Team Captain Jack Egan (p.) spotlighted. 9 Mr 50-52

A Large Field of Unfavorites. John Underwood byliner previews upcoming NCAA basketball championships in Kansas City; non-winners easier to predict than winners. Chart shows schedule of NCAA championship games. 16 Mr 20-23

Six-foot Secretary of State Dean Rusk (quoted) calls himself the last of the midget centers; onetime star of Davidson College's 1931 basketball team sometimes tries layups on son's backyard court. 16 Mr 63

His Hopes Hang by an Ankle. John Underwood examines possibilities in upcoming NCAA basketball championship in Kansas City; Michigan State Star Cazzie Russell's ankle injury (p.) may cost State championship despite efforts of Coach Dave Strack (p.) to repeat earlier wins. Top Contenders: Michigan State, UCLA, Duke, Kansas State. p. 23 Mr 18-21

The Two-Minute Explosion. John Underwood recounts Kansas City's NCAA basketball championships where UCLA defeated Kansas State and Duke, to win national title. Final UCLA-Duke game described, including performances of Kenny Washington, Doug McIntosh; UCLA Coach John Wooden mapped strategy. p., cov. 30 Mr 16-19

To Be In Carolina. Frank McGuire (quoted) begins coaching duties at U. of South Carolina, promises to employ same effective recruiting policies that enhanced his record as North Carolina's basketball mentor. 6 Ap 16

A Plea for Equity. Auburn U. Director of Athletics Jeff Beard suggests NCAA permit colleges to recruit basketball players by the linear foot, because of Southeastern Conference's remarkable number of super-tall players. c.d. 15 Je 14

Is Three a Crowd? Southern Conference members will each use three officials in one of its home basketball games this season in an experiment watched over by Bunn Hackney, supervisor of officials for the conference. 29 Je 8

Princeton history department secretary, annoyed at absence of Bill Bradley, learns basketball star was in Tokyo for the Olympics. 19 O 62

An Ivy Leaguer Is the Best. Frank Deford profiles Princeton Basketball Star Bill Bradley (biopers, p., cov.), who was most valuable player on U.S. Olympic basketball team; outlines reasons for picking Princeton, study habits and difficulties, strong religious beliefs. p. 7 D 36-46

Cry Havoc From the Bench. Portfolio of photos show eccentric behavior of Basketball Coaches Jack Ramsay of St. Joseph's, Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, St. John's Joe Lapchick, Wake Forest's Bones McKinney, Iowa's Ralph Miller. c.p. 7 D 48-52

Scouting Reports. SI selects top 20 college basketball teams, outlines season's prospects, outstanding players; box notes nine other teams which could cause major upsets. p. 7 D 53-73

Boom Went The Anvil Chorus. Frank Deford spotlights basketball game won by U. of Michigan over Duke, in which Michigan proved they had speed as well as muscle power; Michigan's practice session for game discussed. p. 14 D 20-21

Depends on Who's Ruling. New rule regulating the conduct of basketball coaches on the bench is being enforced differently in different conferences (outlined). 21 D 15

The New Deal at Notre Dame. Frank Deford spotlights new Notre Dame Basketball Coach Johnny Dee, outlines new approach to visiting teams, including presentation of mementos to opponents, gold carpet on court. p. 21 D 28-29

Professional

Here Comes Cholly Bop De Bop Bop. Frank Deford profiles Referee Charley Eckman, the most colorful and possibly the best official in basketball. p. 3 F 40-45

Meet the New Wilt Chamberlain. Tom C. Brody profiles pro basketball's greatest scorer Wilt Chamberlain (p.), who changed his playing style and became a complete player this season as a result of Warrior Coach Alex Hannum's advice. 2 Mr 24-25

The Best One-Two Punch In Basketball. Photos by Marvin E. Newman focus on team work of Los Angeles' Jerry West and Elgin Baylor which makes them the best pair in pro basketball. c.p. 9 Mr 36-41

Shakeup. Los Angeles Lakers will probably draft UCLA Basketball Star Walt Hazzard as a territorial. Only four current Lakers are sure of a place on team, all others may be sold or retired by season's outset. 13 Ap 20

How K.C. Won an Oscar in the NBA. Frank Deford discusses Boston Celtics Playmaker K. C. Jones' successful defense of Cincinnati Royal Oscar Robertson during the NBA playoffs; coaching of the Celtics by Red Auerbach spotlighted. Ap 20 58-65

Follow The Bouncing Ball From Honolulu to Boston. Pro Basketball winds up lengthy, globe-trotting season as Boston Celtics, spurred by Bill Russell, win sixth straight NBA title over Wilt Chamberlain and San Francisco Warriors. Deford's column reports new trend toward taller, more rugged players. 4 My 81-84

San Francisco Warrior Owner Franklin Mieuli wants to take down sign "Welcome to San Francisco, Barry!" on the way to the Cow Palace, before ex-N.Y.U. All-America Basketball Forward Barry Kramer arrives to talk contract. 3 Ag 46

Of Charley Horses And Little Old Ladies. Bob Ottum with Boston Celtics Star Forward Tommy Heinsohn (sketch) reports on the side of pro basketball that the spectators never see, spotlighting the Celtics secret plays, Heinsohn's experience in Cracow, Poland, and how the Celtics can be defeated this year. p., cov. 26 O 38-49

The Pack Closes On Boston. Drawings by Frank Mullins highlight the strengths and weaknesses of the NBA teams which include the Philadelphia 76ers, New York Knicks, Baltimore Bullets, Boston Celtics, Cincinnati Royals, Los Angeles Lakers, Detroit Pistons, St. Louis Hawks, and the San Francisco Warriors. c.d. 26 O 50-56

The Panic Is On Again. Bob Ottum reports on early season pro-basketball game won by Red Auerbach's Boston Celtics over Jack McMahon's Cincinnati Royals. p. 9 N 18-19, 60-61

A Touch and a Tooth of Gold. Mark Kram profiles Baltimore Bullets' Gus Johnson (biopers, p.), pro basketball's probable next superstar; outlines career, misleadingly stereotyped personality; outstanding feature is high jumping. 21 D 60-63

BASOLO, BUD See HUNTING

BASS (FISH) See FISH & FISHING

BASSEY, KID See BOXING

BATH, PHIL See GOLF

BATHAM, ALLAN See ISLANDS

BATHING SUITS See CLOTHING

BAUDOUIN, KING OF THE BELGIANS See FISH & FISHING

BAUER, DAVID See HOCKEY

BAUER, HERMIE See BASEBALL

BAUMLER, HANS-JURGEN See OLYMPICS

BAYLOR, ELGIN See BASKETBALL—College

BEACHES
See also UNITED STATES

Danger on the Beach. At summer's outset, SI warns prospective bathers of dangers at beaches; World War II mines wash up on shores with marine markers containing explosive magnesium based compounds abound; description of explosives offered. 1 Je 14

Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Khanh and Maxwell Taylor spend day lounging on beach at Vung Tau, Taylor swims in surf; next day Gulf of Tonkin incident occurred. 17 Ag 63

BEAMER, BRACE See HORSEBACK RIDING

BEARD, JEFF See BASKETBALL—College

BEARS See ANIMALS

BEATHARD, PETE See FOOTBALL—Professional

BEATLES See SWIMMING

BEATRIX, PRINCESS OF THE NETHERLANDS See BOATING

BEATTIE, BOB See OLYMPICS; SKIING

BEATTIE, JIM See BOXING

BEAUFORT, HENRY, DUKE OF See HORSEBACK RIDING

BEAU GAR (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

BEAU PURPLE (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

BEAUTY CONTESTS See CONTESTS

BEDSER, ALEX See SPORTS

BELIVEAU, JEAN See HOCKEY

BELL, JAMES See OLYMPICS

BELLADONNA, GIORGIO See BRIDGE

BELLI, MELVIN See PHYSICAL FITNESS

BELMONDO, JEAN-PAUL See BOXING

BELMONT STAKES See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

BEN BELLA, AHMED See FISH & FISHING; TRAPSHOOTING

BERGISEL STADIUM See OLYMPICS

BERMUDA See TRAVEL 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

BERMUDA DUNES COUNTRY CLUB See GOLF 13 Ja 26-27

BERMUDA RACE See BOAT RACING

BERRA, YOGI See BASEBALL; CRIME; SPORTSCASTERS

BERRY, BOB See FOOTBALL—College 13 Ja 44-46

BERTIL, PRINCE OF SWEDEN See GOLF

BETTING See GAMBLING

BETZ, PAULINE See TENNIS

BIBB, JAMES See ATHLETES

BICYCLE RACING

Republican Congressmen Robert T. Stafford, Donald Rumsfeld, and Silvio O. Conte defeat Democratic counterparts in bicycle race around Washington's Ellipse; Rhode Island Senator Claiborne Pell wins individual victory over all. 4 My 78

Pope Paul VI (quoted) blesses cyclists in 47th running of Italy's Giro d'Italia. 15 Je 57

Lure of the Wild White Noise. Bob Ottum profiles Cyclist Jackie Simes III (biopers, p.,), third in a line of racing Simeses, who is hoping for an Olympic gold medal in Tokyo; outlines racing career, plans; describes dangers, Jackie's many spills and scars. 14 S 22-25

BICYCLING
See also SPORTS

New Yale President Kingman Brewster, Jr. (quoted) bicycles to work every day. 27 Ap 64

BIG TEN CONFERENCE See IAU

BILLIARDS

New York City's Mayor Robert Wagner, (quotes), who played a little drop pool in college, will challenge ex-Ambassador Pearle Mesta in a benefit match next week in Manhattan. 2 Mr 51

You Don't Beat Wimpy At The Game He Loves. Pool Player Luther (Wimpy) Lassiter (biopers) defeats sinus, poor start to take straight pool title in New York's World's Pocket Billiard Tournament. p. 23 Mr 58-61

Pool's Richest Pool. George and Paul Jansco, who stage the annual Jansco Brothers $10,000 World's All-Round Pocket Billiards Tournament, sign two-year contract with ABC-TV to telecast future tournaments; prize money will jump to $20,000. 6 Ap 16

BINGHAM, WALTER See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

BIRDS

Japan's Prince Yoshi succeeds in collecting 50 of the 160 varieties of bird lice known to exist in Japan. 13 Ja 38

A Death Road For The Condor. Ross MacDonald, in defense of the almost extinct Condor (p.), analyzes the problems which will arise if the Supervisor of the San Rafael Primitive Area decides to build a through road along the Sierra Madre Ridge, a major Condor flyway. 6 Ap 86-89

Big Job For Moms. At a U.S. Wildilfe and Fisheries station in Lafayette, La. two bantam hens, Patience and Petulance, successfully hatched two whooping crane eggs, raising modest hopes that the whooping crane may be saved from extinction. 11 My 14 16

Lonely Gourmet Of The Swamps Fights For His Life. Gilbert Cant spotlights Everglades Kite (c.d.), which will survive extinction only if the swamp level remains high and apple snails, their sole diet, are plentiful. 10 Ag 53-55

Birds of a Weather. U.S. Weather Bureau radar installations sometimes follow flocks of birds, turn over observation pictures to Illinois Natural History Survey's Frank Bellrose; conclusions on birds' migratory habits discussed. c.d. 19 O 17-18

BISSELL, RICHARD See BOAT RACING

BIXBY, LLEWELLYN See BOAT RACING

BLACK, HUGO LaFAYETTE See TENNIS

BLACKJACK See CARDS

BLACK MUSLIMS See BOXING

BLISS, WILLIAM See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

BLUEBONNET BOWL See FOOTBALL—College

BLUEFISH (FISH) See FISH & FISHING

BOATING

The Amphibious Resorts. Coles Phinizy takeout on the unspoiled Caribbean island called Marina Cay, one of the Virgin Islands, and its proprietor, Allan Batham (brief biopers, p.); sailing and other water sports available to tourists noted. c.p. 20 Ja 22-29

Justice William O. Douglas takes his bride, Joan (quotes), for a ride on his tiny rubber raft down the Rio Grande and past the bolders that clog the 2,000-foot Mariscal Canyon gorge. 10 F 46

Britain's Marquess of Bristol takes newspaper ad to defend his projected million pound yachting marina at Felixstowe. 10 F 46

Prince William of Gloucester, Queen Elizabeth's first cousin, is beset with difficulties as he sets out for pleasure yachting off Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, with nine Stanford classmates. 13 Ap 103

Walter Cronkite, while in the Caribbean, skippered the 12-meter sloop Cerigo so well that upon his return to New York he purchased a 28-foot ocean racer. 20 Ap 47

Carol Channing comments on her love for the water while yachting around New York Harbor in a Bertram 38 Cruiser rechristened the Hello, Dolly! in her honor. 20 Jl 38

Holland's Crown Princess Beatrix (p.) takes helm of 80-ton Lemster Aak Green Dragon for trip across the Ijsselmeer. 3 Ag 46

Sail It Now, Sink It Later. Hugh Whall reveals burgeoning but difficult business of boat rentals; dangers to renters and genuinely responsible boatsmen outlined, some experiencs of renters related; lack of government or other controls pointed up. c.d. 24 Ag 18-19

Some Ships of the Desert on a Long, Long Safari. Enthusiastic boating fans who live near Albuquerque and call themselves Los Guajolotes travel 550 miles through the desert with their boats on trailers to Lake Mojave where they can take part in their favorite sport. p. 14 D 22-23

BOAT RACING

Hugh Whall closeup on Yacht-Designer Olin Stephens (p.), who is once more called upon to defend America's Cup by designing a boat comparable to his Columbia, successful 1958 defender, and Ranger, the 1937 defender. c.d. 6 Ja 42-45

Sheik Abdul Rahman Mohammed paddles briskly in regatta held in Dar es Salaam harbor, perhaps trying to keep fit in case he needs to make a fast getaway from Zanzibar's political problems. 27 Ja 65

A Race Can Be A Cruise. Paintings by Franklin McMahon spotlight sailors relaxing and having fun while competing in the San Diego to Acapulco sailboat race. c.d. 3 F 28-36

New Boat Seeks Speed Through Luxury. Hugh Whall describes Real-Estate Executive John B. Kilroy's ultramodern, 73-foot aluminum sloop Kialoa II (p.), designed to provide cruising comfort for her crew, who will race her in this year's Acapulco. 3 F 37-39

Sailing To Victory With A Needle And Thread. Hugh Whall spotlights Boat Builder and Sail Maker Ted Hood, who, in his 47-foot yawl Robin, took Class A in the 403-mile race from St. Petersburg to Fort Lauderdale. p. 10 F 52-54

A Rough Race for Sam's Sake. Hugh Whall's report with photos spotlights motorboat race (p.) sponsored by the Sam Griffith Memorial in honor of his memory. 17 F 22-23

England's Two-Boat Try for the Cup. Carleton Mitchell reports that the British Yacht Sovereign (.p), owned by Anthony Boyden, must compete with another for the right to challenge for the America's Cup. p. 17 F 46-48

An Uneasy Way To Acapulco. Carleton Mitchell reports on John B. Kilroy's Kialoa II's loss of the 1,430-mile race from San Diego, Calif. to Acapulco, Mexico, despite innovations designed to make her the fanciest ocean racer afloat. 2 Mr 60-61

Constantine II, new King of the Hellenes, sailed Dragon class yacht to victory in 1960 Olympics to bring home to Greece first Olympic gold medal in 48 years. 16 Mr 63

Meet The Mad Livingstons. Coles Phinizy spotlights Australian bachelor brothers John and Frank Livingston (biopers, (p.), who will finance America's Cup Challenger Kurrewa V. 16 Mr 70-74, 79-82

The Methodical Mr. Boyden. As told to John Lovesey, British Industrialist Anthony Boyden (p.) discusses planning for America's Cup Challenge by building 12-meter Sovereign, enlisting aid of Australian Livingston brothers to provide competition before meeting U.S. defender. 16 Mr 72-73

French Socialist Gaston Defferre, who "sails to win", loses Easter race off Marseilles because of weather; Defferre hopes to oust Charles de Gaulle from Presidency. 13 Ap 103

Seagoing Lochinvar. SI hails Westerner Thomas Patrick Dougan, who bought 1958 America's Cup Winner Columbia to enter in Cup trials, which were, until 1962, the exclusive domain of Britons, Bostonians and New Yorkers. 27 Ap 14

A Heaping Cupful of Twelves. Carleton Mitchell previews America's Cup trials, reports on four U.S. boats, American Eagle, Constellation and previous defenders Columbia and Nefertiti; discusses desigh changes, adoption of Olympic-style course. c.d. 18 My 67-75

Sea-Lawyer Squabble. Annual New York Harbor lifeboat races cancelled amid charges of professionalism against dominators Standard Oil of New Jersey and Norwegian Merchant Marine. 15 Je 17-18

Of Two Better Boats, Which Is More Better? Mitchell's boating column reports advances made by America's Cup challengers as shown in hapless trials of Kurrewa V and Soverrign in warm, windless weather. p. 15 Je 74-77

'American Eagle' Wings Her Way Toward Newport. Hugh Whall reports that Bill Luders' American Eagle crushes her three rivals, Nefertiti, Columbia, and Constellation, during the first week of America's Cup trials, but was almost crushed herself by British tanker named Partu'a while racing Nefertiti. p. 22 Je 59

Yachtsman Bon Vivant. French Navy Lieutenant Eric Tabarly beat Francis Chichester in single-handed Atlantic crossing in a 45-foot ketch using rum for dishwater and dessert; diets compared; Tabarly received de Gaulle's Legion of Honor. 29 Je 8

The Tricks of Match Racing. Cornelius Shields explains subtleties and intricacies of match racing, adapted from his book Cornelius Shields on Sailing. c.d., diag., c. diag. 29 Je 38-47

IBM Board Chairman Tom Watson, Jr. skippered his sloop Palawan to fourth-place finish in Whitmore Trophy race; while he attended a board meeting in Vermont, his navigator, Good Humor President Ed Scheu, gave junior sailors a tour of the sloop. 29 Je 48

Author Richard Bissell took his wife aboard his tugboat, Coal Queen, for a three-craft Mississippi River Race, finished second by ten lengths to The Mary. 6 Jl 48

Yo Heave Ho 'On A Paying Guest's Check. Hugh Whall reports on Cornelius Bruynzeel's (p.) 74-foot ketch Stormvogel, first to cross the line in the Bermuda Race, and its crew members who are each charged $180-per-month for the privilege of sailing on a racing yacht. 13 Jl 52-53

Bill Luders Has Them Crying: Beat the Bird! Whall's boating column spotlights American Eagle's Designer Bill Luders, describes Eagle's design. p. 27 Jl 50-54

Spare The Rod. America's Cup Contender Constellation breaks expensive, titanium-topped mast, borrows a conventional stiff mast to beat previous 15-time winner American Eagle. 3 Ag 5

Stars That Shine With Tokyo Gold. Hugh Whall reports on Richard Sterns' win of U.S. Star Class Olympic sailing trials; reveals how USISA encouraged strong Star Class sailors to lend abilities to strengthen U.S. Olympic hope in other sailing classes. p. 17 Ag 20-21

The Moments That Win Races. Photos by Richard Meek of potential America's Cup defenders American Eagle and Constellation illustrate practiced maneuvers necessary for success; British challenger Sovereign's Helmsman Peter Scott relates impact of having two boats (cov.) competing for honor of being 1964's challenger. c.p., diag. 24 Ag 22-31

Tense Sailor For A Taut Ship. Bob Ottum profiles Bill Cox (p.), skipper of the potential America's Cup defender American Eagle. 31 Ag 46-48

A Slippery Ghost Spooks 'Eagle'. Week of America's Cup final trials finds Constellation five up on American Eagle. p. 7 S 36-37

On The High End Of A Seesaw. Carleton Mitchell reports America's Cup final trials in which Constellation came from behind to defeat American Eagle, represent U.S. in defense of Cup; previous races outlined. British Sovereign wins as challenger over Kurrewa V. p. 14 S 18-21, 60-64

America's Cup hopeful Kurrewa V's crew members followed orders of Skipper, British Army Colonel Robert (Stug) Perry and second in command, Major General Ralph Farrant; when boat lost to Sovereign, crew leaped overboard singing We Don't Want to Join the Army. 14 S 45

David Rockefeller was cruising on the family yawl while his son David Rockefeller, Jr. sailed an International One-Design to a first place finish in a Labor Day race off Bar Harbor, Maine. 21 S 88

Less A Race Than A Ghastly Rout. Carleton Mitchell reports on one-sided America's Cup race, U.S.'s Constellation trounces British Sovereign, examines causes, British newspapers excerpted. p. 28 S 30-39

Astronaut Gordon Cooper (quoted) will pilot a Rayson-Craft ski boat in the $28,000 Salton City 500-mile marathon with Ogden Phipps and Chuck Daigh as co-drivers. 9 N 47

Silver And Bronze Medals For A Golden Team Triumph. Carleton Mitchell reports on the U.S. Olympic yacht's that for the first time in Olympic history took a medal in each of the five Olympic classes, breaking a European monopoly. 9 N 54-56

Time for a Change. New York Yacht Club accepts challenge of Australia's Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron to race for the America's Cup, but not until 1967, giving both time for designing. 16 N 18, 20

Desert Full of Motorboats. Whall's column reports fourth annual Salton City 500 Marathon powerboat race on man-made Salton Sea (brf. sketch, p.), won by Rudy Ramos, with over 100 qualifiers including Astronaut Gordon Cooper (p.). 16 N 70-72

King Olav of Norway, King Constantine of Greece and Prince Philip of Britain attend the annual meeting of the International Yacht Racing Union, presided over by defeated America's Cup Skipper Peter Scott. 30 N 54

Two Seagoing Bearcats Beat the Odds and the Kids. Whall's boating column reports how good sailing and luck enabled old boats, Llewellyn Bixby's Typee and Howard Ahmanson's Sirius II, to win the Los Angeles to Mazatlan ocean race. p. 7 D 92-94

BOATS

See also BOAT RACING

Boats Look Like Boats Again. Hugh Whall reports that the emphasis in 1964 is back on the boats' performance, with more attention being paid to bottoms rather than topsides. Dates and places of boat shows noted. c.d. 20 Ja 16-17

Elvis Presley, who bought yacht that once belonged to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, has a hard time giving it away until Danny Thomas accepted it for St. Jude Hospital. 24 F 40

A J to Remember. British J boat America's Cup challenger (1934) Endeavour I will be purchased by Newport Historical Society from R. S. Clement Lucas, transported to Newport, R.I. 30 Mr 12, 15

Over, Under and Over Again. Hugh Whall gives account of harrowing experience sustained by crew of ocean-racing yawl Doubloon (p.) as boat floundered in Gulf Stream, completely turning over and righting itself twice in huge waves. 1 Je 32-33

Unsuccessful America's Cup Challenger Sir Frank Packer (quoted) says his new bride knows nothing at all about boats. 6 Jl 48

Park a Boat At Your Doorstep. Builders Harry Hicks and Hugo Nadaner and Architect John Lord King build apartment-on-the-water complex called The Cove near San Francisco; apartments described. p., c.d. 3 Ag 14-17

Ralph Evinrude quoted on his wife Frances Langford Evinrude and his 118-diesel yacht Chanticleer. 21 S 88

Australian Press Lord Sir Frank Packer (quoted) presents model of 1962's unsuccessful America's Cup challenger, Gretel, to the New York Yacht Club. 5 O 70

Cinemactress Shirley Jones, with British Stars James Booth and Lionel Jeffries, is stranded in powerboat off Lisbon until Jones' screams attracted rescue party. 19 O 62

Italian Boat Builder Carlos Riva (quoted) opens New York showroom stocked with boats that range upward from $8,990. 26 O 59

The Wanderer, a boat once owned by Sugar Baron Claus Spreckels, Movie Actor Sterling Hayden, and was Novelist-Sailor Jack London's inspiration for the central figure in his best-known story The Sea Wolf, ends her long career by striking a reef off Rangiroa in the Tuamotu Islands after owner Joe Price chartered her to someone else two weeks ago. 23 N 67

BOAT SHOWS See BOATS

BOBSLEDING See OLYMPICS

BOCCIE

Konrad Adenaur (quotes), while at Italy's Lake Como, takes time out every afternoon from poring over notes for a forthcoming autobiography to play a round of Boccie with local workmen. 11 My 62

BOGGS, HALE See FOOTBALL

BOHLEN, CHARLES See HUNTING

BOLACK, TOM See ANIMALS

BOLD LAD (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

BOLD RULER (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

BOLGER, RAY See GOLF

BONAIRE (ISLAND) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

BON AIR HOTEL See GOLF

BOND, GEORGE F. See OCEAN

BONNELLY, RAFAEL See AUTOMOBILES

BONNET, HONORE See OYLMPICS

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS See AUTOMOBILE RACING

BOOKMAKERS

See also HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

Morning Line At Vegas. James (Jimmie the Greek) Snyder abandons handicapping business in Las Vegas, writes odds-making column in the Las Vegas Sun; lists odds on Johnson-Goldwater race, Robert Kennedy-Kenneth Keating Senate race, National League pennant, World Series, NFL title and Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay bout. 28 S 15

BOOKS

BEAT THE DEALER See GAMBLING

THE CLUB CONVENTION See BRIDGE

GOLFER'S GOLD See GOLF

JAMES NORRIS AND THE DECLINE OF BOXING See BOXING

THE KNIGHT AND THE UMBRELLA See GREAT BRITAIN

THE MILLION DOLLAR GATE See BOXING

PERCENTAGE BASEBALL See BASEBALL

VIGOR See PHYSICAL FITNESS

VIM See PHYSICAL FITNESS

Y.A. TITTLE: I PASS! See FOOTBALL—Professional

BOONE, PAT See BASKETBALL; TENNIS

BOOTH, JAMES See BOATS

BOROS, JULIUS See GOLF

BOSCO, PHILIP See JUDO

BOSTON CELTICS See BASKETBALL—Professional

BOSTON PATRIOTS See FOOTBALL—Professional

BOSTON RED SOX See BASEBALL

BOSWELL, CHARLES A. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

BOULES

Georges Pompidou retreats to the suburbs to play a game of boules with Hollywood visitors Jean Seberg, Romain Gary and Anatole Litvak while Mme. Pompidou watches from a helicopter. 25 My 74

BOUTON, JIM See BASEBALL

BOWDEN, DON See TRACK & FIELD

BOWLING

The Golden Valley Lanes' ladies bowling team of Minneapolis defeats Minnesota Twins' Rich Rollins, Lee Stange, Lenny Green, Dick Stigman and Jimmie Hall after spotting them 62 pins. Mrs. Andrew Fisher, mother of the famed quintuplets signs up for her 11th National Bowling Tournament. 27 Ja 65

U.S. Billionaire J. Paul Getty comments on his bowling technique as he and Mrs. Jonathan Sieff watch his ball roll into the gutter. p. 23 N 67

BOWLING GREEN STATE U. (OHIO) See FOOTBALL—College

BOXING

Patterson wins four stuffed animals by defeating Ingemar Johanson, winner of one stuffed animal, in Indian wrestling match on a Stockholm TV show. 6 Ja 46

He Didn't Know The Gloves Were Loaded: Part I: Jack (Doc) Kearns (biopers) and Oscar Fraley relate inside story of bloody 1919 Jack Dempsey-Jess Willard fight as recounted in their book The Million Dollar Gate. It is still rumored that Dempsey's gloves were loaded as Kearns himself admits. p., cov. 13 Ja 48-56

Former Heavyweight Champion Gene Tunney gives California Democrats the distinct impression that his son John Varik Tunney will run for a seat in the House of Representatives. 20 Ja 43

Curious to find out how Cassius Marcellus Clay was planning to handle Liston, William Sol Cutchins, a member of the syndicate that controls Clay, stepped out on the terrace with him and emerged with a noticeably reddened left ear. 20 Ja 43

A Continental Comeback. John Lovesey reports that Floyd Patterson (quoted) decided to make boxing comeback in Sweden because of his popularity there. p. 20 Ja 44-46

Days of Wine and Bloody Noses. Part II: Jack (Doc) Kearns with Oscar Fraley recounts wild years he managed Boxing Champion Mickey Walker after his split with Jack Dempsey; Dempsey-Tunney fight cited. p. 20 Ja 50-59

The Most Expensive Sports Event in History. Jim Flora's drawing of Miami Beach's Convention Center, where boxing fans will watch the championship bout between Sonny Liston and Cassius Clay, shows the prices of seats at various distances from the ring. c.d. 27 Ja 24-25

Heavyweight Champion Sonny Liston loses game of blackjack in Las Vegas. 27 Ja 65

Reel Knockout. Jim Jacobs, who owns the largest collection of fight films (13,000) in the world, and Bill Cayton, owner of The Big Fights Inc., have produced a program called The Sonny Liston vs. Cassius Clay Special, soon to be shown to TV officials; examples of Liston's and Clay's past fights. 3 F 7

Retired Air Force General Emmett O'Donnell breaks up argument between Former Heavyweight Champion Gene Tunney and Restaurateur Toots Shor (quoted). 3 F 46

The Four Who Baffled Liston. In Morton Sharnik's byliner Marty Marshall, Bura Whitehurst, Eddie Machen and Jim McCarter reveal tactics they employed while fighting Heavyweight Champion Sonny Liston and how he can be beaten. p., c.d. 10 F 60-68

The Sting of the Louisville Lip. Tex Maule reports on Cassius Clay's and Drew (Budini) Brown's activities as Clay trains at Angelo Dundee's Fifth Street Gym in Miami Beach. p. 17 F 50-51

The Many Faces of Mr. Mac. Gilbert Rogin profiles Multimillionaire Businessman William B. MacDonald Jr. (p.), promoter of forthcoming Liston-Clay fight. 17 F 54-62

'I'm A Little Special.' Cassius Clay (cov.) byliner reveals his true nature, in which zaniness is a calculated ingredient, sober ambitions, reasons for his success, tactics he will employ while fighting Sonny Liston and motives for continuing his boxing career. 24 F 14-15

A Special View of the Camp of the Champ. Drawing by Douglas Gorsline depicts Sonny Liston surrounded by trainers and Mrs. Liston while training for title fight with Cassius Clay. c.d. 24 F 16-17

Liston's Edge: A Lethal Left. Tex Maule reports on boxing tactics and techniques of soon-to-meet boxers Sonny Liston and Cassius Clay as revealed in past fights. p. 24 F 18-21

The Poet and the Boxer. Robert Cantwell's preface precedes Georges Peeters article relating Jean Cocteau's days as manager of Panama's World Bantamweight Champion Al (Panama) Brown. c.r. 2 Mr 62-72

Yes, It Was Good and Honest. Tex Maule recounts Cassius Clay-Sonny Liston heavyweight championship fight during which Clay outmaneuvered and outfought Liston to win the title just as he predicted. Chart shows how gross income of the fight was divided. Cover photo of Liston and Clay in ring. 9 Mr 20-25

The First Days In the New Life of the Champion of the World. Huston Horn records details of how Cassius Clay (p.) is dealing with success after defeating Sonny Liston for the heavyweight title. 9 Mr 26-27, 54, 57

At ringside covering the Liston-Clay fight for the nation's press were Mrs. Loel Guiness and George Plimpton taking notes for Harper's Bazaar, Murray Kempton getting the political angle for The New Republic, Norman Mailer and Budd Schulberg scribbling notes respectively for Esquire and Playboy. 9 Mr 49

Alaskan Magistrate Robert M. LaFollette, grandson of famed Senator Robert (Fighting Bob) LaFollette, loses debut bout as heavyweight boxer in Anchorage Golden Gloves. 16 Mr 63

Cassius Clay's Aunt Coretta Clay offers solution as to how Clay defeated Sonny Liston: young Clay pedaled bicycle to aunt's house every day to sample her secret-formula fudge. 16 Mr 63

Sugar Daddy With A Bongo Beat. Lee Griggs and Raphael Delgado Lozano boxing column spotlights Cuban World Featherweight Champion Urtiminio (Sugar) Ramos (biopers, p.), who foregoes nightlife in Tokyo to train for defense of title against outclassed Orient Featherweight Titleholder Mitsunori Seki. 16 Mr 66-67

Trial By Ordeal. Cassius Clay (quoted) takes new, harder mental test to determine acceptability by Army. 23 Mr 11

Floyd Patterson's younger brother Ray, smitten by Swedish blonde Vivian Backman while putting on exhibition bouts with Floyd, plans to open auto-repair shop in Sweden. 23 Mr 46

Boxing's Silliest Hour. World Boxing Association (nee National Boxing Association) may depose Cassius Clay as heavyweight champion, Liston as contender; move seen as persecution for involvement with Black Muslims. 30 Mr 9

Italian Cinemactor Marcello Mastroianni uses coat as shield against barrage of tossed shoes and pop bottles at Griffith-Duran welterweight fight in Rome. p. 30 Mr 49
Taking Stock of Sonny Liston. Report by Robert Boyle probes Senate Antitrust and Monopoly Subcommittee hearing on possible federal control of boxing. Testimony reveals ex-heavyweight champion Sonny Liston (p.), managed by J. Nilon (p.), has been signing over large stock percentages in Inter-Continental Promotions, Inc. to mobsters S. Margolis, A. Resneck (p.), S. Avena and others. p. 6 Ap 24-27
The Dingy, Sprightly Home of the Good Ones. Tex Maule reports on the Fifth Street Gym in Miami Beach, Florida, managed by Mrs. Hattie Ambusch, from which flows a ceaseless stream of boxing champions including Cassius Clay, Willie Pastrano, Luis Manuel Rodriguez, Tony Alongi, Marcelino Armenteros and Stormy Winters. p. 6 Ap 70-79
The Egyptian Young Men's Moslem Assn. suggests to the Moslems' newest convert Muhammad Ali (Cassius Clay) that he live in Cairo where he is welcome. 20 Ap 47
U.S. Ambassador to Panama Jack Hood Vaughn (quotes), formerly a three-time Golden Gloves champion, is now limited to shadow boxing in the shower because of his busy work schedule. 20 Ap 47
The Champ's Fist Was On the Sparrow's Eye. Tex Maule gives account of light heavyweight championship fight in which Willie Pastrano defeated Goyo Peralta in five rounds. p. 20 Ap 48-50
For Want of a Friend. Willie Mays recalls own Army induction tests with help from friendly sergeant on written parts, says Cassius Clay is no dope, and can make more money outside the Army. c.d. 27 Ap 14
Brinkley vs. The Brontosaurus. David Brinkley's Journal Special on NBC-TV launches diatribe on boxing including slaps at both Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston. 4 My 16
Mountain Comes To Muhammad Ali. As Liston-Clay rematch seems about to be arranged, the World Boxing Association will probably have to reinstate Liston as a contender. 4 My 22, 25
The Unbearables. Head of the Internal Revenue Service and Former Boxer Mortimer Caplin takes no sentimental view of boxing as he recently collected income taxes from Joe Louis, Sonny Liston and Cassius Clay. 11 My 14
A Mighty Desirable Fellow. John Underwood takeout on Middleweight Champion Joey Giardello (biopers, p.) reveals change in Philadelphia street fighter from Dead End Kid to religious, doting father; reports fight with Argentine Middleweight Champion Rocky Rivero in non-title TV bout. cov. 18 My 30-43
Goodby, Cus. Floyd Patterson fires friend and Manager Cus D'Amato without telling him; D'Amato (quoted) hears it from a reporter, won't accept it until he hears it from Patterson. 1 Je 14
Muhammad Ali in Africa. Gerry Cranham photo essay follows Heavyweight Champion Muhammad Ali—nee Cassius Clay—through triumphant tour of Ghana. p. 1 Je 20-25
At the Fair with Fat Buster. Robert H. Boyle reports Olympic boxing trials at New York World's Fair. U.S. team will be led by 295-pound Buster Mathis (biopers, p.), and Light Middleweight Toby Gibson (career sketch, p.). 1 Je 26-31
Cassius Clay explodes at Nigerian Kid Bassey's attempts to keep Ali from cutting short his Nigeria visit, undiplomatically ducks a soccer game, several banquets and the Miss Nigeria beauty contest, to visit Nasser's Egypt. 15 Je 57
Infidels On The Horizon. Cassius Clay bounces from monument to mosque in Egypt confident that there are no threats against his heavyweight title while Sonny Liston works hard to regain his championship in a rematch possibly in autumn. d.p. 22 Je 16-17
King David And The Black Bull. Huston Horn reports that Emile Griffith retains welterweight title in fight with former welterweight champion Luis Rodriguez, who had a dream that he and a Biblical warrior would win title back from Griffith. p. 22 Je 18-21
A Judge's Report. John Romero (p.), one of the three officials assigned to the Griffith-Rodriguez bout, discusses pressures of scoring such an evenly matched pair in a title fight. 22 Je 20-21
Joseph Louis Barrow Jr. (quoted), whose father, Joe Louis, never got through high school, graduates from the exclusive University High School on the campus of the U. of Chicago. 22 Je 48
Former Middleweight Champion Terry Downes (p., quoted) expresses his love of boxing. 22 Je 48
Exit Champ, Enter Contender. As Middleweight Boxing Champion Gene Fullmer announces retirement at press conference, his manager, Marv Jenson, in the midst of a campaign for re-election as Salt Lake County Commissioner, also announces retirement. 6 Jl 8
A Fight in Sweden Between Boxing's Forgotten Men. Maule's column previews upcoming heavyweight bout between Former Champion Floyd Patterson and Eddie Machen, who, recently recovered from a nervous breakdown, has a new trainer and has won five of five fights. p. 6 Jl 50-52
Still Too Tender To Be A Tiger. Tex Maule reviews the Floyd Patterson (p.)-Eddie Machen fight, won by Patterson. 13 Jl 20-21
French Movie Star and one-time Amateur Fighter Jean-Paul Belmondo (quoted) is avid boxing fan although he says he is fed up with the sport. 20 Jl 38
Muhammad Ali (Cassius Clay) quoted on Rechima, the Sudanese girl whom he met on a recent trip to Africa. 10 Ag 48
Muhammad Ali corroborates rumors by revealing that he has married Chicago Model Sonji Roi (p.); closes her up in bathroom during press conference, saying Muslim women should remain in background. 24 Ag 44
The Pride of Kid Galahad, Inc. Jack Olsen profiles Heavyweight Boxer Jim Beattie, who is the creation of Gene Schoor of Kid Galahad, Inc., a syndicate which aims to clean up boxing and develop Beattie as the new heavyweight champion. p. 31 Ag 64-68, 73-75
To Fight or Not To Fight? Robert H. Boyle reports on World Boxing Association convention in which Liston-Clay rematch was banned after world heavyweight wrestling champion had been picked. p. 7 S 28-31
Decline and Fall, New book, James Norris and the Decline of Boxing, by Barney Negler belatedly points up demise of boxing as important sport because of underworld connections of Czar James D. Norris with Hoodlum Frank Carbo. 28 S 15-16
Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney meet in Los Angeles to glamorize young John V. Tunney's campaign for Congress. 5 O 70
Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson (p., quoted), after being defeated by Floyd Patterson and Eddie Machen and banned from the ring in 1957 for being physically unfit, is now shining shoes in New York City. 12 O 57
Cassius Clay comments on single shot .22 caliber derringer he bought from a pawnbroker. 12 O 57
'I Want To Destroy Clay.' Floyd Patterson, with Milton Gross, examines heavyweight boxing situation, reasons he feels he has to beat Cassius Clay to preserve image of boxing championship. p. 19 O 42-61
Former Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano loses court decision to his gardener Cooper Kirk, who collected $706 owed him by Marciano for mowing the lawn. 26 O 59
Nigeria's Commercial Consul in the U.S. Aggrey K. Oji, his wife Udo and Oji's aide Ifeanyi Brooks (p.) attend Dick Tiger-Joey Archer fight at Madison Square Garden. 26 O 59
The Prefight Moods of Sonny Liston. Mark Kram examines moods of Sonny Liston as he trains to fight with Cassius Clay. p. 2 N 34-42
Still Hurt and Lost. Gilbert Rogin reports Sonny Liston is odds-on favorite to defeat Cassius Clay in Boston despite resounding defeat last February in Miami. p., cover photo of Clay and Liston in ring. 16 N 22-27
The $400,000 Bellyache. Huston Horn reports on Cassius Clay's hernia, which postponed his fight with Sonny Liston for six months and cost other people connected with the fight a total of $400,000. d., p. 23 N 30-32
Turkish President Cemal Gursel quoted on brother-Moslem Muhammad Ali's excessive talking. 23 N 67
Former Middleweight Champion Jake LaMotta, who is scheduled to appear in movie called The Doctor with Rocky Graziano, comments on his boxing ability. 30 N 54
Fast Hands and Purple Lights. Edwin Shrake reports heartening win for Light-heavyweight José Torres over Bobo Olson at Madison Square Garden; outlines Torres' career. p. 7 D 30-31
Sugar Ray Robinson's (quoted) plans to have an audience with the Pope bog down after unorthodox boxing match with Mickey Hargitay at the Colosseum. p. 14 D 49

BOYD, JOSEPH M. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
BOYDEN, ANTHONY See BOAT RACING
BOYER, BILL See GOLF
BOYER, CLETE See BASEBALL
BOYER, KEN See BASEBALL
BOYLE, ROBERT H.
See also BASEBALL; BOXING; FISH & FISHING
Profiles Expert Dog Handler Anne Hone Rogers. 10 F 40-45
Reports on the Pennsylvania-Texas high school graduates' all-star football game. 10 Ag 18-20, 25
Examines increasing destruction of U.S. through money-grabbing greed and ignorance, chides conservationists for lack of unity. 16 N 78-90
Predicts changes in American sport. 21 D 40-45
BRADLEY, BILL See BASKETBALL—College
BRADLEY U. See BASKETBALL—College
BRADSHAW, THORNTON F. See SWIMMING
BRANCA, JOHN See BASEBALL
BRANDO, MARLON See FISH & FISHING
BRANDT, WILLY See SOCCER
BRAZIL
Brazil's leading magazine O Cruzeiro complains that Ieda Vargas (quoted), Miss Universe of 1963, has had her nose bobbed. 13 Jl 46
BREATHITT, EDWARD See BASEBALL; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
BREEDLOVE, CRAIG See AUTOMOBILE RACING
BRESNAHAN, BILLY See GAMBLING
BREWSTER, KINGMAN, JR. See BICYCLING
BREZHNEV, LEONID See TRAPSHOOTING
BRIDGE
Goren's New Formula for Easier and Better Bridge by Charles Goren with Jack Olsen.
Part I: Throw Out the Fads and Gimmicks. Goren discusses basic rules and principles on playing bridge for fun; underscores fun as game's main purpose, recalls how he learned to play, secrets of his success and reviews faults of average American player. c.p., diag., cov. 17 F 32-43
Part II: The Game Favors the Bold. Goren discusses art of forceful, well thought-out bridge bidding; flays excessive reliance on standard bidding systems. p. 24 F 24-32
Part III: Doubling Will Double Your Fun. Goren discusses the various tactics of doubling and redoubling, berating bridge players who are afraid or neglect to use them. c.d. 2 Mr 32-48
Part IV: Tricks of My Trade. Goren advises bridge players to break the old rules occasionally by playing a deceptive and irregular hand. Collection of cartoons by H. T. Webster from book "Who Dealt This Mess?" feature bridge players. r. 9 Mr 28-34
Part V: Winning Table Tactics. With Jack Olsen, Goren concentrates on mistakes commonly made at bridge, outlines tactics which can cost points, enhance contracts; suggests ways of dealing with chronic bridge boors; Richard Meek's photo-collage depicts facets of Goren's variegated personality. c.p. 16 Mr 52-53, 57-60
Omar Sharif (p.), while participating in the world bridge tourament, notes that the worst experience of his life was being stranded in the desert for 18 months with non-bridge players Peter O'Toole, Alec Guinness and Anthony Quinn. 25 My 74
Italy Deals Itself Another Winner. Dan Jenkins discusses the World Bridge Olympiad won by the Italian team for the seventh time in the last eight years; problems encountered by Italy's Olympiad players noted. Goren analyzes two bridge hands that helped Italy to victory. p. 25 My 78-82

Goren's Column

Unconventional Triumphs in Miami. Notes the convention card on which tournament players are required to list unusual bids in the Fall National contract bridge championships. c.d. diag. 13 Ja 41
The U.S. Prepares an Assault on Bridge Italian Style. Previews upcoming World Bridge Olympiad in New York. Favored Italian team, led by reckless Giorgio Belladonna (p.), is formidable, but not unbeatable. U.S. team will be sparked by holdovers Robert Jordan (p.) and Arthur Robinson. 13 Ap 108-109
Two Kids and a Pair of Foxes. Reports on results of U.S. team trials for the World Bridge Olympiad, describing first-finish by Robert Hamman and Donald Krauss and what can be expected of seniors Stan Stayman, Vic Mitchell, Robert Jordan and Arthur Robinson. c.d. 20 Ap 52-56
Words Will Never Hurt Them. Discusses bridge hands played by Captain Paul Hodge's U.S. Olympiad team Jan Stone, Muriel Kaplan, Stella Rebner, Alicia Kempner, Helen Portugal and Agnes Gorden during practice games with the Canadian Open team and the Canadian Women's team in Toronto. 11 My 70-71
Never Underestimate an Overbidder. Uses hand played in Manila to illustrate slim possibility of a good result when boldly overbidding; describes using a reverse bid in Extra Trick. c.d. 18 My 78
Little Major's Minor Mishap. Reports use of Terence Reese's "Little Major" gag convention (explained) which he began to use in earnest. c.d. 1 Je 76
The Chinese Took Them to the Cleaners. Relates how the Republic of China defeated the United States in the second-round match of the World Bridge Olympiad. c.d. 15 Je 66
A Double Deal For Jimmy. Discusses controversial bridge hand played by Swiss Player Jimmy Ortez-Patino. c.d. 13 Jl 54
A Far Eastern Bid For Supremacy. Reports that Far Eastern bridge is bound to play an important part in world championships of the future. c.d. 20 Jl 42
The Other Side of Point Count. Spotlights new leading lady of Master Points, Mary Jane

Farrell; points out that point count is valuable not only in bidding, but can aid decisions during play as well. c.d. 27 Jl 56-57

Big Hand For Big Lew. Spotlights California bridge player Lew Mathe, who, with the best of his Los Angeles playing mates, defeated Eric R. Murray and his Toronto team to retain their inter-city title and the SPORTS ILLUSTRATED trophy. c.d. 10 Ag 57

The End of a Canada Dry Spell. Reports on bridge's Summer Nationals held in Toronto. c.d. 17 Ag 72

The Art of Leading Misleadingly. Uses hand from 1963 World Championship in St. Vincent to illustrate changes governing opening leads. c.d. 24 Ag 53

The Captain Is Back On Deck. Reports that John Gerber, who was renamed the non-playing captain of the U.S. team for the 1965 world championship, wins the Masters Mixed Team championship. c.d. 31 Ag 63

The Judge Commits Larceny. Spotlights Italian World Olympiad Bridge Player Walter Avarelli, who, in a hand of bridge swindled the Republic of Red China's bridge team. c.d. 21 S 90

No Jack Dalton To Save The Day. Uses hand played by all-Canadian finalists at the Masters Knockout Team championship in Toronto to illustrate advisability of gambling further point losses when points will be lost anyway. c.d. 28 S 59

Another Lesson From A Master. Spotlights Bridge Theorist and Player Harold S. Vanderbilt, who, in his fourth book, The Club Convention, modernizes the system he originally advocated in 1925. c.d 12 O 72-73

A Bad Role for Omar the Actor. Describes hand played by Cinemactor Omar Sharif, representing Egypt in the U.S.-U.A.R. match. 19 O 82

One Baron Who Could be Queen. Reports Pacific Northwest Regional Championships in which Hermine Baron collected 35 master points, boosting her total winnings for the year above 1,060, topping Jacoby's 1,034 last year. 2 N 64-65

Two Women With Sharpened Fingernails. Spotlights Helen Portugal and Dorothy Hayden, the only two women who will take part in the 1965 trials for a place on the U.S. international team. 9 N 58-59

Three Pairs for One Team. Predicts which pairs will make the team that will represent North America in the 1965 World Bridge Championships. 23 N 88-89

Old Hands With New Tricks. Chronicles results of Dallas' trials to form a North American entry in the 1965 World Championship; trials won by Howard Schenken and Peter Leventritt. c.d. 7 D 95-97

Don't Fool Around With Fancy Gadgets. Discusses the two-diamond bid to announce a three-suiter, spotlighting hand displayed in 1955 European Championships in Amsterdam. c.d. 14 D 57

A Test of Skill For The Holiday Season. Offers ten bidding problems and two in play, plus two special puzzles for Christmas season. c.d., p. 21 D 78-80

BRIDGES, ROCKY See BASEBALL

BRIGHAM YOUNG U. See BASKETBALL—College

BRINKLEY, DAVID See BOXING

BRITISH OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT See GOLF

BRODIE, JOHN See GOLF

BRODY, TOM
See also FOOTBALL—College; ROWING; TRACK & FIELD
Profiles pro basketball's Wilt Chamberlain. 2 Mr 24-25
Reviews NHL season's conclusion. 30 Mr 56-60
Follows Olympic Basketball Coach Hank Iba as he selects U.S. 1964 Olympic Basketball team. 13 Ap 104-105
Reports on Toronto Maple Leafs' third straight Stanley Cup win over Detroit Red Wings. 4 My 89-95

BROOKES, JACQUELINE See JUDO

BROOKS, IFEANYI See BOXING

BROSIO, MANLIO See TENNIS

BROSNAN, JIM See BASEBALL

BROWN, ALPHONSE THEO See BOXING

BROWN, BILL See FOOTBALL—Professional

BROWN, DAVID, JR. See AUTOMOBILES

BROWN, DREW (BUDINI) See BOXING

BROWN, EDMUND G. (PAT)
See also HIKING
California Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown (p.), who has always opposed the death penalty for humans, but not for ducks and geese, hunts on the Wallace Lynn ranch with Chief Justice Earl Warren (p.); bag 12 birds each. 6 Ja 46
Brown argues with Nevada's Governor Grant Sawyer over old boundary controversy. 27 Ja 65
Before a crowd of Mark Twain fans, North Carolina Governor Terry Sanford's frog leaped 11 feet 9 inches to wrest leaping honors from Pat Brown's entry in the 99th local frog-jumping contest. Nevada Governor Grant Sawyer's Paiute Pete was judged tournament's Grand Champion. 8 Je 53
Governor appoints Actress Janet Leigh to the state recreation commission. 20 Jl 38
Compulsive Sportsman Brown, who broke ankle on golf course a month ago, says if doctors don't take cast off soon he will start limping around the links, cast and all. 24 Ag 44

BROWN, MRS. EDMUND See SPORTS

BROWN, GWILYM S. See GOLF; OLYMPICS; TRACK & FIELD

BROWN, JOE DAVID See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred; SPORTS

BROWN, PAT See SPORTS

BROWN, WALTER A. See SPORTS

BROWN, WARREN See CLOTHING

BROYLES, FRANK See FOOTBALL—College; GOLF

BRUMEL, VALERI See AUTOMOBILES; TRACK & FIELD

BRUSILOW, ANSHEL See BASEBALL

BRUYNZEEL, CORNELIUS See BOAT RACING

BRYANT, PAUL (BEAR) See FOOTBALL—College

BUCKSON, DAVID P. See HORSE RACING—Harness

BUDGE, DON See BUSINESS

BUENO, MARIA See TENNIS

BUFFALO See HUNTING

BUFFALO BILLS See FOOTBALL—Professional

BUKIET, BERNARD See TABLE TENNIS

BULLFIGHTING
Rejoneador Angel Peralta comments on the possibility that his pupil Geraldine Chaplin might take up bullfighting professionally, but those who have been watching teacher and pupil think that Geraldine may take up Peralta matrimonially. 8 Je 53
Actor Gilbert Roland, whose forbears all were bullfighters, rescues Canadian Bullfighter Carolyn Hayward after she had dedicated bull to him and was tossed to the ground. 29 Je 48
During Pamplona's annual running of the bulls, Prince Hugo Carlos de Borbón y Parma challenged six of them, waved to his bride, then dashed to safety. 27 Jl 45
Artistry In A Bullring Is Not Enough. Paul Evan Ress spotlights the most accomplished and graceful of matadors Paco Camino, who now faces inelegant but daring El Cordobés, who, because of his astounding courage, will soon become the new national hero of Spain. c.p., p. 10 Ag 44-47
Torero-turned-movie-star El Cardobés goes to Paris to look at his portrait painted by U.S. Painter Harold Stevenson; is disappointed in all attempts at diversion, sees his latest movie, says bullfighting and cinema should not be mixed. 19 O 62

BULLS See ANIMALS

BUNDY, McGEORGE See TENNIS

BUNNING, LOU See BASEBALL

BURLESON, DYROL See OLYMPICS; TRACK & FIELD

BURRELL, ODE See FOOTBALL—College 13 Ja 44-46

BURTON, MRS. BERYL See SPORTS

BUSH, AUGUST See BASEBALL

BUSINESS
See also AUTOMOBILE RACING; GOLF
The Many Faces of Mr. Mac. Gilbert Rogin profiles Multimillionaire Businessman William B. MacDonald, Jr. (p.), promoter of forthcoming Liston-Clay fight. 17 F 54-62
Now that Don Budge has gone back to tennis as a teaching pro in Nassau, his ex-business partner, Sydney Wood, joins forces with Arnold Palmer opening Arnold Palmer Laundries, Inc., Arnold Palmer Dry Cleaning, Inc., and the Arnold Palmer Maid Service. 24 F 40
Ex-Giant Quarterback Charles Conerly (p.) finds retirement boring, opens shoe store in Clarksdale, Miss. 5 O 70

BUTKUS, DICK See FOOTBALL—College

BUTLER, RICHARD AUSTEN See HUNTING

BUTLER, VELMA FERN (APRIL, MARCH) See GOLF

C

CAJUN GOLF CLASSIC See GOLF

CALDWELL, ERSKINE See FOOTBALL—Professional

CALIENTE RACE TRACK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

CALIFORNIA, U. OF See ROWING

CALLISON, JOHNNY See BASEBALL

CAMINO, PACO See BULLFIGHTING

CAMPBELL, BILL See GOLF

CAMPBELL, DONALD See AUTOMOBILE RACING

CAMPBELL, JACK See HUNTING

CAMPBELL, JOHN CARDEN See ARCHITECTURE

CAMPBELL RIVER See RIVERS

CAMP PERRY, OHIO See SHOOTING

CANADA
See also RIVERS; TRAVEL
Rare Bird, The Ookpik. Eskimo widow Mrs. Jennie Snowball makes "Ookpik" Arctic owl puppets (p.) to sub as Canadian symbol. Great demand proves too much for hand crafting, two Canadian firms will mass produce them. 23 Mr 8, 11

CANADA CUP See GOLF

CANOES See TRAVEL

CANT, GILBERT See BIRDS

CANTWELL, ROBERT
See also BOXING; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
Reports on the unfamiliar Canadian reaches of the Columbia River. 24 F 56-66
Traces history of free road maps. 22 Je 60-71
Brief sketches on the 25 winners of SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's Silver Anniversary All-America Awards. 30 N 36-45

CAPLIN, MORTIMER See BOXING

CARDS
See also BRIDGE
David Scherman discusses Dr. Edward O. Thorp's effective computer system for beating blackjack; rules, four separate strategies to win. p., c.d. 13 Ja 18-25
A Case of Gin In Vegas. Charles Goren reports on the Las Vegas Gin Rummy tournament won by Stockbroker Manny Rose. p. 6 Ap 90-91
Sophia Loren, on the set of Marriage Italian Style, plays poker with technicians, cameramen and Roman stagehands, wins 1,000 lire ($1.60). 15 Je 57

CARIBBEAN SEA See ISLANDS

CARLING BREWING COMPANY See GOLF

CARLOS HUGO, PRINCE DE BORBÓN Y PARMA See BULLFIGHTING; TENNIS

CARMICHAEL, HOAGY See OLYMPICS

CARPENTER, EDWARD See SOCCER

CARPENTER, SCOTT See ACCIDENTS; HORSEBACK RIDING

CARR, HENRY See TRACK & FIELD

CARRY, PETER
Compiles weekly baseball results: 6 Jl 69; 20 Jl 61; 27 Jl 66; 3 Ag 65; 10 Ag 68; 17 Ag 85; 24 Ag 67; 31 Ag 76; 7 S 124; 14 S 77; 21 S 115; 28 S 100; 5 O 127; 12 O 93.

CARTOONS See DRAWINGS

CARVER, NORMAN, JR. See RIVERS

CASEY, JOHN See FISHING

CASPER, BILLY See GOLF

CASSEL, SIR FRANCIS See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

CASTRO, FIDEL See CUBA

CATALOGS See SPORTS

CATFISH (FISH) See FISH & FISHING

CATTLE See HUNTING

CAYTON, BILL See BOXING

CEDAM See CLUBS

CENTRAL AMERICA See RIVERS

CERF, BENNETT See BASEBALL

CHAMBERLAIN, WILT See BASKETBALL—Professional; HORSE RACING—Harness; FOOTBALL—Professional

CHANEL, GABRIELLE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

CHANNING, CAROL See BOATING

CHANTILLY RACE TRACK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

CHAPLIN, CHARLIE See SNAKES

CHAPLIN, GERALDINE See BULLFIGHTING; SNAKES

CHARLES, PRINCE OF WALES See POLO

CHARLTON, FRED See GOLF

CHARTS See specific sports

CHECKERS (DOG) See DOGS

CHELSEA SOCCER TEAM See SOCCER

CHESS
Twenty-year-old Bobby Fischer wins U.S. chess championship for sixth time, making clean sweep of tournament. Diagrams show positions of chessmen, as one after another of the strongest players (named) in U.S. resign. diag. 13 Ja 14-15
A Master Goof In Amsterdam. Larry Evans reviews the International Chess Tournament in Amsterdam, in which the American team failed to place among the qualifiers and West Germany's Klaus Darga resigned his winning position against Levente Lengyel of Hungary. d. 20 Jl 48

CHEVROLET, MRS. LOUIS See AUTOMOBILES

CHICAGO BEARS See FOOTBALL—Professional

CHICAGO BLACK HAWKS See HOCKEY

CHICAGO CUBS See BASEBALL

CHICAGO WHITE SOX See BASEBALL

CHILDREN See GAMES; SKIING; SPORTS
CHIPLEY, FLORIDA See HUNTING
CHOU EN-LAI See TABLE TENNIS
CHRISTMAS GIFTS See SPORTS
CHRYSLER CORP. See AUTOMOBILE RACING
CHURCHILL, WINSTON SPENCER See AVIATION
CINCINNATI REDS See BASEBALL
CINCINNATI ROYALS See BASKETBALL—Professional
CLAMS See FISH & FISHING
CLARIDGE, DENNIS See FOOTBALL—College
13 Ja 44-46
CLARK, JIMMY See AUTOMOBILE RACING; GOLF; SPORTS
CLARK, JOHN See FISHING
CLARK, MRS. JOHN H. (MABE) See ACCIDENTS
CLARK, JOSEPH See TENNIS
CLARK, MARK See FISH & FISHING
CLARK, RON See TRACK & FIELD
CLAY, CASSIUS See BOXING
CLAY, CORETTA See BOXING
CLEMENT, CYNTHIA LEE (MISS STERN DRIVE) See CONTESTS
CLEVELAND, OHIO See TENNIS
CLEVELAND BROWNS See FOOTBALL—Professional
CLEVELAND INDIANS See BASEBALL
CLONINGER, TONY See BASEBALL
CLOTHING
Swimsuits That Are Made To Get Wet. J. Frederick Smith photos spotlight sheared leather swimsuits treated to withstand both salt and chlorine water. Newly designed two-way stretch and knit suits of Lycra, linen, Arnel noted. c.p., p., cov. 20 Ja 30-35
Regal Splendor On The Sidelines. International set attends Winter Olympics at Innsbruck; smartly clad Queen Farah Diba of Iran and Mrs. Gerhard Porsche shown. p. 10 F 24-25
Stretch for Action. Photo essay on stretch clothing designed to meet the demands of specific sports by expanding in one distinctive direction; classification of stretch fabrics, where to buy, price noted. p. 9 Mr 42-48
Paul Stewart reports emergence of jersey blazers and LBJ Stetsons at Sebring Grand Prix. Blazers offered in eleven solid colors by Stanley Blacker; Pirelli and Dunlop tire companies provide racing coveralls for drivers. p. Shopwalk. 4 My 8
High Surfdom. Elliott Erwin photos depict current surfing fashions; text elaborates, offers definitions of surfing jargon. p., c.p. 18 My 60-65
Room at the Top. Women's topless bathing suit available to swimsuit buyers arouse the interest of Dallas' Neiman-Marcus. 15 Je 17
Geared For Cup Racing. John Morgan waterproofs modeled by Bermuda Skipper Warren Brown and his crew are England's best foul-weather gear. Prices noted. c.p., p. 22 Je 50-53
Baroness von Zuylen and Australian Olympic Swimming Champion Dawn Fraser quoted on topless swim suits which Charles de Gaulle's government banned in France. 13 Jl 46
Jayne Mansfield quoted on wearing an Oleg Cassini bikini rather than a Gernreich topless. 20 Jl 38
Year Of The Campus Cowboy. Vacationing college students working at Granby, Colorado's C Lazy U Ranch typify growing trend toward western clothing in fashion from U.S. campuses to the Riviera and the Far East; where to buy, prices listed. p. 24 Ag 40-42
Greta Garbo quoted on her bathing attire; denies she wears topless suit instead of nothing. 31 Ag 54
The Restyled Wild Ones. American Motorcycle Association admonishes its members to change image of leather-jacketed, swaggering American cyclists, sanctions two-wheeled road rally emphasizing attire rather than motorcycling. c.d. 7 S 19-20
Getting To the Game In Style. J. Frederick Smith photos portray fashions worn by football fans getting to University of Washington's stadium by land, sea and air. c.p. 14 S 36-43
The Well-Equipped Crusoe. Spurred by son Bryan's eight-hour ordeal lost in the woods, Richard Porter designs 19-pound survival coat with 64 pockets for storing survival gear, spends 30 days in the wilds of Maine testing coat. 5 O 18, 20
Stretch Steps Up to the Firing Line. Change in competitive shooting jackets brings stretch fabric into use to replace bulky pleats and gussets in giving ease of movement. p. 19 O 72, 74
The Sheepskin Wheels to the Front. New look in sports clothes features sheepskin jackets. p. 30 N 72-73
Testing Ground for Powderpoof Parkas. Photos spotlight latest fashions for powder skiing. Prices noted. p. 14 D 64-66
CLUBS
Breakthrough. To make the golf tournament at Oakland Hills Country Club in Birmingham, Michigan truly a world championship, the South African golf associations ignored race by encouraging all golfers to qualify and the Czechoslovakian government officially sanctioned the game. 9 Mr 15
The Deaf Ear. Golf Clubs band together in National Club Association to try lobbying in order to do away with "temporary wartime" luxury taxes; NCA secretary-treasurer has little luck with congressman. 30 Mr 9
Congressional: Where A Small Splash Will Cost Big Money. Alfred Wright provides look at U.S. Open site, Washington's Congressional Country Club (brief history). c.p., c. diag. 15 Je 38-42
Cleveland Amory plans to start a Hunters Hunt Club to do away with the increasing herds of hunters. 30 N 54
The Lost Worlds of Don Pablo. Coles Phinizy profiles Mexican Diver and Millionaire Don Pablo Jose Bush Romero (p.), who founded CEDAM, an underwater exploring club. 30 N 80-84, 89-90
Some Ships of the Desert on a Long, Long Safari. Enthusiastic boating fans who live near Albuquerque and call themselves Los Guajolotes travel 550 miles through the desert with their boats on trailers to Lake Mojave where they can take part in their favorite sport. p. 14 D 22-23
COBRA (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
COCTEAU, JEAN See BOXING
COLLEGE BOAT CLUB OF PENNSYLVANIA See ROWING
COLLINS, GARY See FOOTBALL—Professional
COLONIAL INVITATION See GOLF
COLUMBIA (BOAT) See BOAT RACING
COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM See BASEBALL; FOOTBALL—Professional
COLUMBIA RIVER See RIVERS
COLUMBIA U. See FOOTBALL—College
COMIC STRIPS See GOLF
COMPTON INVITATIONAL See TRACK & FIELD
CONCANNON, JACK See FOOTBALL—Professional
CONDOR (BIRD) See BIRDS
CONERLY, CHARLES See BUSINESS
CONGRESSIONAL COUNTRY CLUB See GOLF
CONIGLIARO, TONY See BASEBALL
CONLAN, JOCKO See BASEBALL
CONNALLY, JOHN
See also ACCIDENTS; FISH & FISHING; SPORTS
When Texas Governor John Connally bet a pair of longhorn cows plus honorary commissions in the Texas navy against the U.S.S. Galveston colors that Texas would beat Navy in the Cotton Bowl, he noted that Texas had never collected an earlier bet, when Governor Jimmy Allred bet a National Park against Pike's Peak as Texas beat Whizzer White's Colorado team. 13 Ja 38
CONNERY, DONALD S. See SKIING
CONNERY, SEAN See MOVIES
CONRAD, MAX See AVIATION
CONRAD, STANLEY See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
CONSERVATION
See also RIVERS
Highway Hunting. New Mexico Game and Fish Department's Fred Thompson makes study of number of deer annually killed on U.S. highways, recommends "Deer Crossing" signs be augmented by distance markers, other measures. 27 Ap 18, 21
Mightier Than The Bulldozer. Open letter in Washington Post from Political Cartoonist Herblock challenges Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall to golf game on East Potomac Park Golf Course, which Udall has doomed to parking-lot obscurity; Udall won match, but decides to save course. 6 Jl 14
Conservationist-Author Philip Wylie, who hates industrial predators, sold his four-acre estate in Miami only to buy another even closer to nature. 17 Ag 63
Sanitation Is For The Birds. Northwest's manicured forests in danger of disease from insects because of lack of birds; German Immigrant Hubert Hoffman, a Washington state forester, follows example of Bavarians, lures birds back into forest. 24 Ag 10-11
Reward. SI applauds President Johnson's signing of wilderness preservation bill, which provides for 9.1 million acres of U.S. remaining forever wild. 14 S 8
America Down The Drain. Robert H. Boyle examines increasing destruction of U.S. through money-grabbing greed and ignorance, chides conservationists for lack of unity, outlines specific areas being ruined. c.d. 16 N 78-90
Hardly a Memory Expert. Consolidated Edison key witness Dr. Alfred Perlmutter testifies before the Federal Power Commission that the proposed power plant at Storm King mountain on the Hudson River would not effect striped-bass eggs. 7 D 19
An Oil-rich Texan Asks the Whole U.S. to Visit. Virginia Kraft's column examines Texas' Guadalupe Mountains, most of which are owned by Oilman Jesse Coleman Hunter, Jr. (p., sketch); Hunter hopes to have Guadalupes made a national park; canyons described; wildlife include the state's only elk and trout. 21 D 73-77
CONSTANTINE II, KING OF GREECE See BOAT RACING
CONSTELLATION (BOAT) See BOAT RACING
CONTE, SILVIO O. See BASEBALL; BICYCLE RACING
CONTESTS
See also HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
The Marquess of Queensberry wins design contest; prize is cut glass offered by the Duke of Edinburgh. 25 My 74
Ingemar Johansson (quoted) says he was hungry all the time until he won heavyweight title, then started doing bad things; Johansson was in Miami to help pick Miss Universe of 1964. 17 Ag 63
Mickey Mantle, Perry Lee Dunn, Billy Lothridge and Larry Stephens judge Miss Teen-Age America turtle derby, won by Miss Teen-Age Tampa Linda Putnam. p. 23 N 67
Cynthia Lee Clement is named Miss Stern Drive of 1965, promotes sales of Evinrude and Johnson motors. p. 7 D 83
COOK, EARNSHAW See BASEBALL
COOKE, JERRY See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
COOPER, GORDON See BOAT RACING
COOPER UNION COLLEGE See SPORTS
CORDOBÉS, EL See BULLFIGHTING
CORVAIR CORSA (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILES
COTTON BOWL See FOOTBALL—College
COUNSILMAN, JAMES See SWIMMING
COUNTRY CLUBS See CLUBS
COUSTEAU, JACQUES-YVES See SCUBA DIVING
COX, AL See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
COX, BILL See BOAT RACING
COZUMEL (ISLAND) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49
CRANHAM, GERRY See BOXING; SOCCER
CREAMER, ROBERT
See also TRACK & FIELD
Discusses problems of putting together an amateur ice hockey team to represent the U.S. in the Olympics. 27 Ja 58-61
Spotlights Los Angeles Dodgers' Radio Announcer Vin Scully. 4 My 96-108
Textpiece is humorous description of the unusual name-dropping technique he employs. 14 D 29-30, 32, 37-38
CREE INDIANS See HUNTING
CREW RACING See ROWING
CRICKET
First cricketer to be knighted, Sir Jack Forbes dies at the age of 81 in Sussex, England. 6 Ja 8
CRIME
The Devil Finds Work for Sonny. Liston's Secretary Teddy King offers "idle hands" excuse for ex-champion's most recent brush with law; Sonny was arrested in Denver for speeding and carrying a concealed weapon. 23 Mr 8
The home of Richard J. Reynolds III was robbed of $100,000 worth of jewelry while he and his wife vacationed in Miami Beach, Florida and their Doberman pinscher watchdog, Tojo, was having his tonsils removed. 20 Ap 47
Arthur Keller, general manager of Mainbocher's dress salon, is hauled into court for taking $79,000 from the company till to buy himself a yacht. 11 My 62
While Dodger Infielder Maury Wills was busy stealing bases from the N.Y. Mets at Dodger Stadium, another pro was busy in the locker room stealing the diamond ring Maury got for helping Dodgers win the World Series last year. 8 Je 53
Danville, Va., Golfer Roger Edward McNally is arrested by G-men on golf course, turns out to be Thomas Edward Galloway, one of nation's 10 most wanted criminals. 27 Jl 45
Throwback. Houston bandit robs gasoline station with bow and arrow; incident described. c.d. 7 D 19
Fifteen-year-old youth steals Yogi Berra's Thunderbird and credit card, drives from New York to Ft. Lauderdale. 7 D 83
CRISLER, FRITZ See FOOTBALL—College
CRONIN, JOE See BASEBALL
CRONKITE, WALTER See BOATING
CROQUET
Long Island socialites playing "turf-chess" croquet on the estate of Humble Oil Heiress Mrs. Lloyd H. Smith include Portrait Painter John Lavalle, the 10th Duke of Marlborough, and Mrs. M. Dorland Doyle. 14 S 45

CROSBY, BING See GOLF

CROSBY NATIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENT See GOLF

CROTHERS, BILL See TRACK & FIELD

CROW, JOHN DAVID See FOOTBALL—Professional

CROZIER, GEORGE See PHYSICAL FITNESS

CROZIER, ROGER See HOCKEY

CUBA
- Russia's Premier Khrushchev laughingly reminds the world that Cuba's Fidel Castro, whom the U.S. accuses of creating trouble in Panama, is shooting wild boar while vacationing in the U.S.S.R. 27 Ja 65
- Castro (p.) changes rules to suit himself as he steps up to bat before a crowd of 35,000 to open Cuba's new amateur baseball season. 17 F 44
- New posters set up at Havana University's stadium depict Castro as skindiver, ping-pong player and golfer. p. 15 Je 57
- Onetime Welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan is reportedly imprisoned in Havana's La Cabana Fortress for unnamed political offense, perhaps because Gavilan, a dedicated Jehovah's Witness, went to Cuba to preach the Gospel. 6 Jl 48
- Castro hit a bluefish, missed a shark and landed an 80-pound black grouper while spearfishing off Cuba. 14 S 45

CURACAO (ISLAND) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

CURRY, DON See BASKETBALL

CURTIS, LOUIS See ROWING 20 Jl 38

CURTIS, MIKE See FOOTBALL—Professional

CURTIS, TONY See AUTOMOBILES

CUTCHINS, WILLIAM SOL See BOXING

D

DAIGH, CHUCK See BOAT RACING

DAIMATSU, HIROFUMI See VOLLEYBALL

DAIMLER-BENZ, A. G. See AUTOMOBILE RACING

DALLAS, TEXAS See FOOTBALL—College

DALLAS COWBOYS See FOOTBALL—Professional

DALTON, JOHN See RIVERS

D'AMATO, CUS See BOXING

DAMONE, VIC See ACCIDENTS

DARGA, KLAUS See CHESS

DARK, ALVIN See BASEBALL

DAVIDSON, BRUCE See SPORTS

DAVIDSON COLLEGE See BASKETBALL—College

DAVIES, LYNN See OLYMPICS

DAVIS, PAUL See FOOTBALL—College

DAVIS, PAUL (ARTIST) See ART

DAVIS, TIM See FOOTBALL—College 13 Ja 44-46

DAVIS CUP See TENNIS

DAWSON, JOHNNY See GOLF

DAWSON, RED See FOOTBALL—College

DAY, JOHN STEWART See SKIING

DAYTONA CONTINENTAL See AUTOMOBILE RACING

DAYTONA "500" STOCK CAR RACE See AUTOMOBILE RACING

DEAN, DIZZY See BASEBALL; GOLF

DE BENEDETTI, RENO See BASEBALL

DEE, JOHNNY See BASKETBALL—College

DEEP SEA ANGLERS CLUB See FISH & FISHING

DEER See CONSERVATION; HUNTING

DEFFERRE, GASTON See BOAT RACING

DEFORD, FRANK
See also BASEBALL; BASKETBALL—College; TENNIS
- Profiles Basketball Referee Charley Eckman. 3 F 40-45
- Discusses Boston Celtics Playmaker K. C. Jones' successful defense of Cincinnati Royal Oscar Robertson during the NBA playoffs. 20 Ap 58-65
- Reports new trend toward taller, more rugged basketball players. 4 My 81-84
- Reviews Army-Navy Lacrosse game. 8 Je 66-69

DE GAULLE, CHARLES See BOAT RACING; CLOTHING; HUNTING

DELAWARE HANDICAP (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

DELGADO LOZANO, RAPHAEL See BOXING

DEMARET, JIMMY See GOLF

DEMPSEY, JACK See BOXING

DENNIS, SANDY See SHOOTING

DENVER BRONCOS See FOOTBALL—Professional

DESERTS See BOATING; GOLF

DETROIT LIONS See FOOTBALL—Professional

DETROIT PISTONS See BASKETBALL—Professional

DETROIT RED WINGS See HOCKEY

DETROIT TIGERS See BASEBALL

DEVINE, BING See BASEBALL

DEVON HORSE SHOW See HORSE SHOWS

DEWAINE, MRS. BARBARA See BASEBALL

DeYOUNG, RUSSELL See HANDBALL

DIAGRAMS See CHESS

DICKERSON, NANCY See FISH & FISHING

DICKINSON, JIMMY See SPORTS

DICKINSON, JOHN T. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

DiMAGGIO, DOM See FOOTBALL—Professional

DiMAGGIO, JOE See AGE

DISCUS THROW See TRACK & FIELD

DISNEYLAND See BASEBALL

DIVING See SCUBA DIVING; SWIMMING

DIXON, ROBIN See OLYMPICS

DODGE, MRS. GERALDINE ROCKEFELLER See DOGS

DOG RACING See DOGS

DOGS
See also HUNTING
- After traveling halfway around the world to his post in Guinea with what a Washington, D.C. pet hospital had said was his dog, U.S. Ambassador James Loeb, Jr. found out the dog did not belong to him, immediately sent it back to Washington. 13 Ja 38
- Best Girl In The Dog Show. Robert H. Boyle profiles Expert Dog Handler Anne Hone Rogers (p.), who has won three best-in-show awards at the Westminster show (p.); Ch. Wilber White Swan and Ch. Fontclair Festoon spotlighted. 10 F 40-45
- The male dogs of the island of Sark are on a biting rampage, presumably in protest against an ancient law which gives the 80-year-old Dame of Sark sole right among all the islanders to own a bitch. 17 F 44
- Dog Defects. In Britain, a group of veterinarians have just finished surveying 120 breeds of dogs and found only 17 free from defects, finding that a major difficulty in raising show dogs is that inbreeding tends to concentrate faults just as intensely as good points. 24 F 7
- The Price of a Pedigree. Scenes from Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show, which a whippet won. p. 24 F 22-23
- Money, Votes And Psychiatry Are Going to the Dogs. Mary Jean Kempner analyzes the political, economic and emotional role dogs play in the U.S. c.d. 11 My 72-79
- One Dog's Meat. War Storm, owned by Bethea McCall, president of the Western Grain Co., which makes Jim Dandy Dog Food, will be given the Purina Award for being "Top Field Trial Bird Dog of 1963-64 Season." c.d. 25 My 14
- Horses, Horses, Dogs, Dogs. "Staid" New England offers total of 51 horse and dog races scheduled at four tracks for Memorial Day. 1 Je 14
- Superior Court Judge Ward J. Herbert rules against 83-year-old Mrs. Geraldine Rockefeller Dodge's court-appointed guardians, who tried to cut the $50,000 annual food bill of her 49 dogs to $14,000. 6 Jl 48
- Safe And Possibly Sane. U.S. Patent Office grants patents for poodle-grooming device which sends currents of warm air over dog while he is being clipped; new life preserver for small animals, principally dogs. 14 S 8
- Richard M. Nixon's cocker spaniel Checkers dies in New York at the age of 12, after eight years of trying to succeed Fala as first dog of the land. 21 S 88
- But Save The Brandy, Please. Parisian Christian Gonin successfully tests Siberian-descended Samoyed dogs as mountain dogs, possibly to replace St. Bernards. 7 D 20-21

DOG SHOWS See DOGS

DOG SLEDS See TRAVEL

DORAL OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT See GOLF

DOS PASSOS, JOHN See FISH & FISHING

DOUBLOON (BOAT) See BOATS

DOUGAN, THOMAS PATRICK See BOAT RACING

DOUGLAS, WILLIAM O. See BOATING; HIKING

DOUGLAS-HOME, SIR ALEC See ACCIDENTS; SOCCER

DOWNES, TERRY See BOXING

DOWNING, AL See BASEBALL

DOYLE, MRS. M. DORLAND See CROQUET

DRAPER, CHRISTOPHER See AVIATION

DRAWINGS
- The Most Expensive Sports Event in History. Jim Flora's drawing of Miami Beach's Convention Center shows the prices of seats at various distances from the ring. c.d. 27 Ja 24-25
- An Arena For Heroes. Drawing features site of winter Olympics in Innsbruck, Austria; skiing, skating, bobsled, toboggan and Olympic Village areas shown. c.d. 27 Ja 30-31
- A Special View of the Camp of the Champ. Douglas Gorsline depicts Sonny Liston surrounded by trainers and Mrs. Liston. c.d. 24 F 16-17
- Goren's New Formula for Easier and Better Bridge by Charles Goren with Jack Olsen. Part IV: Tricks of My Trade. Cartoons by H. T. Webster from book "Who Dealt This Mess?" feature bridge players, r. 9 Mr 28-34
- Those Who Watch Golf Bear Watching. Drawings by Marc Simont depict the attire, gyrations and observation methods of the spectators at the Masters Golf tournament. c.d. 6 Ap 40-44
- Let Me Help Your Game, Part I: Be A Smart Curve-Ball Hitter. Illustrations by Robert Handville show three basic golf grips for straight shots, hooks and slices; demonstrate correct swing and stances. c.d., d., cov. 27 Ap 38-47
- Let Me Help Your Game, Part II: Little Ones That Matter The Most. Drawings by Robert Handville illustrate that golf swing and grip are the same as in drives, but shorter. c.d. 4 My 70-76
- By the Sea, by the Beautiful Sea. Drawings by Arnold Roth depict varied scenes along U.S. beaches. d., c.d. 27 Jl 22-28
- Fairway Woods—Swing Hard And Be Fearless. Drawings by Francis Golden show how women should compensate for comparative lack of strength on fairway wood shots. c.d., cov. 3 Ag 18-27
- Green Bay Blocks to Win. Delineates arts of key Packer football blockers Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston, who demonstrate techniques. c.p., c.d. 7 S 76-85
- The Pack Closes On Boston. Drawings by Frank Mullins highlight the strengths and weaknesses of the NBA teams. c.d. 26 O 50-56
- Zone Defenses Set the Style. Drawings by Frank Mullins explain newly popular zone defenses once deplored by better coaches. c.d. 7 D 74-80

DREYFUS, JACK, JR. See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

DRIESELL, CHARLES See BASKETBALL—College

DRUGS See FISH & FISHING; HORSES

DRYSDALE, DON See BASEBALL

DUCKS See HUNTING

DUKE UNIVERSITY See BASKETBALL—College

DUNDEE, ANGELO See BOXING

DUNN, PERRY LEE See CONTESTS

DU PONT, MRS. RICHARD C. See SPORTS

DU PONT, MRS. VICTOR See HORSES

DU PONT, WILLIAM, JR. See HORSE RACING

DUROCHER, LEO See BASEBALL

DURSLAG, MEL See BASEBALL

DYED BAIT See FISH & FISHING

E

EASTERN SPRINT ROWING CHAMPIONSHIPS See ROWING

EATON, CYRUS See BASEBALL; HUNTING

ECKMAN, CHARLEY See BASKETBALL—Professional

ECTOR, HOWARD W. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

EDELEN, BUDDY See TRACK & FIELD

EDWARDS, BILL See FOOTBALL—College

EGAN, JACK See BASKETBALL—College

EGLINTON, EARL OF (13TH) See GREAT BRITAIN

EIDER DUCKS See HUNTING

EISENHOWER, DWIGHT D.
See also GOLF
- Dr. Peter J. Borak quoted on Eisenhower's elbow trouble. 20 Ja 43

EISLER, RONALD See FISHING

EKLUND, BRITT See AUTOMOBILES

ELDORADO GOLF COURSE See GOLF 13 Ja 26-37

ELECTRONICS See ANIMALS

ELIOT, ALEXANDER See OLYMPICS

ELIZABETH II, QUEEN OF GREAT BRITAIN See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred; SOCCER

ELLIOTT, HERB See OLYMPICS; SPORTS

ELLIPTIPOOL See SPORTS

ELLIS, LeROY See TELEVISION

ELLISON, MARGARET See TRACK & FIELD

ELLSWORTH, REX See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

EL SUMIDERO GORGE See RIVERS

EMERSON, ROY See TENNIS

ENG, FRED See SPORTS

ENGAN, TORALF See SKIING

ENGINES See AUTOMOBILE RACING

ENGLE, RIP See FOOTBALL—College

ERHARD, LUDWIG See JOHNSON, LYNDON

ERLANDER, TAGE See SPORTS

ERWIN, ELLIOTT See CLOTHING

ETIEMBLE, RENE See SPORTS
EVANS, CHICK See GOLF
EVANS, LARRY See CHESS
EVANSVILLE COLLEGE See BASKETBALL—College
EVERGLADES, FLORIDA See FISH & FISHING
EVERGLADES KITE (BIRD) See BIRDS
EVERSOLE, CHARLES See HIKING
EVINRUDE, FRANCIS LANGFORD See BOATS
EVINRUDE, RALPH See BOATS
EVINRUDE SWEET (BOAT) See BOATS 20 Ja 16-17
EXCALIBUR 2ND (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
EXPLOSIVES See BEACHES

F

FABRICS See CLOTHING
FAISS, ROBERT See HIKING
FALA (DOG) See DOGS
FALCH, HELMUT See SKIING
FALKENBURG, JINX See TENNIS
FAMILIES See TENNIS
FANS
A Cool Fireball Named Roberts. Recent leap in stock car interest has made automobile racing third in popularity among American spectator sports. p. 10 F 31-39
Back Home In Indiana. Basketball fans travel from all parts of the country to see Evansville College, the #1 small college team in the U.S., play their home games. 17 F 7
Hear the Birdie. Golf spectators at the Doral Open in Miami, Florida are able to follow the action of every player at every hole, thanks to transistor radio receivers rented from Golfcaster Inc. c.d. 6 Ap 16, 19
Those Who Watch Golf Bear Watching. Drawings by Marc Simont depict the attire, gyrations and observation methods of spectators at the Masters Golf tournament. c.d. 6 Ap 40-44
Let's Go Phillies! Jack Olsen reports that the city of Philadelphia, butt of jokes for decades because of its bad baseball teams, is now wide-awake and cheering for the league leading Philadelphia Phillies. p., cov. 10 Ap 10-15
Six Dreary Days—Then Saturday. Jack Olsen discusses Britons' addiction to soccer, outlining fans' enthusiasm, sportsmanship, British playing style and the workingman's interest in the game. p. 12 O 74-90
Beautiful Day. Nevada State Employee Cyrus Meacham, a longtime St. Louis Cardinals fan, flies Cardinals' banner beneath U.S. and Nevada flags as Cards clinch NL pennant; Governor Grant Sawyer arranged for Meacham to "represent" Nevada at World Series. 19 O 19-20
The Watchers of the Race. Photos by Jerry Cooke focus on horse race fans around the world. p. 9 N 26-33
FARAH, QUEEN OF IRAN See OLYMPICS
FARRANT, RALPH See BOAT RACING
FASHION See CLOTHING
FAY, PAUL B., JR. See BASKETBALL
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION See BASEBALL
FEISAL, KING OF SAUDI ARABIA See HUNTING; SOCCER
FELDMAN, MIKE See TENNIS
FERRARI (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
FERRETS See ANIMALS
FERRY, ED See OLYMPICS
FIELDS, BOBBY See TABLE TENNIS
FIFTH STREET GYM See BOXING
FIGHTS See HOCKEY
FIGURE SKATING See OLYMPICS
FINDLAY, CONN See OLYMPICS
FINLAND See OLYMPICS; SKIING
FINLEY, CHARLES O. See BASEBALL
FINSTERWALD, DOW See GOLF
FIRST INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON PREVENTIVE CARDIOLOGY See PHYSICAL FITNESS
FISCHER, BOBBY See CHESS
FISCHER, HANK See BASEBALL
FISH & FISHING
The Amphibious Resorts. Coles Phinizy takeout on the unspoiled Caribbean island called Marina Cay, one of the Virgin Islands, and its proprietor, Allan Batham (brief biopers, p.); fishing and other sports are available to tourists. c.p. 20 Ja 22-29
Sneakers And Snorkels. Fred R. Smith's travel facts and map of the Caribbean show beginning and experienced skin divers and scuba divers where to find the best guides, gear, fish, reefs and wrecks. c. map., c.d. 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49
Republican House Leader Charles Halleck was happily plucking groupers out of the Gulf when U.S. Coast Guard patrol ordered him off its restricted gunnery and target range. 2 Mr 51
Ted Williams asks where he can get a cup of coffee and a sandwich after landing a 587-pound thresher shark off New Zealand, catching a rainbow trout near Rotorua and bagging a deer in the bush, all in one day. 9 Mr 49
A New Look Into the Sea. Robert Boyle discusses projects and discoveries of Biologists Dr. Lionel A. Walford (p.) John Clark, Dr. Jan Prager, Dr. Ronald Eisler, Herbert Anderson and John Casey, who are studying various species of fish (takeout on sharks), seawater, pollutants, and composition of parasites occurring in bluefish; critical problems endangering the sport of angling spotlighted, pictorial map. 9 Mr 58-68
School for Salmon. Alarmed at number of hatchery-raised young salmon lost to predators, physiologists at Tokyo's Hosei U. are teaching the fry to avoid larger fish by means of an electrically charged plastic model. c.d. 16 Mr 8-9
The Compleat Choosy Angler. Research Biologist Frank Ligas submits new style of fishing which incorporates delights of snorkeling, fish-watching and rod-and-reel fishing. In "Selective Fishing," angler sits on submerged rock with face mask, snorkel, short bait-casting rod, and casts bait in front of desirable fish. 16 Mr 9
When The Shad Come Home From The Sea. Francis Golden paintings depict pleasures of angling for shad as spawning fish herald spring by reaching peak of striking probability. Duncan Barnes explains striking and well-documented movement habits of shad while in rivers, suggests best lures, likely spots. c.r., c.d. 16 Mr 40-51
Marlon Brando (quoted), with Puyallup Indian Bob Satiacun, tests Washington State ordinance forbidding local Indians to fish outside their reservations, is confronted by irate game department official. 16 Mr 63
Charles FitzRoy, Britain's fifth Baron Southampton, quits House of Lords, sheds title to concentrate on "wine, women and salmon fishing." 30 Mr 49
A Dreamy New Era For Fish. Robert H. Boyle chronicles progress made by Aquatic Biologist Howard Loeb in linking mental illness with fish control as he experiments with effects of LSD-25, other hallucinatory drugs on fish. c.d. 30 Mr 50-55
Thermometer Talk. Arkansas Fisheries Biologist Andrew Hulsey sets temperature rules for fishermen to arrive at spawning areas as soon as fish do, to afford big catch. 13 Ap 20, 23
Light That Failed. Washington State Fisheries Department's Jerry Ward demands that Highway Commissioner George Zahn include lights in culverts along proposed interstate highway; explains that fish will not swim in darkness. 13 Ap 23
A Switch on Gaffs. To replace the gaff, a large hook for snagging big fish after they have been reeled in, the Japanese have invented a switchblade device called the Surf and Stream Auto Gaff ("for automatic single-handed operation"). 20 Ap 16
Generalissimo Francisco Franco (quoted) takes time out to fish in rain-swollen Eo River, bags six salmon weighing 30 to 50 pounds. 27 Ap 64
Belgian King Baudouin, champion blue-water fisherman of the Bay of Biscay, refuses to accept cruiser until Belgian Navy gives navigational gadgets the once over. 18 My 76
TV's Clint Walker (quoted) tells of close call with dead shark, which almost snapped jaws shut on his finger. 18 My 76
A Place That Rocky Knows. Ellington White recalls fishing for snook and tarpon in the Everglades with backcountry Fishing Guide Rocky Weinstein (biopers, p.). 25 My 36-51
Canada's athletic Prime Minister Lester Pearson catches a bass of more than five pounds while fishing at Harrington Lake. 25 My 74
Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser entertains visiting Nikita Khrushchev, Iraqi President Colonel Abdul Salam Mohammed Aref and Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella on fishing party in a United Arab Republic navy yacht. 1 Je 63
Texas Governor John Connally and North Carolina Governor Terry Sanford fail to catch any marlin in the International Blue Marlin Tournament off Cape Hatteras N.C., but hauled in four dolphins. 15 Je 57
Grabbling For Those Crazy Mississippi Cats. Harold Peterson's fishing column recounts adventures of residents of northern Mississippi in "grabbling" for catfish in dark, swampy waters during spawning season; describes methods, legends. p. 15 Je 58-64
The Triumph of Wretched Mess. Humorous Montana fishing periodical, The Wretched Mess, which campaigned against keeping Madison River open for fishing all year to avoid depleting river of all large fish, won out over Montana Fish and Game Department. 29 Je 6-7
After lessons from his wife, Nan Gray, Singer Frankie Laine has become a fishing buff; while in Hawaii, he caught a 227-pound blue marlin, but still has to take seasick and pep-up pills. 29 Je 48
Old Hem Was a Sport. John Dos Passos, with drawings by Thomas B. Allen, recalls days spent with Ernest Hemingway at Key West and Bahamas in thirties; outlines emergence of Hemingway's interest in game fishing, describes experience with natives, sharks, big tuna catch. c.d. 29 Je 58-67
Fishy Issue. Postmaster John Gronouski receives two designs for fishing stamps from the American Fishing Tackle Manufacturers Association. r. 6 Jl 8, 13
Los Angeles Laker Manager Lou Mohs quoted on Jerry West's fishing mania. 13 Jl 46
Sears, Roebuck Salesman and Former Baseball Star Ted Williams (quoted) lands the largest tarpon in the Gold Cup light-tackle tarpon tournament off Islamorada, Florida. 13 Jl 46
The High Cost Of Not Catching Swordfish. Duncan Barnes reports on sport of swordfishing, spotlighting Jack Rounick (p.), winner of the Deep Sea Anglers Club tournament. 20 Jl 46-47
General Mark Clark uses neither worms nor flies to land bass, says his secret weapon is a U-2 lure. 3 Ag 46
Picky Ichthys. Wyoming's Saratoga National Fish Hatchery, trying to keep indiscriminately-breeding pure golden trout from mixing with rainbows and cutthroats, has difficulty getting captured fry to eat; use greedy brook trout fry to set example of eating dry prepared food. 17 Ag 8-9
The Best Single Salmon Pool Anywhere. Kane's fishing column features Atlantic salmon fishing in Norway; spotlights Malangsfoss pool on the Maals River, other Norwegian trout and salmon rivers; outlines expenses for leases, methods, best way to preserve salmon. p. 17 Ag 64-67
From A Mountaintop To 1,000 Fathoms Deep. Robert H. Boyle follows Hudson River from origin in Adirondack Mountains to its canyon on ocean floor; outlines types of fish. p., pictorial map. 17 Ag 74-82
TV Tycoon Desi Arnaz teaches new wife, Edie, to fish; Edie enters deep-sea tournament, wins top prize over 90 other fishermen, including husband Desi. 24 Ag 44
Nature Unbalanced Again. Illinois Natural History Survey's Dr. George W. Bennett's assistant, William F. Childers, has developed hybrid sunfish which cannot resist lures, but gullible fish would not last long enough to spawn. 28 S 16, 18
Bass in the Treetops. A biologist, scuba diving along slopes of what used to be mountain valleys before Arkansas' Bull Shoals Lake was made, finds broken fishing lines, rusted hooks among still-standing cedar trees; while fishermen have taken 34,410 bass from lake in last eight years, many bass and catfish, up to 40 pounds, rest among trees. 5 O 18
A Pretty Kettle Of Dyed Baitfish. Robert H. Boyle relates experiences experimenting with dyed bait for catching bass; proves that bass respond more readily to red live bait; outlines dyeing procedures, findings on bass habits. 5 O 81-86
Muskie Boom at Rocky Fork. Ohio's Rocky Fork Lake has been yielding amazing numbers of muskies planted eleven years ago as fry. 19 O 18
My Quarry Eye to Eye. Roderick Haig-Brown relates experiences diving in pools of Vancouver Island's Campbell River as he turns from fisherman to amateur naturalist; excerpted from his book, Fisherman's Fall, article describes new knowledge gained on habits of fish. c.d., c. map. 19 O 84-97
Peggy Goldwater discusses family's deep-sea fishing habits. 2 N 53
Beastly Place For A Hunt. Jack Olsen discusses the unexplored interior jungles and rivers of Surinam, the new hunting-and-fishing frontier for those with cash and raw courage. c.d. 9 N 62-66, 71-74
Hardly a Memory Expert. Consolidated Edison key witness Dr. Alfred Perlmutter testifies before the Federal Power Commission that the proposed power plant at Storm King mountain on the Hudson River would not effect striped-bass eggs, says last Hudson River study was in 1938; 1957 study, contending that Storm King was center of spawning area, was by Warren F. Rathjen and Lewis C. Miller, two biologists hired by Perlmutter. 7 D 19
Senator Kenneth Keating comments on his fishing trip with Wyatt and Nancy Dickerson off St. Thomas, where he caught a 7-foot 1-inch sailfish, five wahoo and one barracuda. 14 D 49
A High Time On A Low Tide. Virginia Kraft spotlights the large geoduc clam, found in the Pacific Northwest, which are taken only at minus low tides, require preliminary hunting to locate, and hours of effort to land; each hunter is limited to catching three a day. c.d. 14 D 50-53
FISHER, MRS. ANDREW See BOWLING

FISHER, EDDIE See OLYMPICS

FITZROY, CHARLES See FISH & FISHING

FLEA RACING
Long Shot Wins Stortfordian. Fifth annual Stortfordian flea classic run at Hufisdon in Hertfordshire is won by a 100-to-1 shot named Cassius; rules of Royal Flea Association of Great Britain and Northern Ireland forbids racing of fleas less than 3 years old. 30 Mr 9, 12

FLEMING, BILL See HORSE RACING—Harness

FLETCHER, ALLEN See JUDO

FLORA, JIM See DRAWINGS

FLORIDA See ANIMALS; SPORTS

FLORIDA A&M U. See FOOTBALL—College

FLORIDA DERBY See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

FLORIDA KEYS See TRAVEL 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

FLOYD, ROY See GOLF

FOLLEY, ZORA See SPORTS

FOOD
When The Shad Come Home From The Sea. Three recipes for cooking shad. 16 Mr 51
Olympic Downhill Skiing Champion Egon Zimmermann wins another gold medal— this time for the best Apfelstrudel in Austria. 6 Ap 80
The Gourmet Beachcomber. Euell Gibbons, who showed his readers how many edible foods are to be had for the plucking in the woods and fields in his publication, Stalking the Wild Asparagus, now preforms a similar service in Stalking the Blue-Eyed Scallop, in which he discusses sea food recipes. 13 Jl 8, 11
A High Time On A Low Tide. Recipe for Groduc Fritters. 14 D 53

FOOTBALL
Louisiana Congressman Hale Boggs introduces Florida's Senator George Smathers to Tulane U. Football Coach Andy Pilney, who threw two touchdown passes over Smathers' head 33 years ago. 25 My 74
Beef, Bones and Hershey Bars. Robert Boyle reports on the rough Pennsylvania-Texas high school graduates' all-star football game, in Hershey, Pa., won by Pennsylvania. p. 10 Ag 18-20, 25
Let Them Begin Slowly. SPORTS ILLUSTRATED suggests that high school football be modified because of the high death and injury rate on the high school gridirons as compared to that in college and pro football. 30 N 16
Jack Kelly, 18-year-old mayor of Boys Town, Nebraska, scored his fifth touchdown last week as his high school football team finished the season with eight wins, one loss and one tie. 30 N 54

College
Weeks's results compiled: 28 S 65-66, 71; 5 O 74-76; 12 O 59-60; 19 O 68-70; 26 O 61-62; 2 N 55-59; 9 N 49-52; 16 N 66-68; 23 N 74, 76, 78; 30 N 67-68; 7 D 84-87.
Associated Press selects U. of Texas sophomore Lynda Bird Johnson to present the National Football Championship trophy to Darrell Royal's undefeated Texas team. 6 Ja 46
Big Day For 'D'. John Underwood reports that with the death of President Kennedy still probing its conscience, Dallas, Texas feels more on trial than either the Texas or Navy football teams as they battle to win in the Cotton Bowl. p. 13 Ja 16-17
When Texas Governor John Connally bet a pair of longhorn cows plus honorary commissions in the Texas navy against the U.S.S. Galveston colors that Texas would beat Navy in the Cotton Bowl, he noted that Texas had never collected an earlier bet, when Governor Jimmy Allred bet a National Park against Pikes Peak as Texas beat Whizzer White's Colorado team. 13 Ja 38
Bowl Heroes Enjoy the Season's Last Hurrahs. Kenneth Rudeen spotlights star players of the Sugar Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl, Sun Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Gator Bowl. p. 13 Ja 44-46
Most Invaluable Trophy. Washington Touchdown Club has gained reputation for most dubious football awards: it picks Navy as nation's No. 1 team just before Texas routs Middies in Cotton Bowl; names Navy's Wayne Hardin Coach of the Year; chooses Longhorn Tackle S. Appleton Lineman of the Year but asks Coach D. Royal to suggest another nominee when it learns that Appleton is unable to attend banquet; previous incident involving Terry Baker noted. 20 Ja 6, 8
While Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, Mississippi State's Paul Davis, was concentrating on football, his wife, Mary Earle Davis appeared on TV's Concentration and won a fur coat, several hundred dollars and a trip to Italy. 20 Ja 43
U. of Kentucky's new President, Dr. John Oswald, a football quarterback at heart, called first play of the football season and team scored a touchdown. 27 Ja 65
The Man Who Changed Football. Close-up by Gerald Holland on U. of Michigan Athletic Director Fritz Crisler, who has influenced college football by inventing the two-platoon system, which was recently reactivated by the NCAA Rules Committee. p. 3 F 22-27
Bowl In the Soup. Big Eight officials terminate conference's contract to appear annually in the Orange Bowl, but ending contract was a severe blow to chances of a Big Eight football team appearing in one of the four major New Year's bowl games. 17 F 8
Darrell Royal, coach of the nation's #1 football team, is made a full professor by the U. of Texas. 24 F 40
Former Arkansas halfback and university president Senator William Fulbright has chat with young constituent, results in University of Arkansas acquiring All-Southern high school linebacker for Razorback squad. 23 Mr 46
Invitation to a Christening. Election of Oregon and Oregon State restores most of old Pacific Coast Football Conference as the new Athletic Association of Western Universities. 13 Ap 18, 20
USC Coach John McKay quoted on role as master of ceremonies at eleventh annual campus songfest. 1 Je 63
Man Over Machine. Electronic computer predicts Don Trull and the West will defeat George Mira and the East in the All-America bowl game, misses. 6 Jl 8
In An Epic New Movie, One Dame Beats Another. Textpiece by Dan Jenkins and photos of scenes focus on Shirley MacLaine and the Notre Dame team filming football movie titled John Goldfarb, Please Come Home! c.p., p., cov. 20 Jl 50-60
McVea Went Thataway. College recruiters swarm after San Antonio High School Football Player Warren McVea. University of Houston wins out as Coach Bill Yeoman promises prospect of playing in new domed stadium. c.d. 27 Jl 8-9
Penn State Coach Rip Engle returns from Armed Forces football-clinic tour of the Far East, says (quoted) men asked what do they think of the war back home, and what about topless bathing suits? 7 S 86
Football Fashion Note. Lehigh U.'s Dr. Emil Havach has devised football shoes with high heels for slow-pulling guards and sluggish fullbacks. 14 S 8-9
Getting To The Game In Style. J. Frederick Smith photos portray fashions worn by fans getting to University of Washington's stadium by land, sea and air. c.p. 14 S 36-43
Ole Miss Quarterback Jim Weatherly plans to sing professionally after a few years in pro football. 14 S 45
A Runners' Year. Paintings by Frank Mullins with Dan Jenkins' textpiece spotlight some of the best college football runners who are expected to provide the 1964 season with memorable events. SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's annual choice of the 11 best college football teams, c.p., c.r., c.d., cov. 21 S 36-44
Scouting Reports on college teams in South, West, Southwest, East, Midwest and small colleges; college traditions, best and upcoming college teams, promising sophomores to watch. p. 21 S 46-77
The Tackle. John O'Hara profiles All-America Harvard Tackle Hugo Rainsford, who, after his marriage to Gladys Thompkins and becoming a successful businessman, used insults and irony to forget about his football past. c.d. 21 S 108-113
Max The Scissors. Arizona State College Coach Max Spilsbury forces freshmen prospects to wear mutilated or shaved hair styles to discourage them from courting coeds. 28 S 16
A Nightmarish Ending For Spook Murphy's Dream. Jenkins' college football column examines Memphis State's 30-0 defeat at hands of Ole Miss; Memphis Coach Spook Murphy's confidence described; played before bevy of pro football scouts, game's standout was Mississippi's Jim Weatherly. p. 28 S 64-65
He'll Never Leave Ohio. John Underwood profiles Bowling Green (Ohio) State University Football Coach Doyt L. Perry (biopers), who has best won-lost record in major college football; outlines Mid-America Conference, analyzes Perry's coaching methods. p. 28 S 80-97
A 'Stitch' In Time Is The Army's Best Weapon. Dan Jenkins chronicles feats of Army Quarterback Rollie Stichweh in limited play in only two games; outlines games. p. 5 O 73-74
A Special Kind Of Brute With A Love Of Violence. Dan Jenkins profiles U. of Illinois Linebacker Dick Butkus, the most destructive player in collegiate football. p., cov. 12 O 30-32, 37-38
New Coat Of Paint On The Old Kentucky Home. Larry Van Hoose spotlights U. of Kentucky football team's successive victories over Mississippi and Auburn. p. 12 O 58-59
Cut 'Em Off At Forward Pass. William Barry Furlong reports how Ohio State's Coach Woody Hayes (p.) prepared offensive and defensive aerial game, humiliating State's most faithful imitator, Illinois, 26-0; outlines game. p. 19 O 30-33
Some Arkansas Proof Of the Law Of Gravity. Dan Jenkins spotlights football game in which Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks defeated Darrell Royal's Texas Longhorns, who had been the nation's top-ranked team for almost two years. p. 26 O 60-61
Wake Up The Echoes! Dan Jenkins outlines third big football surge at Notre Dame under new Coach Ara Parseghian and Quarterback John Huarte (cov.); Parseghian, reminiscent of Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy, discusses luck and planning which brought the undefeated (5-0) team to present power. p. 2 N 20-23
Louisiana Governor John McKeithen arrives at Kentucky airport to view LSU-Kentucky game: aide is miffed by lack of protocol, airport crowd numbers zero, and game is in Lexington. 2 N 53
U. of Texas Football Player Phil Harris and Hollywood Bandleader Phil Harris who have been exchanging telegrams (excerpted) for some time could start a fad. 2 N 53
University of Arkansas passes up 1964's Miss America for homecoming queen, chooses 1965 runner-up, Karen Carlson, who is Kenny Hatfield's girl; Hatfield is both president of the senior class and last year's foremost national punt returner. 2 N 53
A Light Man To Do The Heavy Work. Brody's column spotlights University of Nebraska Fullback Frank Solich (p.), outlines difficulties in getting a scholarship. 2 N 54-55
Look Out, Mister Roberts. Alfred Wright profiles Columbia U.'s best all round player Archie Roberts (p.), who has set a new Ivy League record for pass completions and yards gained passing. 9 N 34, 39-42
Retired General James Van Fleet and U.S. Senator Spessard Holland, two old teammates on the Bartow, Fla. kindergarten sports squad, bump into one another at the U. of Florida homecoming game and fall to reminiscing over days when the Big Man on Campus among the 5-year-olds was the man who could handle a beanbag. 9 N 47
Alabama Quarterback Joe Namath recognizes Musician Al Hirt (quoted), who, at the request of Alabama Coach Bear Bryant, disguised himself as a football player in the Tide locker room. 9 N 47
Warren McVea Goes Thisaway And Thataway. Mickey Herskowitz profiles Warren McVea (p.), the U. of Houston's first Negro player, who turned out to be the best field runner on the team. 9 N 48-49
A Sharp Change in the Game. Dan Jenkins reports on new surge of platoon systems in college football, spotlights Tulsa's Jerry Rhome who threw seven completed passes in one game. p. 16 N 28-31
Some Little Men Who Think They Are Packers. Brody's column reports on Wittenberg U.'s (campus sketch) football team, made up of smallish players who have finished Wittenberg's third consecutive undefeated season; spotlights accurate, fast-passing Quarterback Charlie Green, who, with Coach Bill Edwards, is largely responsible for the winning streak. p. 16 N 65-66
Notre Dame In A Tussle At The Top. Notre Dame is selected as the No. 1 college football team in the U.S. p. 23 N 22-23
'Bama's Big, Bold Bid In The Week That Was. John Underwood gives account of Alabama football team's activities during week prior to game with Georgia Tech, which made them second only to Notre Dame. p. 23 N 24-27
Co-Captain of the Florida State team Red Dawson proves he is the best tobacco-spitter in college football, hits a fly more than 10 feet away. 23 N 67
The Roar Of The Tiger Is Iacavazzi. Tom C. Brody spotlights Princeton's Fullback Cosmo Iacavazzi (p.), who led his teammates to the Ivy League title over Yale. 23 N 68, 73-74
An Era Shaped By War. Brief sketches by Robert Cantwell on the 25 winners of SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's Silver Anniversary All-America Awards, college football heroes selected for outstanding achievements, contributions made since their graduation in 1940; twelve judges spotlighted. c.d., d. 30 N 36-45
Roses For Wolverines, Blues For Buckeyes. John Underwood's byliner spotlights U. of Michigan's football team, which won the honor of playing in the Rose Bowl by defeating Ohio State. 30 N 65-67
A Catch—And Crash Goes Notre Dame! John Underwood and Jack Tobin report turn of events as last-minute pass play by Craig Fertig and Rod Sherman brings down No. 1-ranked Notre Dame at hands of USC. p. 7 D 26-29
The Fastest Human In Spikes—Or Cleats. Tom Brody spotlights Olympic 100-meter champion and Florida A&M Left Halfback Bob Hayes, who may be the best pro football draft choice in the Negro Orange Blossom Classic bowl game. p. 14 D 58-60
Bowl Exposure Is Growing Longer. Each of eight post-season college bowl games listed, including site, opponents, game time, TV network, players to watch, capsule predictions. c.d. 21 D 64-65
The Teams and How They Got There. Dan Jenkins outlines development of bowl games, spotlighting the eight major bowls and their host cities; relates importance of TV in date and time scheduling, runs down this year's team performances resulting in bowl bids. Eight major bowls: Pasadena's Rose Bowl,

Dallas' Cotton Bowl, New Orleans' Sugar Bowl, Miami's Orange Bowl, Jacksonville's Gator Bowl, Houston's Bluebonnet Bowl, El Paso's Sun Bowl, Atlantic City's Liberty Bowl. c.d. 21 D 66-69

Chicago High School Football Player Amerigo Marino declined football scholarship offer at Northwestern to study music, has been named conductor of the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra; Marino compares conducting to coaching. 21 D 70

Professional

Tex Maule reports on Chicago Bears' victory in NFL championship game with New York Giants at Wrigley Field; injured leg of Y. A. Tittle does not limit his playing capabilities; teams' strategy cited. c.p., p. 6 Ja 10-15

Kenneth Rudeen profiles NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle (p.), who decisively guided a great and growing sport in the year of its most alarming crises; chosen by SPORTS ILLUSTRATED as Sportsman of the Year. cov. 6 Ja 22-29

Photo gallery of NFL team owners. p. 6 Ja 27

Erskine Caldwell, author of God's Little Acre and Tobacco Road, recalls his inglorious pro football career, finds himself more successful as a pool shark. 6 Ja 46

Gilbert Rogin recounts San Diego Chargers' victory over the Boston Patriots for the AFL championship; contrast between AFL and NFL championship game cited, San Diego Fullback Keith Lincoln chosen as game's most valuable player. p. 13 Ja 8-11

Pro Football Player Frank Gifford turns down TV Producer Sy Weintraub's offer to play Tarzan. 20 Ja 43

Mrs. Lamar Hunt, who had to accompany the owner of the Kansas City Chiefs to 30 football games in one season, comments on her love of football. 27 Ja 65

The 28-Million-Dollar Deal. William Leggett reports that CBS-TV, which out-bid ABC-TV and NBC-TV, wins the 1964-65 television rights to the NFL's regular season games. chart, p. 3 F 16-17

TV Again. NBC-TV signs a $36 million, five-year contract with the AFL, which will go into effect in 1965 unless ABC drops its option for this fall. 10 F 8

Suspended Green Bay Football Halfback Paul Hornung, who has been a steady companion of 23-year-old Myrna Ross, was aghast when told that Columnist Walter Winchell reported him linked with 58-year-old Myrna Loy. 2 Mr 51

All Forgiven, Play Ball. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle reinstates Green Bay Packers' Paul Hornung and Detroit Lions' Alex Karras. 23 Mr 11

Philadelphia Eagle Owner Jerry Wolman is graduated summa cum laude from Shenandoah (Pa.) High School; school board says his business success gives credit for senior year. 27 Ap 64

The Conservative Pros. Sixty-five-year-old pro football players of the NFL with over five years in the game can retire on $487-a-month pension. 4 My 25

Wide-Eyed TV. CBS announces that as part of their new telecasting of the NFL games next season they are going to put one announcer on the field, use an "isolation" camera to concentrate on a single player and increase the number of commercials. 25 My 14

49ers' In The Family. Mrs. Vic Morabito, widow of the managing owner of the San Francisco 49ers and Mrs. Josephine Heintzelman, widow of the 49ers' founder, have announced that in accordance with the wishes of their late husbands, the team will remain "in the family." The ladies have named Lou Spada, general manager of the team under Vic Morabito, as the new managing owner. 25 My 20

That's Telling Him. Denver Broncos' Defensive Backfield Coach George Dickson wrote word KISS for maneuver during blackboard session for Bronco coaches, told Head Coach Jack Faulkner that it meant "Keep It Simple, Stupid." 6 Jl 13

Kansas City Chief Coach Hank Stram comments on possibilities of having Basketball Star Wilt Chamberlain on his football team; Boston Patriots' Co-Owner Dom DiMaggio responds that Patriots' will hire Bill Russell. 20 Jl 38

Dallas Cowboy Owner Clint Murchison, Jr. will not be able to relax while his Tackle Don Talbert is 10,000 miles away in Vietnam, as a 2nd lieutenant in the U.S. Army. 20 Jl 38

Medical Missionary Dr. William McColl, en route to Korea, learned how to rough it during nine years as an end for the Chicago Bears. 27 Jl 45

The Monsters And Me, Part I: Dallas Cowboys' Tommy McDonald, the smallest man in the NFL, tells of early life in New Mexico, career with champion Oklahoma, difficulties of adjusting to professional football in series of conversations with Tex Maule; describes learning intricacies of pro ball, outlines other pro players' styles. c.p., p., cov. 27 Jl 58-65

The Monsters And Me, Part I: Dallas Cowboys' Tumble, A Trade. Tommy McDonald concludes narrative with account of championship season with Philadelphia, his abrupt trade to Dallas Cowboys; describes playoff game with Packers. p. 3 Ag 38-42

Three Arms Reach For Fame. Three pro rookie quarterbacks, San Francisco's George Mira, Kansas City's Pete Beathard and Philadelphia's Jack Concannon typify new crop of outstanding, highly-paid passers as they warm up for last week's College All-Star Game with NFL Champion Chicago Bears. 17 Ag 12-15

Don Trull Queues Up And Counts His Money. Edwin Shrake spotlights highest paid rookie quarterback of all, Houston Oilers' Don Trull, outlines reasons for picking Houston over Baltimore. p., cov. 17 Ag 16-19

Greasy Neale: Nothing To Prove, Nothing To Ask. Gerald Holland recreates cocktail party at NFL annual meeting at which all-around Elder Sportsman Greasy Neale was star guest; recounts conversations with Allie Sherman, other sports figures of present and past; Neale played in World Series, took a team to Rose Bowl and coached Philadelphia Eagles to two NFL championships. p. 24 Ag 32-34, 39

NFL Lifetime-record-setting Y. A. Tittle last week set another record by autographing 1,206 copies of new book, Y. A. Tittle: I Pass! in two hours, 13 minutes and 27 seconds. 24 Ag 44

Dirty Pool. San Diego Chargers sustain second loss in history of its exhibition games after racial incident in Atlanta's Hilton Inn, owned by Barron Hilton; Hilton also owns Chargers. 7 S 19

A Year of Change, Problems and Prosperity. Tex Maule presents pro football as most rapidly growing spectator sport in history, with expansion as keynote; outlines war between NFL and AFL, prospects of eventual playoff game. c.d. 7 S 44-46

Scouting Reports. Tex Maule, with photos by Jay Maisel, spotlights 1964 prospects for the NFL; St. Louis, Dallas or Cleveland could topple dynastic Giants in East; playing again with Paul Hornung, the Packers in the West should outdo defending champions, Chicago Bears, and take NFL title. p. 7 S 47, 58-68

An Old Story: The Giants and Tittle. In NFL Scouting Reports, Tex Maule spotlights New York Giants and their Coach, Allie Sherman (career sketch); outlines seemingly disastrous trades, dependence of team on Y. A. Tittle (cov.). c.p., p. 7 S 48-57

A Boot for Boston, a Chance for K.C. Edwin Shrake scouts AFL prospects. p. 7 S 70-75

Green Bay Blocks to Win. Morton H. Sharnik, with photos by Neil Leifer and drawings by Robert Handville, delineates arts of key Packer blockers Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston, who demonstrate techniques. c.p., c.d. 7 S 76-85

Zero of the Lions, Part I: SI's George Plimpton relates experience as quarterback for Detroit Lions in preseason scrimmage, excerpted from his book, Paper Lion; describes pre-game tensions, ribbing by players, bus trip to Pontiac, Mich. playing field. p. 7 S 96-117

Zero of the Lions, Part II: 'Hut—Two—Three . . . Ugh!' George Plimpton describes humiliation as bumbling quarterback for Detroit Lions during exhibition scrimmage, describes five plays he called, conversation next day with Harley Sewell. p. 14 S 26-35

Shining Hour For Golden Boy. Tex Maule spotlights Green Bay Packer Paul Hornung (p.), who, in a game against the Chicago Bears, proved his worth after a year's suspension. 21 S 22-25

The Vikings On The Move. Edwin Shrake spotlights Tommy Mason (cov., biopers) of the Minnesota Vikings as pro football heads into third week; Vikings won five exhibition games, stand 1-1 with aid of Mason and Fullback Bill Brown. c.p., p. 28 S 20-25

Buffalo Stands For The Bills. Edwin Shrake reports that the Buffalo Bills won third straight game by defeating San Diego Chargers, spotlighting sellout crowds, injury difficulties of both teams. p. 5 O 32-33

Paul Hornung has difficulties with the Internal Revenue Service, which he owes $3,163.76 for 1962, the year he was suspended for betting on Packer games; Hornung denies there is any connection. 5 O 70

A College Star With a Slow Fuse Ignites the Fireproof Rams. Tex Maule spotlights Los Angeles Rams Rookie Quarterback Bill Munson (p.), who began pro career as starting quarterback; outlines drafting experience. 5 O 97-99

The Makings of A New Pro Dynasty. Tex Maule spotlights the Baltimore Colts, who, with the excellent running of Tom Matte, Jerry Hill, Tony Lorick and Don Looney to complement the strong arm of Johnny Unitas, are well on their way to the NFL championship. p., c.p. 12 O 40-44

Not Much Defense, But Two Long-Ball Hitters. Cleveland Browns finally have deep receivers in Paul Warfield (p.) and Gary Collins to aid Jimmy Brown; Tex Maule reports loss to Pittsburgh, outlines Cleveland's weaknesses in defense, points out need for sharpening offensive weapons. 19 O 64-67

Colts Rule the West Again. Tex Maule gives account of the Baltimore Colts-Green Bay Packers football game, won by the Colts, who are moving toward the Western title sooner than expected. 26 O 34-35, 76, 83

Buffalo Bill Quarterback Jack Kemp and Running Back Cookie Gilchrist (quoted) deny rumor that Kemp has been refusing to hand off to Gilchrist because they are on opposite sides of the political fence. 26 O 59

'Wahoo! Wahoo! Wahoo!' Edwin Shrake profiles New York Jet Middle Linebacker Ed Wahoo McDaniel (p.), a 240-pound Choctaw-Chickasaw Indian, who has superseded Sam Huff as a New York football fan hero. 26 O 66-70

Green Bay May Be Little, But Football Is A Giant, Paintings by Robert Weaver depict preoccupation of residents of Green Bay, Wisconsin with NFL Packers, the only remaining home-town pro football team. r., c.r. 2 N 44-49

Two Flags For The Cardinals? Edwin Shrake reports on the St. Louis Cardinal football team, which is battling for the NFL Eastern Division title after leaping to a record start. Cardinals' Halfback John David Crow spotlighted. p., cov. 9 N 20-23

Tomi Ungerer Links the Past and the Future with Pro Football. Satirist Tomi Ungerer's paintings present grotesque image of pro football. c.r. 16 N 32-36

The Ball Game That Never Was. Maule's pro football column follows up long-standing controversy over advisability of an NFL-AFL playoff game, says NFL's Baltimore Colts would beat AFL-leading Buffalo Bills by about 41 points; gives player-by-player comparison of the two teams. 16 N 74-76

How the West Has Won. Edwin Shrake discusses how the Western Division of the NFL has dominated the Eastern Division for six of the last seven years; East's problems, expansion ownership, quarterbacks noted. 23 N 35-45

The Winning Ways Of A Thirty Year Loser. Gerald Holland profiles Millionaire Art Rooney (p.), owner of a 387-acre Thoroughbred breeding farm, race horses and the Pittsburgh Steelers football club, which has suffered through 30 seasons without an NFL championship. p. 23 N 90-94, 99-100, 104

The Toe That Lost Its Touch. Dan Jenkins spotlights Green Bay Packer Paul Hornung (p.), whose place-kicking average has dropped to 31%, putting Green Bay out of the running for the NFL championship. p. 30 N 30-32, 35

A Gigantic Midget Among Giant Men. Photos by Marvin E. Newman with Tex Maule's textpiece spotlight Alex Karras, defensive tackle of the Detroit Lions, who, although smaller than most pro tackles, ranks among top three defensive tackles in pro football. c.p., cov. 30 N 46-52

Vintage Year For Pro Rookies. Photos portray outstanding NFL rookies, Tony Lorick, Dave Parks, Bill Munson, Charley Taylor, Paul Warfield, Lester Josephson, and Bucky Pope. p. 7 D 32-35

Houston Oilers Owner K. S. (Bud) Adams Jr. has new plaything: a bright-red fire engine; cruises around fashionable River Oaks section searching for drive-in fires. 7 D 83

The Tastemakers Are Fed Up. Huston Horn reveals growing trend away from holding season tickets to New York Giant games as a status symbol. c.d. 7 D 88-91

Half A Game Out And One To Go. Edwin Shrake spotlights the St. Louis Cardinals, who, after a mid-season slump, defeated the Cleveland Browns, forcing the Eastern Division football title decision into the final hours of the season. p., cov. 14 D 16-19

Tough Cookie Marches To His Own Drummer. Textpiece by Edwin Shrake profiles Buffalo Bill Fullback Cookie Gilchrist (biopers). p. 14 D 70-80

Bring 'Em Back Signed. AFL and NFL teams engage in fantastic efforts to sign college stars to pro teams; incident between Baltimore Colts and Kansas City Chiefs over Duke's Mike Curtis related. 21 D 18

The Browns Win Big in the East. Tex Maule reports closing of NFL season as Cleveland Browns defeat New York Giants to win Eastern title, will play Western Winner Baltimore Colts. p. 21 D 22-25

In the AFL, Guile and Go Should Win for the Chargers. Edwin Shrake scouts AFL playoffs as Boston Patriots meet Buffalo Bills to decide Eastern Division title and opponent for Western Winner San Diego Chargers. p. 21 D 26-27

New Mexico Senator Clinton Anderson, a director of the Dallas Cowboys, acts as an unofficial scout for the NFL team; says it was he who convinced Cowboy President Clint Murchison Jr. to sign N.M. Fullback Don Perkins. 21 D 70

FORD, WHITEY See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY See AUTOMOBILE RACING; AUTOMOBILES

FORESTS See CONSERVATION

FOSS, JOE See HUNTING
FOYT, A. J. See AUTOMOBILE RACING
FRAILEY, JACK See ROWING
FRAIN, ANDY See SPORTS
FRALEY, OSCAR See BOXING
FRANCE, BILL See AUTOMOBILE RACING
FRANCE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred; OLYMPICS; RESORTS
FRANCIS, ARLENE See BASEBALL
FRANCISCUS, JAMES See TENNIS
FRANCO, FRANCISCO See FISH & FISHING; HUNTING
FRASER, DAWN See CLOTHING; SWIMMING
FREGOSI, JIM See BASEBALL
FRICK, FORD See BASEBALL
FUCHS, BERNARD See ART
FULBRIGHT, WILLIAM See FOOTBALL—College
FULLMER, GENE See BOXING
FUR See CLOTHING
FURLONG, WILLIAM BARRY See BASEBALL; FOOTBALL—College
FURSTENBURG, IRA PRINCESS VON See OLYMPICS

G

GAITHER, JAKE See ATHLETES
GALLOWAY, THOMAS EDWARD See CRIME
GAMBLING
David Scherman discusses Dr. Edward O. Thorp's effective computer system for beating blackjack; rules, four separate strategies to win. p., c.d. 13 Ja 18-25
Too Many Twins. Hialeah Race Track and Sunshine Park officials are opposed to the twin double that will be part of the spring program at Gulfstream and Tropical Park. 10 F 13
Gordon Getty (quoted), son of Billionaire J. Paul Getty, can not decide whether to invest in a gambling license for the luxury motel he is planning to build in Reno. 6 Ap 80
Squaring The Deal. Las Vegas casinos try to counter blackjack-winning readers of Dr. Edward O. Thorp's book, Beat The Dealer, by employing house-favoring variations of blackjack rules. 13 Ap 18
The Key and Wheel Club. Horse Owners Billy Bresnahan, Mike Sherman and a few of their friends win a record $132,000 twin-double at Roosevelt Raceway by using a system of wheeling and dealing; system explained. 11 My 14
Folksinger Joan Baez continues to bet on losing horses at Churchill Downs, says she bets on horses with the worst odds to make the horse and the jockey feel better. 18 My 76
Now The No-Armed Bandit. Inventor Jack La Vigna finishes successful trial at Las Vegas' Thunderbird Hotel of new armless slot machines, designed with fewer working parts, smaller size; machines cannot be patented in the U.S. 17 Ag 7-8
Hello, Mr. Chips. Daniel Senard, of Beaune, France, produces counterfeit-proof casino chips for 200 gambling establishments around the world; counterfeiting attempts described. 5 O 18
Shying Like Horsemen. Possible legalization of off-track betting in New York State is met with boycott threats and consternation by the U.S. Trotting Association and the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association who fear a decline in on-track betting and track admissions. 21 D 15
GAMES
Confessions of a Stoop Ball Champion. Gilbert Rogin recalls games he and his younger brother played on the streets of New York as children; games included stoop ball, of which they were the self-declared champions of 96th street; more recent athletic accomplishments revealed. 20 Ap 75-88
At the annual Conservative Party fête in Bromley, England, former Prime Minister Harold Macmillan shied three balls at a stand of skittles to try to win a pig, but when the game was done, his wife Lady Dorothy had to award the pig to another Tory. 31 Ag 54
Ivy League's newest fad is a game called Tangle, put out by Scrabble-makers Selchow & Righter; game described. 21 D 21
How to Forget Baseball. Science-fiction Writer Theodore Sturgeon's story tells about national game at distant point in future called Quoit (described). c.r. 21 D 84-101
GARBO, GRETA See CLOTHING; HORSE RACING—Harness
GARDEN STATE STAKES (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
GARLITS, DON See AUTOMOBILE RACING
GARNER, JAMES See GOLF; TENNIS
GARY, ROMAIN See BOULES
GATEWOOD, MRS. EMMA See HIKING
GATOR BOWL See FOOTBALL—College
GAVILAN, KID See CUBA
GENERAL MOTORS CORP. See AUTOMOBILES
GEODUC CLAMS See FISH & FISHING
GEOFFRION, BERNIE See HOCKEY
GEORGETOWN U. See BASKETBALL—College
GERBER, JOHN See BRIDGE
GERMAN GRAND PRIX (AUTOMOBILE RACE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
GERMANY See OLYMPICS; RESORTS
GETTY, GORDON See GAMBLING
GETTY, J. PAUL See BOWLING; GAMBLING
GHANA See BOXING
GIARDELLO, JOEY See BOXING
GIBBONS, EUELL See FOOD
GIBSON, MANLEY B.
Legacy. Colonel Manley B. Gibson dies after devoting retirement to world-wide adoption of metric system; importance of adoption outlined. 29 Je 10-11
GIBSON, TOBY See BOXING
GIFFORD, FRANK See FOOTBALL—Professional
GILBERT, BIL
See also SPORTS ILLUSTRATED
Recounts his and two other bumbling explorers, Norman Carver, Jr.'s and Billy Rosenberger's expedition to El Sumidero—the gorge of the Grijalva River in Central America. 27 Ja 72-83
Chronicles rapids-shooting experience in West Virginia gorge on the Potomac River called The Smokehole. 27 Ap 76-88
Outlines efforts of Congressional Country Club membership in preparing for this year's U.S. Open Golf Tournament. 15 Je 78-93
Recalls visit to New London, Ohio, once called Ferretville, U.S.A. 7 D 98-114
GILCHRIST, COOKIE See FOOTBALL—Professional
GILES, WARREN See BASEBALL
GILLIS, SIMON P. See TRACK & FIELD
GIN RUMMY See CARDS
GISCARD D'ESTAING, VALERY See SKIING
GLASER, MILTON See ART
GLEASON, JACKIE See GOLF
GLENN, JOHN See PHYSICAL FITNESS; SKIING
GODFREY, ARTHUR See ANIMALS
GOITSCHEL, CHRISTINE See OLYMPICS; PARACHUTES
GOITSCHEL, MARIELLE See OLYMPICS; PARACHUTES
GOLDEN, EDWARD J., JR. See WRESTLING
GOLDEN, FRANCIS See ART; DRAWINGS
GOLDEN DOOR See RESORTS
GOLDENSON, LEONARD See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.
GOLDEN TERROR (WRESTLER) See WRESTLING
GOLDWATER, BARRY See GOLF; SPORTS
GOLDWATER, MRS. BARRY (PEGGY) See FISH & FISHING
GOLF
Jack Nicklaus' tips for golfers: 6 Ja 47; 20 Ja 47; 3 F 51; 17 F 49; 9 Mr 53; 16 Mr 64; 23 Mr 56; 13 Ap 92; 25 My 76; 20 Jl 49; 24 Ag 48; 31 Ag 49; 28 S 62; 12 O 65; 26 O 64; 9 N 44; 30 N 56; 14 D 62
Sandy Trap For a Million Golfers. Article by Gwilym Brown and Phil Bath's photos spotlight Palm Springs, world's winter golf capital built mostly by Real Estate Man Johnny Dawson, who discovered desert's potential for golf courses. c.p., p. 13 Ja 26-37
Auto Driving Champion Jimmy Clark quoted on his own unique method of scoring in golf. 13 Ja 38
Off at L.A. With a Clink, Clank. Alfred Wright reports that Golfers Julius Boros, Billy Casper, Arnold Palmer, Dave Marr, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema, Gary Player and Roy Floyd begin professional golf's richest year in the Los Angeles Open, at the Rancho Golf Club. p. 13 Ja 42-43
In a press agent's West Indian hashish dream, Jackie Robinson, Jackie Hendriks, Herb McKenley, Fred Perry, Caleb Haye use various sports equipment to play a game of golf on a Kingston, Jamaica course. p. 20 Ja 43
Actor James Garner quoted on being another Jack Nicklaus, while playing golf at Bel-Air Country Club. 20 Ja 43
Superchamps In Deep Trouble. Photos spotlight Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer battling the world's biggest water hazard, the Pacific Ocean, while competing in the Crosby National Golf Tournament at Cypress Point. p. 27 Ja 18-23
Chain-smoking Arnold Palmer gave up cigarettes the night before he climbed into an early first-round lead at the Lucky International Golf Tournament. 3 F 46
New York Times' James (Scotty) Reston comments on resignation of the Director of the U.S. Information Service and Golfer Ed Murrow. 3 F 46
Connecticut's Senator Abraham Ribicoff, a frequent player at Burning Tree Golf Course, comments on the good golf advice given by caddies. 10 F 46
Stars Don't Reign, But Confusion Does. Gwilym S. Brown discusses reasons why last year's golf heroes Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Julius Boros have been unable to score golf victories over Tommy Jacobs (p.), Chi Chi Rodriguez (p.), Art Wall, and Paul Harney this season. 10 F 48-50
Forbidden by doctors to play golf until the operation on his passing arm heals, San Francisco 49ers' Quarterback John Brodie and his teammate Matt Hazeltine entered as a two-man team in the World Domino Golf Championships and finished about 90th. 24 F 40
'Young' Sam Wins While Old Mac Sues. Edwin Shrake reports on the PGA annual senior's championship won by Sam Snead (p.) on the two new golf courses which Multimillionaire John D. MacArthur built. MacArthur is now suing the PGA, which is undecided about accepting the $1.6 million clubhouse that it contracted MacArthur to build. 2 Mr 52-54
Breakthrough. To make the golf tournament at Oakland Hills Country Club in Birmingham, Michigan truly a world championship, the South African golf association ignored race by encouraging all golfers to qualify and the Czechoslovakian government officially sanctioned the game. 9 Mr 15
Prince Bertil, who is in San Francisco to represent his father at Sweden Week, creeps away unannounced to play golf at Cypress Point and Pebble Beach after attending his fill of smorgasbord banquets. 9 Mr 49
Upon quitting his job as teaching pro at the De Sota Lake Country Club, Golfer Fred Charlton announces he will devote himself to the sport of which he has been champion since 1954—yo-yo. 9 Mr 49
Golf pro at Washington's Army-Navy country club comments on Admiral Ulysses Simpson Grant Sharp Jr. 9 Mr 49
The Moderate Muscleman. New isometric exercise program for golfers from AMF's Ben Hogan Sales Company follows RCAF exercise booklet in urging moderation. 16 Mr 9-10
Dizzy Dean complains of poor sight since removal of cataracts, scores hole-in-one on No. 2 hole of Phoenix Country Club. 23 Mr 46
A Pro Golfer's Candid Story. Excerpt from Golfer's Gold written by Tony Lema in collaboration with SI's Gwilym Brown.
Part I: Survival Training for a Rookie. Describes ways rookies begin pro tour, discusses setbacks, sponsors, common problems, importance of mental outlook and difficulty in achieving top earning capacity. p., cov. 23 Mr 62-72
Part II: Bubbles At the Top—And Two That Burst. Examines life among elite of pro golf; discusses decline of former greats Mike Souchak and Ken Venturi, importance of practice-round matches. p. 30 Mr 30-37
Part III: This One Is Fun, But The Open Is Torture. Contrasts the Masters Golf Tournament with the U.S. Open in relation to his own experiences. p. 6 Ap 45-69
The Deaf Ear. Golf Clubs band together in National Club Association to try lobbying in order to do away with "temporary wartime" luxury taxes; NCA secretary-treasurer has little luck with congressman. 30 Mr 9
Vince Lombardi decries golf as aid to football players as he plays with Boxer-Golf Pro Chi Chi Rodriguez in San Juan. 30 Mr 49
Hear the Birdie. Golf spectators at the Doral Open in Miami, Florida are able to follow the action of every player at every hole, thanks to transistor radio receivers rented from a company called Golfcaster Inc. c.d. 6 Ap 16, 19
The Key To The Masters. Jack Nicklaus (p.) analyzes the Augusta National Golf Club course, site of the upcoming Masters, discussing reasons why power hitters have an advantage over short hitters. diag., cov. 6 Ap 30-33
Takeouts profile strong Masters contenders Gary Player, Tony Lema, Mason Rudolph, Dow Finsterwald, Billy Casper, Art Wall, Arnold Palmer, Paul Harney. d. 6 Ap 32-33
Shoot For A Million. Mark H. McCormack (p.) discusses the Masters as most lucrative of golfing events; McCormack, business manager and legal adviser to Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player also cites financial ventures of his three prominent clients. 6 Ap 34-38
Those Who Watch Golf Bear Watching. Drawings by Marc Simont depict the attire, gyrations and observation methods of the spectators at the Masters Golf tournament. c.d. 6 Ap 40-44
Unlike the average American businessmen, who whip out to the local golf course on a day off, Pro Golfers Billy Casper and Jimmy Demaret would rather go fishing and boating, respectively. 6 Ap 80
Where Georgia Retaliates for Sherman's March. Dan Jenkins spotlights the Bon Air Hotel in Augusta, Georgia, once official host to the Masters Golf Tournament players but has since declined into dishevelment. c.d. 6 Ap 94-108

Pity The Poor Short Hitters. Edwin Shrake relates how smaller pro-golfers bemoan trend toward longer, tougher courses. Jerry Barber (p.) and Billy Maxwell (p.), among those interviewed, say power hitters who can putt have the advantage, and short hitters may be forced out of the pro tour. 13 Ap 28-29

A Master To Top Them All. Alfred Wright gives day-by-day account of the Masters Golf Tournament won for the fourth time by Arnold Palmer. c.p., p. 20 Ap 18-27

Bill Boyer, president of the Minnesota Vikings, managed to break 100 on the golf course but in the process shattered a window which cost him $150 to replace. 20 Ap 47

Nathaniel Avery, Arnold Palmer's Masters caddie, says they work as a team: Avery picks clubs and Palmer makes shots. 27 Ap 21

Bandleader Lawrence Welk scores creditable 89, winning best score of foursome at Louisville golf course. 27 Ap 64

Let Me Help Your Game, by Claude Harmon with Alfred Wright.
- Part I: Be a Smart Curve-Ball Hitter. Importance of controlled curve in placing ball explained. d., cov. 27 Ap 38-47
- Part II: Little Ones That Matter The Most. Examines critical short shots near greens. c.d. 4 My 70-76

Nobody Loses At the Poor Boy Open. Edwin Shrake profiles Oil Millionaire Waco Turner (p.), who, on his own golf course in Burneyville, Oklahoma, conducts his annual Poor Boy Open Golf Tournament for losers who did not qualify for the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions. p. 11 My 28-31

Betty Grable James muffs the last putt in southwestern golf tournament as she nervously checks her watch and realizes it is the moment to meet her husband Harry James, who had just flown home from Tokyo. 11 My 62

Dwight D. Eisenhower selects Arnold Palmer as a partner to play against Ray Bolger and Jimmy Demaret in a charity golf match at the Merion Cricket Club. 11 My 62

The Funny, Frantic Life I Lead, by Jack Nicklaus.
- Part I: Journal humorously tells his experiences on the 1964 Pro-Golf tour, spotlighting practice game with Arnold Palmer, time spent between poorly played rounds of the Crosby Tournament, shopping with wife for furniture in Chicago, pro-amateur tournament in San Francisco, trip to Palm Springs with Palmer and wife. c.d. 11 My 80-90
- Part II: Even a Winner Can Cripple In. Continues experiences on Pro-Golf tour in diary form; wins Phoenix tournament, concentrates on putting difficulty, describes activities with family during two-week layoff. c.d. 18 My 44-46, 51, 59
- Part III: Ending Up Second Can Get A Man Down. Discusses how a balky putting stroke kept him from finishing first in the New Orleans Open, St. Petersburg Open and the Doral Open. c.d. 25 My 52-62
- Part IV: So I Put A Coat On Arnie. Concludes journal with account of disappointing second-place Masters finish. c.d. 1 Je 46-58

Motorboat Racer and Designer Gar Wood plans to produce a high-speed golf cart that will go 40 mph. 18 My 76

If a Texas Portent Holds True, Watch Out for Big Billy. Brown's golf column reports on Billy Casper's Colonial Invitation win, compares Ft. Worth's Colonial and U.S. Open; table shows how Colonial winners have fared at Open from 1957 to 1963. p. 18 My 81-86

Michigan's Republican Governor George Romney made his second hole in one in five years on the Bloomfield Hills (Mich.) Country Club golf course, but no one was around to witness his accomplishment. 25 My 74

While in the U.S. to promote the movie Rhino, Ian Player explains why his brother Gary is a pro-golfer and he is chief warden of the Umfolozi Game Reserve in Zululand. 25 My 74

New York Giants Football Star Y. A. Tittle finishes 18 holes at Dorado Beach, P.R., golf course with a 26-over-par 98. 1 Je 63

Possible reasons cited for Dwight D. Eisenhower-Arnold Palmer golf victory over Ray Bolger and Jimmy Demaret. p. 8 Je 53

A Dream Match Produces A Dream Round. Alfred Wright reviews televised golf match between Ben Hogan (p.) and Sam Snead (p.) which was won by Hogan, who had been defeated by Snead in three previous head-to-head matches. 8 Je 54-59

A Horror to Play In But Great to Watch. Portfolio of paintings by Bernie Fuchs depicts excitement of U.S. Open Golf Tournament from last year. c.r., c.d., cov. 15 Je 32-37

Congressional: Where A Small Splash Will Cost Big Money. Alfred Wright provides look at U.S. Open site, Washington's Congressional Country Club (brief history); outlines characteristics of course, aerial photos of 18th and 10th holes point up difficulties of water and sand traps. c.p., c. diag. 15 Je 38-42

The Armchair Golfer, or Whimpers of a Short-changed Viewer. Poet Ogden Nash composes ode to the living-room golf tournament TV spectator, who sees only the last four holes of the U.S. Open. 15 Je 43

The Amateur Hour in Pro Sports. Bill Gilbert outlines efforts of Congressional Country Club membership in preparing for this year's U.S. Open Golf Tournament co-hosted by USGA; describes years-long effort to attract tournament, changes made in course; Realtor Frank Murphy left business to devote all his time to coordinating efforts. p. 15 Je 78-93

James Bond's Golfing Caper. Scenes from Ian Fleming's latest James Bond movie thriller Goldfinger show the cunning and cheating Bond faces in his golf match with Goldfinger. p. 22 Je 22-25

Jackie Gleason will telecast his comedy show from Miami, Florida next season so he can play golf every day at the Doral Country Club. 22 Je 48

President of the U. of Southern California Dr. Norman Topping, while playing golf with USC Football Coach John McKay, scored his first hole in one at the California Country Club. 22 Je 48

'Poor Ken' Hits It Rich Again. Alfred Wright reports on Ken Venturi's victory in U.S. Open at Washington's Congressional Country Club amid 100-degree heat, Tommy Jacobs' remarkable 64-shot round on difficult course. p., cov. 29 Je 12-19

Arkansas Football Coach Frank Broyles shoots seven-under-par 63 at Fayetteville Country Club. 29 Je 48

Pro Golfers Jay and Lionel Hebert failed to make the cut at the U.S. Open, but were invited to lunch in a House dining room by their namesake, Representative F. Edward Hebert, of New Orleans. 6 Jl 48

SAC Commander in Chief General Thomas S. Power (quoted) carries his phone with him to the golf course, putting it down only to swing. 6 Jl 48

Texas Football Coach Darrell Royal and Mississippi State University Athletic Director Wade Walker call off 14-hour, 60-hole golf match; neither of the two Oklahoma teammates strayed out of the low 70s. 6 Jl 48

This Was Burlesque Stripper April March (Velma Fern Butler, p.) complains that recent write-ups on her are usually about her golf playing instead of her stripping. 6 Jl 48

A High Kind of Low Life. Dan Jenkins spotlights "America's Guest" George Low (bi-opers), who is considered one of the best putters in golf and has made a career of living luxuriously on no income. Box offers tips on putting. p. 6 Jl 56-58

Victorious Crusade In the Valley Of Sin. John Lovesey's report spotlights Tony Lema (p.), who scored his first major golf victory by overcoming the hazards at St. Andrews in the British Open. p. 20 Jl 16-19

Enter Adams' Army. Unknown Golfer Yates Adams wins Amateur Public Links golf championship in Minneapolis. 27 Jl 8

Golf Tournament Spectator Billy Graham (quoted) receives money clip bearing official PGA seal. 27 Jl 45

'You Aren't Going to Believe This, But . . .' Wright's golf column relates Bobby Nichols' bad but winning performance in the PGA championships at Columbus, Ohio. p. 27 Jl 48-49

Fairway Woods—Swing Hard And Be Fearless. Champion Golfer Betsy Rawls, with Edwin Shrake, shows how women should compensate for comparative lack of strength on fairway wood shots. c.d., cov. 3 Ag 18-27

Sam Snead's older brother, Jesse, who started Sam on the way toward a pro golf career, thinks Sam should retire now, says (quoted) his putting was never very good. 3 Ag 46

Little Chi Chi's Other Side. Dan Jenkins profiles golf's most colorful pro, Chi Chi Rodriquez. p. 10 Ag 34-40

Amateur Golf Champion Chick Evans, World Senior Titlist George Haggarty, Bing Crosby and Bob Hope will represent the U.S. against aging golfers from 12 nations in the international seniors golf tournament. 10 Ag 48

Ann Landers counsels girl golfer to play doubles with her boy friend to make him look good, rather than beating him in singles. 10 Ag 48

Barry Goldwater was assigned as a partner to Sam Snead in a Phoenix pro-am tournament 24 years ago, helped him win tournament; Golfer Goldwater (p.) now shoots in high 70s. 17 Ag 63

Jackie Gleason played 36 holes of golf in Miami with set of clubs given him by Arnold Palmer; Gleason also has 14k-gold putter with mink mitten, baby-blue golf cart with TV, walkie-talkie and mahogany bar and personally engraved golf balls from Miami Beach's Mayor Mel Richard. 17 Ag 63

U.S. Davis Cupper Chuck McKinley, seen on golf course, has not abandoned tennis for golf, says he is a terrible golfer and just wanted to lay off tennis for a few days. 17 Ag 63

Mary Worth comic strip presents situation in which girl named Patsy gives up love affair with young golf pro because he refuses to work in toy factory; SI tells of income Mark McCormack achieves for Pros Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus. 24 Ag 44

When A Golf Course Turns On You. Paintings by Robert Osborn show what a golf course looks like to the overplayed golfer in the hot, weary month of August. c.r. 31 Ag 36-45

A Champion Conquers A Kansas Sea Breeze. Alfred Wright reports on the 64th U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship, won by Barbara McIntire, who defeated three time title winner JoAnne Gunderson and defending champion Anne Quast Welts, who was 6-months-pregnant and failed to qualify for the match play. Box details Anne Quast Welts' (p.) decision to play despite impending motherhood. 31 Ag 56-57

Winning A Barrel of Beer Money. Alfred Wright features Carling Brewing Company's World Golf Championship at Oakland Hills, won by Bobby Nichols. p. 7 S 32-35

Double Ace. Electronics firm Production Planner N. L. Manley scores successive holes-in-one on 330-yard par-4 hole and 290-yard par-4 hole, for the longest consecutive holes in one of recorded golf history. 14 S 17

Broker Edward Allen Pierce, of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc. celebrated 90th birthday with round of golf. 14 S 45

The Saint Gets Revenge on King Tut. Alfred Wright reports on 1964 U.S. Amateur Championship at Cleveland's Canterbury Golf Club, won by Bill Campbell, with Ed Tutwiler as runner-up. 28 S 72-74

The Duke of Windsor comments on Golfer Barbara McIntire as he stalks after the girls at the first women's international golf championship near Paris. 12 O 57

Sam Snead (quoted) and his son Jack leave their golf bags at home as they depart for big-game safari in Dar es Salaam. 9 N 47

When Mickey Wright Did Nothing Wrong. Gwilym S. Brown spotlights woman golfer Mickey Wright (p.), who, on the last day of an LPGA tournament in Texas, turned in the best round of golf ever shot by a woman. 23 N 84-85

A Matter Of Pride At Endsville. Gwilym S. Brown reports on the Cajun Golf Classic, in which Jack Nicklaus defeated Arnold Palmer to become golf's leading money winner for 1964. p. 30 N 22-27

Where Duffers Fall For The Aloha Push. Gwilym S. Brown reports that Hawaii's Royal Kaanapali golf course (p.) will be the site of the Canada Cup Golf tournament, the first major sports event to be held in Hawaii. p. 30 N 59-60, 62

A Triumph For Two Swingers. Alfred Wright spotlights Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, winners of the Canada Cup golf matches, held at the Royal Kaanapali Golf Course in the Hawaiian Islands; how the competitors spent their leisure hours discussed. p. 14 D 24-26

Farewell, Poor Boy. Oil Millionaire Waco Turner's Poor Boy Open is scrapped as PGA announces tournament sponsors will put up $3,500,000 in prize money this year. 21 D 15-16

Alfred Wright reports SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's choice of Golfer Ken Venturi (c.p., p., cov.) as Sportsman of the Year; outlines early successes, decline and triumph in winning 1964's U.S. Open. c.p. 21 D 32-39

GOLFCASTER INC. See GOLF

GOLF COURSES See CONSERVATION; GOLF

GOOD, ROBERT C., JR. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

GORDON, AGNES See BRIDGE

GOREN, CHARLES See BRIDGE

GOREY, HAYS See AUTOMOBILE RACING

GORILLA MONSOON (WRESTLER) See WRESTLING

GOULET, ROBERT See LAWRENCE, CAROL

GRABBLING See FISH & FISHING

GRABLE, BETTY See GOLF

GRABOWSKI, JIM See FOOTBALL—College 13 Ja 44-46

GRACE, PRINCESS OF MONACO See MONACO

GRAHAM, BILLY See GOLF

GRAHAM, J. A. M. See GREAT BRITAIN

GRAND PRIX OF MEXICO See AUTOMOBILE RACING

GRAND PRIX OF MONACO See AUTOMOBILE RACING

GRANT, CARY See PHYSICAL FITNESS

GRANT, GREGOR See AUTOMOBILE RACING

GRAY, MRS. S. BRALEY See HORSES

GRAZIANO, ROCKY See BOXING

GREAT BRITAIN
See also POLO; RESORTS; SOCCER

Leaders of Britain's opposing political parties Labor's Harold Wilson and Tory Quintin Hogg trade jibes at the photographic images of each other's colleagues. 3 F 46

Two Proper Britishers In A Bob. Profile of British Bobsledders Robin Dixon and Anthony J. D. Nash, who beat the Italian sleds and won England's third Olympic gold medal in 40 years. p. 10 F 22-23

Dog Defects. In Britain, a group of veterinarians have just finished surveying 120 breeds of dogs and found only 17 free from defects; major difficulty in raising show dogs

is that inbreeding tends to concentrate faults just as intensely as good points. 24 F 7
New father Prince Philip of Britain expresses concern over lack of space in England, comments on youth clubs. 23 Mr 46
When Knighthood's Flower Wilted. J. A. M. Graham adaptation of Ian Anstruther's The Knight and the Umbrella humorously recalls medieval tournament held by 13th Earl of Eglinton in 1839. c.d. 18 My 88-106
Great Britain's Prince Philip spent his Icelandic vacation cruising on the yacht Britania, fishing, flying and birdwatching. 20 Jl 38
Great Britain's Education Secretary Quintin Hogg (p.) comments on rumors that he was not really riding his bicycle to work but just riding it around the corner and out of sight, and there loading it into his Austin Princess. 21 S 88

GREECE See OLYMPICS
GREEN, CHARLIE See FOOTBALL—College
GREEN, LENNY See BOWLING
GREEN BAY PACKERS See FOOTBALL—Professional
GREEN MONSTER (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
GREENSHIELDS, JOHN See PHYSICAL FITNESS
GRENADINES (ISLANDS) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49
GRIFFIN, ARTHUR M. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
GRIFFIN, MERV See HORSES
GRIFFITH, EMILE See BOXING
GRIFFITH, SAM See BOAT RACING
GRIGGS, LEE See BOXING
GRIJALAVA RIVER See RIVERS
GRIMES, HOWARD R. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
GRIMM, KENNETH See AUTOMOBILE RACING
GROMYKO, ANDREI See SPORTS; TRAP-SHOOTING
GROSS, MILTON See BOXING
GROSSMAN, MARY LOUISE See ANIMALS
GROSSMAN, ROBERT See AUTOMOBILES
GROSSMAN, SHELLY See ANIMALS
GUADALUPE MOUNTAINS See CONSERVATION
GUIDES See TRAVEL
GUINNESS, ALEC See BRIDGE
GUINNESS, MRS. LOEL See BOXING
GULBENKIAN, NUBAR See SWIMMING
GULF OIL CORP. See AUTOMOBILES
GULFSTREAM PARK RACE TRACK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
GUN BOW (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
GUNDERSON, JOANNE See GOLF
GURNEY, DAN See AUTOMOBILE RACING
GURSEL, CEMAL See BOXING

H

HACKETT, ROBERT A. See HORSE RACING—Harness
HADDIX, HARVEY See ANIMALS
HAGGARTY, GEORGE See GOLF
HAIG-BROWN, RODERICK See FISH & FISHING
HAKONE NATIONAL PARK See JAPAN
HALE, BRUCE (SLICK) See BASKETBALL—College
HALL, JIMMY See BOWLING
HALLECK, CHARLES See BASEBALL; FISH & FISHING
HAM, RICHARD See HIKING
HAMBLETONIAN See HORSE RACING—Harness
HAMMAN, ROBERT See BRIDGE
HAMMER THROW See TRACK & FIELD
HANCOCK, A. B., JR. See ACCIDENTS
HANDBALL
Russell DeYoung, President of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., notes that if the U.S. had an Olympic handball team it could probably beat the Russians since he did not see a single handball court in Russia. 9 Mr 49
HANDVILLE, ROBERT See ART; DRAWINGS
HANNIKAINEN, HEIKKI See ROWING
HANNUM, ALEX See BASKETBALL—Professional
HARDIN, WAYNE See FOOTBALL—College
HARDY, CARROLL See BASEBALL
HARGITAY, MICKEY See BOXING
HARMON, CLAUDE See GOLF
HARNEY, PAUL See GOLF
HARRIS, PHIL See FOOTBALL—College
HARRIS, PHIL (BANDLEADER) See FOOTBALL—College
HARTACK, BILL See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HARTFORD, HUNTINGTON See RESORTS
HARTFORD, MRS. HUNTINGTON See HORSES
HARVARD U. See FOOTBALL—College; ROWING
HASS, CHRISTL See OLYMPICS
HATFIELD, KENNY See FOOTBALL—College
HAUGHTON, BILLY See HORSE RACING—Harness
HAVEMANN, ERNEST See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HAWAII See GOLF
HAYDEN, DOROTHY See BRIDGE
HAYDEN, STERLING See BOATS
HAYES, BOB See OLYMPICS; SPORTS; TRACK & FIELD
HAYES, WOODY See FOOTBALL—College
HAYWARD, CAROLYN See BULLFIGHTING
HAZELTINE, MATT See GOLF
HAZZARD, WALT See BASKETBALL—Professional
HEALTH See RESORTS
HEART See PHYSICAL FITNESS
HEBERT, F. EDWARD See GOLF
HEBERT, JAY See GOLF
HEBERT, LIONEL See GOLF
HECHT, MRS. MARY B. See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HEILMAN, BARBARA See LA FONTAINE, BARBARA
HEINSOHN, TOMMY See BASKETBALL—Professional
HEINTZELMAN, JOSEPHINE See FOOTBALL—Professional
HELDMAN, GLADYS See TENNIS
HEMINGWAY, ERNEST See FISH & FISHING
HENDRIKS, JACKIE See GOLF
HENS See BIRDS
HERSHEY, PENNSYLVANIA See FOOTBALL
HERSKOWITZ, MICKEY See FOOTBALL—College
HERTZ CORPORATION See AUTOMOBILES
HERVEY, HERBERT, MARQUESS OF BRISTOL See BOATING
HERZOG, MAURICE See OLYMPICS; SKIING; SPORTS
HEUGA, JIMMY See OLYMPICS
HEWLETT, WALTER See TRACK & FIELD
HEYERDAHL, THOR See KHRUSHCHEV, NIKITA
HIALEAH RACE TRACK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HICKS, HARRY See ARCHITECTURE
HIGASHIKUNI, NOBUHIKO See OLYMPICS
HIGGINS, ALICE See HORSE SHOWS
HIKING
Contending that people do not walk enough, former member of the German "Foundation of Walkers" Konrad Adenauer (quotes), 88, insists that if he were organizing a new political party he would make it the Pedestrian Party. 2 Mr 51
Still smarting from last year's blisters, Nevada's Governor Grant Sawyer, Press Officer Chris Schaller, Richard Ham and Robert Faiss veto suggestion that they begin another Bobby Kennedy-type 50-mile hike. 9 Mr 49
Democratic Nevada Governor Grant Sawyer challenges Republican Pennsylvania Governor William Scranton to a ten-mile walk to help Nevada celebrate 100th year of statehood. 4 My 78
Queen Elizabeth's consultant Sir Arthur Porritt wins special 100-yard walking race for physicians while Dr. Roger Bannister, the first man to run a four minute mile, placed last. 13 Jl 46
U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas (quoted) led 160 people on a three-day, 15-mile hike to protest a planned beachfront highway on Washington's Olympic Peninsula. 31 Ag 54
The Strollers. Charles Eversole, with his 18-year-old son and their beagle, hiked the entire 2,000-mile length of the Appalachian Trail from Georgia to Maine, only to have feat duplicated by 76-year-old Mrs. Emma Gatewood, who made trek for the third time. 28 S 16
HILL, BILLY See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HILL, GRAHAM See AUTOMOBILE RACING
HILL, JERRY See FOOTBALL—Professional
HILLERICH & BRADSBY See BASEBALL
HILL RISE (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HIROHITO, EMPEROR OF JAPAN See OLYMPICS
HIRT, AL See FOOTBALL—College
HOBBS, SIR JACK See CRICKET
HOBEAU FARMS See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HOCKEY
A Question of Honor. Robert Creamer discusses the problems of putting together an amateur ice hockey team to represent the U.S. in the Olympics; Bill Reichart (biopers, quoted, c.p., p.), captain of the 1964 Olympic squad spotlighted. 27 Ja 58-61
They Must Stay Mad To Win. Photo essay spotlights Chicago Black Hawks, NHL's leading team, fighting harder than ever to stay on top as other teams catch on to their new style of rough, tough hockey. p., cov. 3 F 10-15
Pope Paul VI granted the first Catholic priest to coach an Olympic hockey team a private audience and a chance to kiss the papal ring, despite the fact that Father David Bauer's team was also the first one from Canada ever to finish without a medal. 2 Mr 51
Howe: The Who, What and Why of the Red Wings. Mark Kram portrays Detroit Red Wings' Gordie Howe (biopers, p.) as hockey's best player. c.r., cov. 16 Mr 30-32, 37-38
Cosmonaut "Golden Eagle" Pavel Popovich reports as sportswriter that cosmonauts make better hockey players than ideologists as team of fellow spacemen defeat team from Young Communist League. 16 Mr 63
The Champions Who Had No Chance. Brody's column reviews NHL season's conclusion; Montreal Canadiens defy pre-season fourth-place prediction to defeat New York Rangers, take title with aid of has-been high-scorers Bernie Geoffrion, Jean Beliveau, other apparent misfits and rookies. p. 30 Mr 56-60
Toronto Maple Leafs won game to tie Stanley Cup series after Coach Punch Imlach took team to see film One Man's Way, the Norman Vincent Peale story, but effect wore off and Montreal surged ahead in next game. 13 Ap 103
How Do You Stop a Red Wing? Brody's column reports Toronto Maple Leafs' third straight Stanley Cup win over unlikely challenger, Detroit Red Wings, in seven-game NHL playoff. 4 My 89-95
New York Ranger Jacques Plante leaves New York to play on Montreal Nationals' lacrosse team, but job is only temporary, and Lacrosse Goalie Plante did not save many scores. 24 Ag 44
Turnabout. Longtime Lacrosse Player Jacques Plante, of hockey's New York Rangers joins Montreal lacrosse team in league revived by Bernard (Coco) Blanchard, quit one month before hockey season, causing slump in Montreal won-lost record. 5 O 17
Wispy And Worrying, But He Wins. Rex Lardner spotlights Roger Crozier (p.), goalie for the Detroit Red Wings, who, although filled with doubts about his ability, is one of the best goalies in the NHL. 23 N 81-82
Computer Talk. SI outlines performance of NHL-leading Montreal Canadiens, other teams in league's 22-year span; lists won-lost records, points for and against, Stanley Cup standings. 7 D 19
HODGE, PAUL See BRIDGE
HOFFA, JAMES See PHYSICAL FITNESS
HOGAN, BEN See GOLF
HOGG, QUINTIN See GREAT BRITAIN
HOLDEN, WILLIAM See HUNTING
HOLLAND, GERALD
See also FOOTBALL—Professional
Close-up on U. of Michigan Athletic Director Fritz Crisler. 3 F 22-27
Spotlights Jockey John Rotz. 23 Mr 24-36
HOLLAND, SPESSARD See FOOTBALL—College
HOLLOWBREAD, JOHN See SOCCER
HOLMES, SIR STEPHEN See PHYSICAL FITNESS
HOLT, VICTOR, JR. See BASKETBALL
HONDA (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
HOOD, TED See BOAT RACING
HOOVER, HERBERT See BASEBALL
HOPE, BOB See GOLF
HOPEFUL (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
HOPKIRK, PADDY See AUTOMOBILE RACING
HORN, HUSTON
See also BOXING; OLYMPICS
Describes the skiers at Snoqualmie Ski Area in Washington. 6 Ja 50-59
Profiles 54-year-old Sportsman John Stewart Day. 3 F 52-58
Reports on the Daytona 500 Stock Car Race. 2 Mr 26-31
Explores the world of jockeys. 8 Je 72-92
Reports on behind-the-scenes negotiations to move the Milwaukee Braves to Atlanta. 2 N 32-33, 66
Reveals growing trend away from holding season tickets to New York Giants games as a status symbol. 7 D 88-91
HORNBEIN, TOM See MOUNTAIN CLIMBING

HORNUNG, PAUL See FOOTBALL—Professional

HORSEBACK RIDING
Henry Arthur FitzRoy Somerset, 10th Duke of Beaufort is temporarily confined to bed for the treatment of lumps and bruises received while galloping over the Gloucester landscape. 20 Ap 47
Astronaut Scott Carpenter rides his new 12-year-old quarter horse, Shirley. 1 Je 63
Last of the radio Lone Rangers, Brace Beamer, still regularly saddles and rides the 26-year-old scion of his horse Silver, Silver's Pride, at his Michigan breeding ranch. 6 Jl 48

HORSEBALL
Another Russian Invention. Horseball, claimed to be a Russian invention, scores big success at Paris' Cercle La Gourmette-St. Maur. 16 Mr 9

HORSE RACING
See also GAMBLING

Harness

Greta Garbo picks six out of nine winners at New York's Roosevelt Raceway, but her total winnings amounted to only $26. 6 Ap 80
Famed Hanover Shoe Stables Head L. B. Sheppard, an old hand at picking winners, will be an official delegate to the Republican National Convention. 18 My 76
Ex-Yankee Baseball Player Phil Rizzuto becomes part owner of harness horse, Tepid Yankee, owned by another former Yankee Charles (King Kong) Keller. 8 Je 53
An Emperor in Harness. Mark Kram spotlights Harness Racing Trainer, Driver and Stable Owner Billy Haughton (biopers, p.); traces career in increasingly popular but underrated sport, examines Haughton's attempts to improve harness racing's image. 15 Je 44-54
Caldwell Kid's owner and usual driver Delaware's Attorney General David P. Buckson had to forgo driving his pacer in order to file entry for the gubernatorial race, but with a substitute driver Caldwell Kid won $1,400 at Liberty Bell Park. 22 Je 48
Here Comes Ayers. Trotter Ayers beats Speedy Count on Del Miller's new synthetic track (described). 6 Jl 13-14
Harness Driver George Sholty rides Wilt Chamberlain's (quoted) pacer, Rivaltime, to his fifth victory in five starts in Liberty Bell Park's Independence Pace. 6 Jl 48
Soprano Anna Moffo, after watching her horse, Fury Hanover, finish sixth in the $60,000 United Nations Trot at Yonkers, sympathetically comments on horses having their bad days and mistakenly notes that they are not allowed sex life until they have finished racing. 13 Jl 46
If It Moves, Said George, They'll Bet On It. Bob Ottum profiles legendary Criminal Lawyer George M. Levy (biopers), who gambled on success of harness racing to build Roosevelt Raceway; discusses difficulties with Kefauver investigation committee, damage to reputation, exoneration. c.d., p. 27 Jl 30-42
The Horse They Called Crazy. Ryan's column reports victory of former problem horse Ayres over Speedy Count in Yonkers Futurity; spotlights Ayres' Trainer John Simpson, who trained him during winter to overcome eccentricities. 3 Ag 52-55
The Russian Trot. Bill Fleming takes trotter, Apex Hanover, to Moscow to compete in the 10,000-ruble Stakes for Peace Trot; defeated Russians trade seven yearlings for Apex Hanover, force Fleming to bank part of winnings, spend the rest on Russian goods. 24 Ag 9-10
They All Are Aiming At Ayres. Robert A. Hackett reports preeminence of John Simpson's Ayres as Hambletonian favorite as Ayres wins over Speedy Count at Yonkers (p.). 24 Ag 51-52
The Scot, The Lad and Black-Market Blood. Pat Ryan reports on Roosevelt Raceway's $50,000 sixth International trotting race, won by Speedy Scot (p.), who defeated all the French bred foreign entries from which U.S. blood is by law excluded. 31 Ag 58-59
Hanover Shoe Farms' Lawrence B. Sheppard will leave for Moscow to pick out seven undesignated harness horses in trade for famed Apex Hanover. 7 S 86
The Winner From the Wrong Side of the Barn. Ryan's column reports Ayres' spectacular win of The Hambletonian after incognito warmup as other horse occupied Ayres' stall to distract fans. p. 14 S 54-56
Vicar Won on Three Legs. Pat Ryan reports win of Vicar Hanover from Billy Haughton's barn in harness racing's Little Brown Jug. p. 5 O 100-102

Thoroughbred

The U.S. Government taxes William du Pont Jr. $32,000, claiming his stud farm and steeplechase course is a hobby, but Willie, insisting the farm is a business, requests the Government return the tax money, minus the salaries of two professional fox hunters. 6 Ja 46
Too Many Twins. Hialeah Race Track and Sunshine Park officials are opposed to the twin double that will be part of the spring program at Gulfstream and Tropical Park. 10 F 13
A Derby Star Rises. Whitney Tower reports that Hill Rise's easy victory at the Santa Anita Derby makes him a strong early favorite for the Kentucky Derby. chart, p. 9 Mr 16-19
A Touch of Gold in the Saddle. Gerald Holland takeout with photos by Frank Zagarino spotlights Jockey John Rotz. Slow 1964 start develops into possible bumper year as Rotz jumps from last place to second in earnings; Holland interviews stable hands, trainers, agents, p. 23 Mr 24-36
Gambling For The Yankee Dollar. Robert Cantwell hails passing of lottery referendum in New Hampshire. Law provides for September's Sweepstakes, successful through efforts of Originator Representative Laurence Pickett (p.), Governor John King, Sweepstakes Commission Director Edward Powell (p.). 30 Mr 24-29
The Dreyfus Case. Joe David Brown spotlights Wall Street Millionaire Jack Dreyfus Jr., who turned $7000 race-horse investment into highly successful Hobeau Farms; success stems from original purchase, Beau Gar, and combination of self-made luck and investment genius; Dreyfus' career in mutual funds and racing career of favorite horse, Beau Purple, outlined. p., cartoon. 30 Mr 62-72
Point of Fact. Lynn Simross presents quiz on New York's Wood Memorial horse race. 13 Ap 6
The Dancer, The Scoundrel—And Mr. Moon. Whitney Tower reports on Kentucky Derby co-favorite (with Hill Rise) Northern Dancer's Florida Derby win (p.) over The Scoundrel. William Leggett points out rise of Mr. Moonlight and Quadrangle as Derby contenders. p. 13 Ap 24-27
Big Risk For Pipe Smokers. Ernest Havemann examines annual ritual of Kentucky Club Pipe Tobacco's colt-naming contest, in which winners of the thoroughbreds are notoriously unlucky in racing them. Several winners' stories related. Drawings by Robert Velde. c.d. 13 Ap 32-34, 37
The Tyranny of the Little Men. Whitney Tower reveals intrigue involved in picking jockeys for Kentucky Derby mounts, outlines last minute negotiations among jockeys, agents, owners and trainers; photodiagram. 27 Ap 28-29
Fashion Designer Gabrielle (Coco) Chanel (quotes) is delighted by the victory of her 3-year-old filly Romantica, but even more pleased with the effect of the shocking red colors worn by her Jockey Yves Saint-Martin. 20 Ap 47
Quadrangle Fits Nicely In a Racing Oval. Quadrangle wins Wood Memorial at Aqueduct (p.) with Bill Hartack up, becomes Kentucky Derby threat. Tower's column outlines horse's career. 27 Ap 66-68, 70
Their Hats Are In The Ring. Whitney Tower previews Kentucky Derby and front runners Hill Rise, Northern Dancer, The Scoundrel and Quadrangle; discusses respective owners, George Pope, E. P. Taylor, Rex Ellsworth and Paul Mellon (p.), prospects for each horse. cov. 4 My 26-28
Derby Horses On The Road to Churchill Downs. Photos follow recent trials and wins of Kentucky Derby contenders; Hill Rise, Wil Rad and Real Good Deal at Santa Anita, Quadrangle loses to Ky. Pioneer at Hialeah, Northern Dancer wins with Willie Shoemaker up, Roman Brother wins Everglades, Hill Rise wins Santa Anita Derby, Northern Dancer beats The Scoundrel in the Florida Derby. c.p. 4 My 29-32
The Continental Touch of Señor Horatio Luro. Alfred Wright profiles Northern Dancer's Trainer Horatio Luro. p. 4 My 33-35
Queen Elizabeth's 4-year-old gelding, Gold Aura, wins $7,260 at Epsom on Queen's 38th birthday. 4 My 78
Taps And Boots And Saddles. Famed Jockey and major figure in international horse racing for more than two decades, W. Rae Johnstone (brief biopers) dies at the age of 59 after suffering a heart attack at Le Tremblay race track. 11 My 18
The Dancer Dazzles Old Kentucky. Whitney Tower reports on Kentucky Derby won by Canadian bred Northern Dancer ridden by Bill Hartack; problems encountered by Willie Shoemaker riding Hill Rise discussed. p. 11 My 22-27
One thousand guests on their way to the Kentucky Derby stop at the home of Governor Edward Breathitt for breakfast. 11 My 62
Three For the Triple Crown. Whitney Tower reports on Northern Dancer's Preakness victory, the second leg of the Triple Crown, a result of precision teamwork between Trainer Horatio Luro and Jockey Bill Hartack. p. 25 My 26-29
Horses, Horses, Dogs, Dogs. "Staid" New England offers total of 51 horse and dog races scheduled at four tracks for Memorial Day. 1 Je 14
Caveat. The Scoundrel is forced to cancel his engagements in the Jersey Derby and Belmont Stakes after suffering an injury at Garden State just a few days after Rex Ellsworth sold him to Kjell Qvale for $500,000; adjustment between the two men noted. 8 Je 20, 23
One More To Make It Nine. Whitney Tower reports on Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Northern Dancer, who if victorious in the Belmont Stakes will become the eighth horse in 46 years to win thoroughbred racing's Triple Crown. Triple Crown winners, p., cov. 8 Je 30-31
It's The World's Favorite Sport The Horse Race. Preview of special section on horse racing. r. 8 Je 32-33
Here The Sport Is Going Sour. Horse Breeder, Owner and Trainer E. Barry Ryan (p.) with Whitney Tower attacks racing trends in U.S., spotlighting markets for bad horses, financial interest in U.S., state offered bonuses, track management problems, stall shortage, problems with trainers, exercise boys and grooms. p. 8 Je 34-38
It's Not A Sport It's A Business. Patricia Ryan profiles the nation's most successful Horse Trainer, Howard (Buddy) Jacobson (p.), who considers horse racing a business rather than a sport and last year led all trainers with 140 winners. Chart analyzes two typical weeks of racing and claiming activity by Jacobson. 8 Je 41-43
The Most Beautiful Racetrack In The World. Jerry Cook's picture portfolio focuses on Chantilly, the seat of classical French racing since 1830. c.p. 8 Je 44-51
The Men They Call Boys. Huston Horn explores the world of jockeys, spotlighting weight problems, income and expenses, education, apprentice and beginning riders. c.d., cov. 8 Je 72-92
Something in a Name. English Turf Commissioner Billy Hill opens his future book the day before the recent Derby to reveal a loss of $310,814 because of victory of the favorite, Santa Claus, whose name caught the public fancy. 15 Je 20
Taken For a Virginia Reel. Whitney Tower reports Canada's Triple Crown hopes dashed as Quadrangle wins Belmont Stakes, favorite Northern Dancer places third behind Roman Brother; discusses reactions of owners, trainers, winning Jockey Manuel Ycaza. p. 15 Je 30-31
Big Draw In A Little State. Robert Cantwell reports on first drawing of tickets in New Hampshire Sweepstakes; other states may start lotteries, but are unlikely to catch up with the New Hampshire race as an institution. p. 27 Jl 20-21
Old Movie Plot. Young Chicagoan Al Cox bought 8-year-old gelding, Excalibur 2nd, entered horse in claiming race at Cincinnati's River Downs; Excalibur won race at 19 to 1, paid $1,348.20 in daily double, in which Cox had a ticket. 3 Ag 6
Jockey Willie Shoemaker quoted on his wife, Babs, being allergic to horses. 10 Ag 48
Old Hat Sports Some New Stuff. Whitney Tower spotlights Stanley Conrad's first stake winner, 5-year-old mare Old Hat (p.), who won the prestigeous Delaware Handicap, worth $121,930. 10 Ag 56
Drake's Drum, owned by Beatle Paul McCartney, wins race at Yorkshire's Ripon track, pays off at 2 to 1. 17 Ag 63
2, 4, 6, 8, Who Do We Depreciate? Tower's horse racing column reports emergence of Whitney Stakes winner, Gun Bow, who was bought by syndication for $1 million; explains depreciation values of racing and breeding horses, possibility of further successful career for Gun Bow in racing. p. 24 Ag 45-46
Quadrangle Splashes Ahead. Whitney Tower reports on the 95th running of the Travers at Saratoga, won by Quadrangle (p.) with Manuel Ycaza (quoted) up. Quadrangle may become 1964's 3-year-old champion. 31 Ag 60-62
It Was Sire and Son Day at Saratoga. Tower's horse racing column reports victory of Bold Lad, son of Bold Ruler, in Saratoga Hopeful; feat makes Bold Lad early 1965 Kentucky Derby favorite; other coming 2-year-olds discussed. 7 S 92-95
Mrs. Mac and Jimmy. First woman in North America to receive Thoroughbred trainer's license, Mrs. Jessie MacKenzie, dies at 91; career with famous horse, Jimmy Rogan, outlined. 14 S 9
The Protruding Proboscis. Whitney Tower reports on the Woodward Stakes won by Gun Bow, who raced to a photo finish with Kelso. p. 12 O 68-70
A Question of Color. France and the U.S. each have a thoroughbred white horse; after much skepticism, Mont Blanc has been registered in the official French stud book and The Jockey Club admitted White Beauty to Thoroughbred society. 2 N 16
The Watchers of the Race. Photos by Jerry Cooke focus on horse race fans around the world. p. 9 N 26-33
Let's Imitate the Japanese. After a wooden barn at Laurel racetrack burned, killing 34 horses, Laurel President John Schapiro said new barn would be constructed of fire-resistant wood. 16 N 13
The Judge They Have To Tell It To. Ernest Havemann spotlights Veteran Track Steward

George Schilling (biopers, p.) of Caliente racetrack, outlines many horse racing innovations for which he was responsible, such as racetrack public address systems. 16 N 38-52
A Triumph For Nonconformists. Whitney Tower spotlights Mrs. Mary B. Hecht's (p.) Sadair, winner of the $301,700 Garden State Stakes and a 1965 Kentucky Derby hopeful. Chart estimates odds on and shows blood line of the 36 leading Derby candidates. 23 N 28-29
Concert Pianist Sir Francis Cassel's racehorse, Raphael, has habit of diving into Thames River when racing at Windsor; Cassel entered Raphael in a hurdle event at Birmingham, where there is no water, and the horse won. 21 D 70

HORSES
See also HORSE RACING; HORSE SHOWS
Mrs. Victor Du Pont wins barrel racing event in quarter horse jamboree near Middleburg, Va. 15 Je 57
Yearling filly and colt, Lady Bird and Lynden, are registered by the Canadian Standardbred Horse Society. 3 Ag 46
Eldest daughter of Mrs. S. Braley Gray, of the Old Town, Me. canoe-building Grays, won the top prize at Canada's National Pony Club Rally. 17 Ag 63
Furman University's Football Coach Bob King is searching for purple and white horse to match school colors. 7 S 86
TV Quizmaster Merv Griffin has used up four cases of champagne in apology to neighbor for damage to his cornfield by Griffin's quarter horses. 7 S 86
Bet on the Trappists. Kentucky Spendthrift Farm's Leslie Combs II, having difficulty with secrecy of special vitamin-filled pellets for horses, enlists Trappist monastery to produce alfalfa pellets for his formula. c.d. 5 O 17-18
Mrs. Huntington Hartford's horse Briar Patch has blue carpeted stall in Madison Square Garden's basement. 30 N 54

HORSE SHOWS
Flight of a White Stallion. Fred Ward photos depict grandeur, intricate maneuvers of famed Lipizzan horses of Vienna's Spanish Riding School at Philadelphia's opening of unprecedented U.S.-Canadian tour. p. 27 Ap 30-32, 37
The Day the Jumping Stopped and the Revolt Began. Alice Higgins' horse shows column reports Pennsylvania Main Line's Devon Horse Show which erupted into a riot as exhibitors were arbitrarily disqualified by AHSA officials in literal and picayune compliance with rules; Colony Farms Owner Ben O'Meara arrested for cruelty to horses, may be barred from all future shows. 15 Je 69-72
Six-year-old Caroline Kennedy (p.) rode her pony Macaroni to a sixth-place ribbon in a 4-H Club horse show while her 13-year-old cousin Kathleen Kennedy emerged with a second, three thirds and a fourth place ribbon. 10 Ag 48
Untouchable And Inaudible. Alice Higgins reports on the New York National Horse Show, won by Untouchable; inaudible announcing of Otis Trowbridge (p.) discussed. 23 N 86-87

HORTON, EDWARD EVERETT See TENNIS
HOTELS See GOLF
HOUK, RALPH See SPORTSCASTERS
HOUSES & HOUSING See ARCHITECTURE
HOUSTON, TEXAS See BASEBALL
HOUSTON, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
HOUSTON COLT .45S See BASEBALL
HOUSTON OILERS See FOOTBALL—Professional
HOWARD, FRANK See BASEBALL
HOWARD U. See ROWING
HOWE, GORDIE See HOCKEY
HUARTE, JOHNNY See FOOTBALL—College
HUDSON RIVER See CONSERVATION; RIVERS
HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY See TRAVEL
HULSEY, ANDREW See FISH & FISHING
HUMPHREY, HUBERT See BASEBALL
HUNT, MRS. LAMAR See FOOTBALL—Professional
HUNT, RON See BASEBALL
HUNTER, JESSE COLEMAN, JR. See CONSERVATION

HUNTING
California Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown (p.), who has always opposed the death penalty for humans, but not for ducks and geese, hunts on the Wallace Lynn ranch with Chief Justice Earl Warren (p.); they bag 12 birds each. 6 Ja 46
University of Arkansas Football Player Jim John quoted on how he brought down an eight-point buck with his bare hands, after failing nine times to kill it with buckshot, in his first try at deer hunting. 20 Ja 43
Football's Joe Foss, TV's Robert Stack and ABC-TV President Tom Moore join William Holden to hunt in Africa. 17 F 44
Rattling for Tourists in Northern Florida. O'Reilly's hunting column tells how competitive rattlesnake hunting reaches season's peak with Chipley, Fla's National Rattlesnake Rodeo. Citizens of host city are split over publicizing town as rattlesnake capital of world. Hunting methods, dangers discussed, history of rodeo outlined. p. 13 Ap 95-100
Retired General Nathan F. Twining, Congressman Robert Sikes, Financier Edward Ball and Alcoa Vice President R. A. Learnard are arrested by Alabama game warden for shooting over a baited field; General Curtis LeMay quoted on mental alertness. 4 My 78
Nikita Khrushchev's son, Sergei, sees favorite movie, How the West Was Won while touring London factories with a trade delegation, but is unable to pursue favorite sport, butterfly hunting. 18 My 76
AFL Commissioner Joe Foss' recent golf score of 31 for the first hole should be a harbinger for Africa's wild game not to be afraid when he turns up there soon to hunt. 8 Je 53
Spelling Bee. With birth of ibex twins, Albuquerque Zoo now has five ibexes, eight oryxes and eight kudus offering orthographical complication for plurals; federal law prohibits releasing of rare beasts in the wilds, but does not apply to offspring; twins may provide for eventual public hunting. 15 Je 18
Owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers Walter O'Malley joins Tenor Lauritz Melchior on safari to arctic Norway. 22 Je 48
Walter Hunts In Earnest. Photos by Peter O'Malley show father Walter, owner of L.A. Dodgers, with African wildlife he killed on safari after team's 4-straight World Series victory in 1963. p. 20 Jl 20-21
The Botch on the Rhine. German Hunters Adolf Jochem and Herbert Stampp shoot it out with what they thought were five poaching bums; five turned out to be American GIs on field maneuvers. 27 Jl 11
AFL Commissioner Joe Foss and friend, Actor Bob Stack, traveled to Kenya jungle for hunting, emerged with an elephant, a Cape buffalo, a lion and an assortment of other animals. 14 S 45
Former British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan starts shooting season on estate of Lord Swinton, party fails to flush a single bird. 14 S 45
Sounds and Hounds of a Texas Wolf Hunt. Jack Olsen describes his experiences in South Central Texas while wolf hunting with Earl Needham; with Francis Golden drawings explains habits, cunning of single remaining species of red wolf; training and importance of hounds. c.d. 14 S 66-74
Hippity Hop And Away We Go. Virginia Kraft's humorous account outlines method of rabbit hunting on San Juan Island in Washington's Puget Sound; describes types of prolific rabbits, reasons for huge bunny population. c.d. 28 S 40-56
Where The Antelope Play. Bill Shields' paintings with takeout by Duncan Barnes portray some of the unforgettable moments of an antelope hunt in Montana; how and where to hunt antelope discussed. c.r. 12 O 46-54
Massachusetts Governor Endicott Peabody bagged water-fowl limit of ducks during first attempt at duck shooting, then downed a cock pheasant, a partridge and a brace of woodcock. 19 O 62
Buffalo Bill Was A Piker. Harold Peterson reports largest buffalo hunt in 81 years as Bud Basolo decimates his huge herd to facilitate better breeding; outlines decline of buffalo in U.S., steps taken to restore animals. p. 19 O 76-81
Charles de Gaulle, a once accomplished sportsman, now limits himself to heckling guests at annual hunt on his Rambouillet estate where this year U.S. Ambassador Charles Bohlen received the least presidential backtalk since he bagged the most birds, a sharp contrast to Russia's Sergei Vinogradov, who failed to bag anything. 9 N 47
Britain's recently deposed Foreign Secretary Tory Richard Austen Butler takes aim at a pheasant at his farm in Blackmore End, Essex while Mrs. Butler takes shelter behind a blind. p. 9 N 47
Beastly Place For A Hunt. Jack Olsen discusses the unexplored interior jungles and rivers of Surinam, the new hunting-and-fishing frontier for those with cash and raw courage; Surinam style hunt, various types of wildlife to be bagged. c.d. 9 N 62-66, 71-74
Duck Shooting On Maine's Icy Ledges. Duncan Barnes spotlights Maine duck guide Captain Ransom Pingree Kelley (p.), who, on his excursion boat, makes eider hunting as comfortable and rewarding as possible for himself and his passengers. 30 N 74-76
The Rancher's Friend. Osceola (Fla.) County Sheriff Bob Buckles discovers law permitting him to confiscate weapons of deer hunters who kill cattle; this year the toll of cattle casualties is very low. 7 D 19-20
Cree of the Wild Goose. Maryland goose hunters rave over Cree Indian guides for hunting. 7 D 23
During Thanksgiving Day visit to Millionaire Cyrus Eaton's Ohio farm, Sergei Mikoyan assures world that Nikita Khrushchev did not disappear, but lives 15 miles outside Moscow and spends time hunting. 7 D 83
Portuguese President Americo de Déus Rodrigues Tomás and U.S. Air Force Chief of Staff Curtis LeMay shoot partridges in Spain with Generalissimo Francisco Franco. 7 D 83
New Mexico Governor Jack Campbell notes that he is really a fisherman after his departure from one day of elk hunting in the sub-zero temperature of Pecos Wilderness Area. 14 D 49
Colorado Governor John Love caught or shot all the wild game served at a dinner for 19 Republican governors and governors-elect. 21 D 70
New rulers of Luxembourg and Saudi Arabia, Grand Duke Jean of Luxembourg, and Feisal Ibn Abdul Aziz al Saud are both fond of hunting. 21 D 70

HUSSEIN, KING OF JORDAN
King Hussein, in U.S. to dedicate Jordan's World's Fair pavilion, visits A. J. Foyt at John W. Mecom's Zapata, Texas, ranch, water skis (p.) at Florida's Cypress Gardens, waltzes with Lady Bird Johnson at White House. 4 My 78
Comments on his air force and Jordan's great tourist potential, after his planes chased away two Israeli pilots who flew over Aquaba to see the water carnival. 26 O 59

HUSTON, JOHN See IRELAND
HUXLEY, SUSAN See ANIMALS
HYMAN, MERVIN
See also BASKETBALL
Compiles weekly college football results: 28 S 65-66, 71; 5 O 74-76; 12 O 59-60; 19 O 68-70; 26 O 61-62; 2 N 55-59; 9 N 49-52; 16 N 66-68; 23 N 74, 76, 78; 30 N 67-68; 7 D 84-87.

I

IACAVAZZI, COSMO See FOOTBALL—College
IBA, HANK See BASKETBALL
ICE SKATING See OLYMPICS
IKEDA, NORIKO See OLYMPICS
IKEDA, SACHIKO See OLYMPICS
ILLINOIS, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
ILONA (CHILD) See SPORTS
IMLACH, PUNCH See HOCKEY
INDIANAPOLIS "500" See AUTOMOBILE RACING
INDIANA U. See SWIMMING
INDIANS See HUNTING
INDONESIA See BADMINTON
INJURIES See ACCIDENTS; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
INNSBRUCK, AUSTRIA See OLYMPICS
INSECTS See ANIMALS

INTEGRATION
See also NEGROES
The Race Problem at Howard Is How to Win. Hugh Whall's rowing column features fast-improving Howard University crew team, the first Negro college to crash the ranks of college racing; white Coach Stuart Law, a George Washington University Law Professor, runs practice sessions. 27 Ap 72, 75
Faith or Works. SI defends San Francisco Giants Manager Alvin Dark, accused by columnist of saying that Latin American and Negro ballplayers lacked mental alertness of white players. 17 Ag 7
Dirty Pool. San Diego Chargers sustain second loss in history of its exhibition games after racial incident in Atlanta's Hilton Inn, owned by Barron Hilton; Hilton also owns Chargers. 7 S 19
Reverse Play. Frankfort, Ky. Halfback Barry Moore chooses hometown's 95%-Negro Kentucky State College, is only white player on football team; Moore (quoted) tells of experience in first game. 19 O 17
Warren McVea Goes Thisaway And Thataway. Mickey Herskowitz profiles Warren McVea (p.), the U. of Houston's first Negro football player, who turned out to be the best field runner on the team. 9 N 48-49

INTER-CONTINENTAL PROMOTIONS, INC. See BOXING
INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE See BOXING
INTERNATIONAL BACKGAMMON TOURNAMENT See BACKGAMMON
INTERNATIONAL TROTTING RACE See HORSE RACING—Harness
INTERZONAL CHESS TOURNAMENT See CHESS
INVENTIONS See FISH & FISHING; SPORTS; WATER SKIING
IRELAND, GEORGE See BASKETBALL—College

IRELAND
Movieman John Huston, who has been living in Ireland the last 12 years, gives up U.S. passport in return for an Irish one. 13 Ja 38
IRENE, PRINCESS OF NETHERLANDS See SKIING; TENNIS
IRZYK, ALBIN F. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

ISLANDS
The Amphibious Resorts. Coles Phinizy takeout on the unspoiled Caribbean island called Marina Cay, one of the Virgin Islands, and its proprietor, Allan Batham (brief biopers, p.): swimming, snorkeling, scuba diving, sailing, and fishing are the only sports available to tourists. c.p. 20 Ja 22-29
Sneakers And Snorkels. Fred R. Smith's travel facts and map of the Caribbean show beginning and experienced skin divers, scuba divers where to find the best guides, gear, fish, reefs and wrecks. c.map, c.d. 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

ISOMETRIC CONTRACTION See PHYSICAL FITNESS

ITALY See OLYMPICS; RESORTS

IVY, FRANK L. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

J

JACKSON, C. D. See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

JACKSON, TOMMY (HURRICANE) See BOXING

JACOBS, JIM See BOXING

JACOBS, TOMMY See GOLF

JACOBSON, HOWARD See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

JAGUAR (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING

JAMAICA See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

JAMES, JOE See WRESTLING

JAMES, SIDNEY L. See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

JANSCO, GEORGE See BILLIARDS

JANSCO, PAUL See BILLIARDS

JAPAN
See also OLYMPICS
Adding to the festivities of their Olympic year, Japan's Emperor and Empress announce the "arrangement" of a marriage between their No. 2 son, Prince Yoshi, and a commoner named Hanako Tsurgaru, who is "an all-round athlete." Meanwhile, with an eye on the future Olympics, No. 1 son, Crown Prince Akihito, was busily tutoring 4-year-old Prince Hiro in Indian wrestling. p. 2 Mr 51
Driven Beyond Dignity. Eric Whitehead chronicles rigors of tortuous practice during typical day with Japan's unbeaten world champion Nichibo Kaizuka women's volleyball team. p. 16 Mr 16-19
Sugar Daddy With A Bongo Beat. Lee Griggs and Raphael Delgado Lozano boxing column spotlights Cuban World Featherweight Champion Urtiminio (Sugar) Ramos (biopers, p.), who foregoes nightlife in Tokyo to train for defense of title against Orient Featherweight Titleholder Mitsunori Seki. 16 Mr 66-67
The Spectacular Playground In Toyko's Backyard. Photo essay spotlights Japan's 366 square mile Hakone National Park. p. 31 Ag 20-25

J BOATS See BOATS

JEAN, GRAND DUKE OF LUXEMBOURG See HUNTING

JEFFRIES, LIONEL See BOATS

JENKINS, DAN
See also FOOTBALL—College; GOLF; OLYMPICS
Discusses the World Bridge Oympiad. 25 My 78-82
Spotlights Green Bay Packer Paul Hornung. 30 N 30-32, 35

JENSEN, LEO See ART

JENSEN, PAT See ART

JENSON, MARV See BOXING

JERSTAD, LUTE See MOUNTAIN CLIMBING

JESSEL, GEORGE See YOUTH

JIMMY ROGAN (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

JOCKEYS See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

JOHANSSON, INGEMAR See BOXING; CONTESTS

JOHN, JIM See HUNTING

JOHNSON, DERON See BASEBALL

JOHNSON, GUS See BASKETBALL—Professional

JOHNSON, LUCI BAINES See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.

JOHNSON, LYNDA BIRD See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.

JOHNSON LYNDON B.
See also CONSERVATION
Secret Service agents thwart President's efforts to shoot a deer for Ludwig Erhard's breakfast, but Johnson finally succeeds after threatening to blow out front tire of Secret Service car. 6 Ja 46
Associated Press selects U. of Texas sophomore Lynda Bird Johnson to present the NFL trophy to Darrell Royal's undefeated Texas team. 6 Ja 46
As tennis' Chuck McKinley, Dennis Ralston and Mrs. Pauline Betz Addie visit White House, President's unfamiliarity with his new home becomes apparent when asked whether a tennis court is on the grounds. 27 Ja 65
Sports minded Warrie Lynn Smith, the Texas coed who lives at the White House and attends George Washington University with Lynda Bird Johnson, may reactivate the neglected putting green and tennis court. 3 F 46
When Broadcasting Executive Leonard Goldenson excused himself from joining a preluncheon swim in the basement pool of the White House because he didn't have a bathing suit, Johnson informed him that they usually swim bare. 17 F 44
Pitcher Whitey Ford makes fifth place in Arthur Murray's list of the top 10 ballroom dancers in the U.S. No. 1 is President Johnson. 30 Mr 49
President tries out old Eisenhower hangout—the Burning Tree Golf Club—playing four times in ten days, proves to be a strong but inaccurate hitter. 27 Ap 64
Sons of New York's Mayor, Duncan and Bob Wagner Jr., visit Luci Baines and Lynda Bird Johnson in Washington: speculation on mayor's Vice-Presidential candidacy. 17 Ag 63
Lady Bird Johnson turns out to be the best game spotter on a guided tour down Wyoming's Snake River with a party of 17, including Interior Secretary Stewart Udall. p. 31 Ag 54

JOHNSON, MRS. LYNDON (LADY BIRD) See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.

JOHNSON, RAFER See BASKETBALL

JOHNSTONE, W. RAE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

JONES, K. C. See BASKETBALL—Professional

JONES, PARNELLI See AUTOMOBILE RACING

JONES, SHIRLEY See BOATS

JONES, WALLY See BASKETBALL—College

JORDAN, ROBERT See BRIDGE

JOSEPHSON, LESTER See FOOTBALL—Professional

JUDO
Shakespearean Director Allen Fletcher comments on Jacqueline Brookes, Philip Bosco and 24 other members of his Stratford, Connecticut troupe taking judo lessons. 9 Mr 49

JUNGLES See HUNTING

K

KADAR, JANOS See KHRUSHCHEV, NIKITA

KAHANAMOKU, DUKE See SWIMMING

KAHN, E. J., JR. See TENNIS

KALINE, AL See BASEBALL

KANE, MARTIN See FISH & FISHING; WRESTLING

KANKKONEN, VEIKKO See OLYMPICS

KANSAS, U. OF See ATHLETES; BASKETBALL—College

KANSAS CITY ATHLETICS See BASEBALL

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS See FOOTBALL—Professional

KANSAS STATE U. See BASKETBALL—College

KAPLAN, MURIEL See BRIDGE

KARL, LARRY See ACCIDENTS

KARRAS, ALEX See FOOTBALL—Professional

KAUNDA, KENNETH See SOCCER

KEANE, JOHNNY See BASEBALL

KEARNS, JACK (DOC) See BOXING

KEATING, KENNETH See BASEBALL; FISH & FISHING

KEEHN, GRANT See PHYSICAL FITNESS

KELLEHER, BOB See TENNIS

KELLER, CHARLES (KING KONG) See HORSE RACING—Harness

KELLEY, RANSON PINGREE See HUNTING

KELLY, JACK See ADVERTISING

KELLY, JACK (BOYS TOWN MAYOR) See FOOTBALL

KELSO (HORSE) See ART; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

KEMMERER, RUSS See BASEBALL

KEMP, JACK See FOOTBALL—Professional

KEMPNER, ALICIA See BRIDGE

KEMPNER, MARY JEAN See DOGS

KEMPTON, MURRAY See BOXING

KENNEDY, CAROLINE See HORSE SHOWS; SKIING

KENNEDY, EDWARD M. See BASEBALL; SKIING

KENNEDY, JACQUELINE See SKIING; TENNIS

KENNEDY, JOHN F. See FOOTBALL—College

KENNEDY, JOHN F., JR. See SKIING

KENNEDY, KATHLEEN See HORSE SHOWS

KENNEDY, ROBERT
See also BASEBALL; SKIING
A Bold Proposal For American Sport. Attorney General Kennedy outlines importance of American prestige in sport during an Olympic year, proposes steps to be taken, including government role, in improving national participation in all amateur sport. p. 27 Jl 12-15
Senator-elect Kennedy, with sons Joseph, David and Bobby Jr. and daughter Kathleen, attends Army-Navy football game in Philadelphia's newly named John F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium. p. 7 D 83

KENTUCKY, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College; FOOTBALL—College

KENTUCKY CLUB TOBACCO CO. See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

KENTUCKY DERBY See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

KENTUCKY PIONEER (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

KENTUCKY STATE COLLEGE See INTEGRATION

KERR, SIR HAMILTON See PHYSICAL FITNESS

KHANH, NGUYEN See BEACHES

KHRUSHCHEV, NIKITA
See also CUBA; HUNTING; SPORTS; TRAP-SHOOTING
Khrushchev examines teeth of lead stallion in gift of five stallions with coach presented by Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar. 13 Ap 103
Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser entertains visiting Khrushchev and others on fishing party on a United Arab Republic navy yacht. 1 Je 63
Khrushchev offers his services as a cook to Norwegian Explorer Thor Heyerdahl on his next expedition aboard the Kon-Tiki. 13 Jl 46
Khrushchev, after hitting six out of six clay pigeons, offered his gun to visiting Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio, who excused himself and designated his ambassador, Manai Sophiaan, to substitute for him: Sophiaan was not able to hit a single pigeon. 10 Ag 48

KHRUSHCHEV, SERGEI See HUNTING

KIALOA II (BOAT) See BOAT RACING

KIDD, BILLY See OLYMPICS

KID GALAHAD, INC. See BOXING

KILGALLEN, DOROTHY See BASEBALL

KILIUS, MARIKA See OLYMPICS

KILROY, JOHN B. See BOAT RACING

KING, BOB See HORSES

KING, JOHN LORD See ARCHITECTURE

KING, TEDDY See CRIME

KIPLING, RUDYARD See SWIMMING

KIRK, COOPER See BOXING

KITES See PHOTOGRAPHY

KLEIN, ERWIN See TABLE TENNIS

KOOTENAY RIVER See RIVERS

KOSYGIN, ALEXEI See SPORTS; TRAP-SHOOTING

KOUFAX, SANDY See BASEBALL; SPORTS

KRAFT, JACK See BASKETBALL—College

KRAFT, VIRGINIA See CONSERVATION; FISH & FISHING; HUNTING

KRAM, MARK
See also BASEBALL; HOCKEY
Spotlights Harness Racing Trainer, Driver and Stable Owner Billy Haughton. 15 Je 44-54
Profiles Drag Racer Don Garlits. 31 Ag 26-34
Examines moods of Sonny Liston as he trains to fight with Cassius Clay. 2 N 34-42
Profiles Baltimore Bullets' Gus Johnson. 21 D 60-63

KRAMER, BARRY See BASKETBALL—Professional

KRAMER, JACK See TENNIS

KRAMER, JERRY See FOOTBALL—Professional

KRAUSE, EDWIN B. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

KRAUSS, DONALD See BRIDGE

KREGER, HENRY L. F. See ROWING 20 Jl 38

KURREWA V (BOAT) See BOAT RACING

L

LACROIX, LEO See OLYMPICS

LACROSSE
See also HOCKEY
Federal Power Takes Over. Frank Deford reviews Army-Navy Lacrosse game, won by Navy for its fifth straight national championship. Origin of Lacrosse discussed. p. 8 Je 66-69

LADIES PROFESSIONAL GOLF ASSN. See GOLF

LADY BIRD (HORSE) See HORSES

LAFOLLETTE, ROBERT M., III See BOXING

LA FONTAINE, BARBARA (BARBARA HEILMAN)
See also RESORTS; TABLE TENNIS

Profiles Stock Car Racer Edward Glenn (Fireball) Roberts. 10 F 31-39
Profiles Tennis Player Gladys Heldman. 22 Je 38-40, 45-47
Spotlights Women Racing Drivers Pat Mernone and Pinkie Rollo. 24 Ag 20-21
Publisher spotlights SI Writer Barbara (Heilman) La Fontaine (p., career sketch). 2 N 4

LAGUERRE, ANDRE See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED
LAHR, DEAN See WRESTLING
LAINE, FRANKIE See FISH & FISHING
LAIRD, RON See OLYMPICS
LAKES See FISH & FISHING
LaMOTTA, JAKE See BOXING
LANDERS, ANN See GOLF
LAPCHICK, JOE See BASKETBALL—College
LA QUINTA GOLF COURSE See GOLF 13 Ja 26-37
LARDNER, REX See HOCKEY
LARKER, NORM See BASEBALL
LASSITER, LUTHER See BILLIARDS
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA See CARDS
LAUGHEAD, JIM See PHOTOGRAPHY
LAVALLE, JOHN See CROQUET
LAW, STUART See ROWING
LAW, VERNON See BASEBALL
LAWRENCE, ANDREA MEAD See SKIING
LAWRENCE, CAROL
Floyd Patterson is stuffed into a taxi cab by Robert Goulet, who wanted help in celebrating the birth of his first son, which Mrs. Goulet (Carol Lawrence) had delivered via natural childbirth. 14 D 49
LEARNARD, R. A. See HUNTING
LEATHER See CLOTHING
LEGGETT, WILLIAM
See also BASEBALL; SPORTS ILLUSTRATED
Reports that CBS-TV wins the 1964-65 television rights to the NFL's regular season games. 3 F 16-17
Points out rise of unheralded Mr. Moonlight and Quadrangle as Kentucky Derby contenders. 13 Ap 24-27
LEICESTER CITY (BRITISH SOCCER TEAM) See SOCCER
LEIFER, NEIL See BASEBALL; FOOTBALL—Professional
LEIGH, JANET See BROWN, EDMUND G. (PAT)
LEMA, TONY See GOLF
LE MANS (AUTOMOBILE RACE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
LEMASTER, DENNY See BASEBALL
LeMAY, CURTIS See HUNTING
LENGYEL, LEVENTE See CHESS
LEVENTRITT, PETER See BRIDGE
LEVY, GEORGE MORTON See HORSE RACING—Harness
LEWIS, MARLO See SKIING
LEWIS, STRANGLER See WRESTLING
LIBERTY BOWL See FOOTBALL—College
LIFEBOATS See BOAT RACING
LIGAS, FRANK See FISH & FISHING
LINCOLN, KEITH See FOOTBALL—Professional
LINDEMON, MIKE See ARCHERY
LINDGREN, GERRY See TRACK & FIELD
LINEN See CLOTHING
LINKLETTER, ART See SPORTS
LINZ, PHIL See BASEBALL
LIPIZZAN HORSES See HORSE SHOWS
LISTON, SONNY See BOXING; CRIME; NEGROES
LITTLE BROWN JUG (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Harness
LITVAK, ANATOLE See BOULES
LIVINGSTON, FRANK See BOAT RACING
LIVINGSTON, JOHN See BOAT RACING
LODGE, HENRY CABOT See BADMINTON; TABLE TENNIS
LOEB, HOWARD See FISH & FISHING
LOEB, JAMES, JR. See DOGS
LOMBARDI, VINCE See GOLF
LOMBARDO, GUY See BASEBALL
LONDON, JACK See BOATS
LONG, DALLAS See TRACK & FIELD
LONSDALE, EARL OF See AUTOMOBILES
LOONEY, DON See FOOTBALL—Professional
LOREN, SOPHIA See CARDS; SOCCER
LORICK, TONY See FOOTBALL—Professional
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA See SPORTSCASTERS
LOS ANGELES ANGELS See BASEBALL
LOS ANGELES COLISEUM See TRACK & FIELD
LOS ANGELES DODGERS See BASEBALL; SPORTSCASTERS
LOS ANGELES INVITATIONAL TRACK MEET See TRACK & FIELD
LOS ANGELES LAKERS See BASKETBALL—Professional
LOS ANGELES OPEN See GOLF
LOS ANGELES RAMS See FOOTBALL—Professional
LOS ANGELES TIMES GRAND PRIX See AUTOMOBILE RACING
LOTHRIDGE, BILLY See CONTESTS
LOTTERIES See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
LOTUS-FORD (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
LOUIS, JOE See BOXING; NEGROES
LOUIS, MRS. JOE See NEGROES
LOVE, JOHN See HUNTING
LOVELLETTE, CLYDE See TELEVISION
LOVESEY, JOHN
See also AUTOMOBILE RACING; BOAT RACING
Reports that Floyd Patterson decided to make boxing comeback in Sweden. 20 Ja 44-46
Closeup on Norway's world champion Ski Jumper Toralf Engan. 27 Ja 42-45
Spotlights U.S. Marathon Runner Buddy Edelen. 1 Je 40-45
Recounts the Wimbleton Tennis Championships. 13 Jl 22, 25
Spotlights Tony Lema, who scored his first major golf victory in the British Open. 20 Jl 16-19
Profiles Scotland's Olympic swimming hope, Bobby McGregor. 20 Jl 34-37
LOW, GEORGE See GOLF
LOYOLA U. See BASKETBALL—College
LUCAS, R. S. CLEMENT See BOATS
LUCE, HENRY R. See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED
LUDERS, BILL See BOAT RACING
LUGING See OLYMPICS
LUND, CHARLES See ROWING 20 Jl 38
LURO, HORATIO See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
LYCRA See CLOTHING
LYNDEN (HORSE) See HORSES
LYON, FRED See ARCHITECTURE 3 Ag 14-17; SKIING
LYTTELTON, OLIVER
1st Viscount Chandon comments on the future of leisure, man's struggle against nature. 13 Ja 38

M

MAALS RIVER See FISH & FISHING
MacARTHUR, DOUGLAS See AAU; BASEBALL
MacARTHUR, JOHN D. See GOLF
MacDONALD, DAVE See AUTOMOBILE RACING
MacDONALD, ROSS See BIRDS
MacDONALD, WILLIAM B., JR. See BOXING
MACHEN, EDDIE See BOXING
MacKENZIE, MRS. JESSIE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
MacLAINE, SHIRLEY See MOVIES
MACMILLAN, HAROLD See GAMES; HUNTING
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN See ARCHITECTURE
MAILER, NORMAN See BOXING
MAINBOCHER See CRIME
MAISEL, JAY See FOOTBALL—Professional
MALAGA, BOB See TENNIS
MALANGSFOSS (POOL) See FISH & FISHING
MANCHESTER UNITED (BRITISH SOCCER TEAM) See SOCCER
MANLEY, N. L. See GOLF
MANSFIELD, JAYNE See CLOTHING
MANTLE, MICKEY See ART; BASEBALL; CONTESTS
MANTYRANTA, EERO See SKIING
MAPS See AUTOMOBILES; TRAVEL
MARCH, APRIL See GOLF
MARCH, HAL See ACCIDENTS
MARGARET, PRINCESS OF GREAT BRITAIN See ACCIDENTS
MARCIANO, ROCKY See BOXING
MARGOLIS, SAM See BOXING
MARILES, HUMBERTO See ACCIDENTS
MARINA CAY (ISLAND) See ISLANDS
MARINO, AMERIGO See FOOTBALL—College
MARLBOROUGH, DUKE OF See CORQUET
MARR, DAVE See GOLF
MARSHALL, MARTY See BOXING
MARTIN, JEROME See ART
MASEFIELD, CHARLES See AVIATION
MASON, TOMMY See FOOTBALL—Professional
MASTERS GOLF TOURNAMENT See GOLF
MASTROIANNI, MARCELLO See BOXING
MATCH RACING See BOAT RACING
MATHE, LEW See BRIDGE
MATHIAS, BOB See ART
MATHIS, BUSTER See BOXING
MATHIS, JOHNNY See BASKETBALL
MATSON, RANDY See TRACK & FIELD
MATTE, TOM See FOOTBALL—Professional
MAULE, TEX See BOXING; FOOTBALL—Professional
MAXWELL, BILLY See GOLF
MAYE, LEE See BASEBALL
MAYO, JOSEPH See ANIMALS
MAYS, WILLIE See BASEBALL; BOXING
McCABE, CHARLES See SPORTS
McCALL, BETHEA See DOGS
McCARTER, JIM See BOXING
McCARTNEY, PAUL See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
McCARVER, TIM See BASEBALL
McCOLL, WILLIAM See FOOTBALL—Professional
McCORMACK, MARK H. See GOLF
McCORMACK, ROBERT M. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
McDANIEL, ED See FOOTBALL—Professional
McDERMOTT, TERRY See OLYMPICS
McDONALD, TOMMY See FOOTBALL—Professional
McGREGOR, BOBBY See SWIMMING
McGUIRE, FRANK See BASKETBALL—College
McINTIRE, BARBARA See GOLF
McINTOSH, DOUG See BASKETBALL—College
McKAY, GARDNER See BASKETBALL
McKAY, JOHN See FOOTBALL—College; GOLF
McKEITHEN, JOHN See FOOTBALL—College
McKENLEY, HERB See GOLF
McKINLEY, CHUCK See GOLF; TENNIS
McKINNEY, HORACE (BONES) See BASKETBALL—College
McMAHON, FRANKLIN See ART
McMAHON, JACK See BASKETBALL—Professional
McNALLY, ROGER EDWARD (GALLOWAY, T.) See CRIME
McNAMARA, ROBERT See MOUNTAIN CLIMBING; SKIING
McQUEEN, STEVE See MOTORCYCLE RACING
McVEA, WARREN See FOOTBALL—College
MEEK, RICHARD See BOAT RACING; BRIDGE
MELCHIOR, LAURITZ See HUNTING
MELLON, PAUL See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
MEMPHIS STATE U. See FOOTBALL—College
MERCEDES (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
MERCER, TOMMY See TRACK & FIELD
MERCHANT MARINE (NORWAY) See BOAT RACING
MERNONE, PATRICIA See AUTOMOBILE RACING
MESTA, PERLE See BASEBALL; BILLIARDS
METHOD, HAROLD L. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
MEYER, HENRY See ROWING 20 Jl 38
MIAMI, FLORIDA See BASKETBALL—College
MIAMI BEACH CONVENTION CENTER See DRAWINGS
MIAMI, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College
MIAMI U. (OHIO) See BASKETBALL—College
MICHAEL, PRINCE OF KENT See SKIING
MICHIGAN, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College; FOOTBALL—College
MICHIGAN STATE U. See BASKETBALL—College
MID-AMERICA CONFERENCE See FOOTBALL—College
MIDDENDORF, HENRY See ROWING 20 Jl 38
MIDDENDORF, JOHN See ROWING 20 Jl 38
MIEULI, FRANKLIN See BASKETBALL—Professional
MIKOYAN, ANASTAS See TRAPSHOOTING; WRESTLING
MIKOYAN, SERGEI See HUNTING
MILLER, RALPH See BASKETBALL—College
MILLER, SCOTT See BASKETBALL
MILLER, WILLIAM FAMILY See WATER SKIING
MILLS, BILLY See OLYMPICS
MILNE, ROSS See OLYMPICS

MILNER, MARTIN See TELEVISION
MILWAUKEE BRAVES See BASEBALL
MINI COOPER (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
MINNESOTA, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College
MINNESOTA TWINS See BASEBALL
MINNESOTA VIKINGS See FOOTBALL—Professional
MIRA, GEORGE See FOOTBALL—Professional
MISS AMERICA See FOOTBALL—College
MISS ICELAND See SKY DIVING
MISSISSIPPI See FISH & FISHING
MISSISSIPPI, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
MISS STERN DRIVE (1965) See CONTESTS
MISS UNIVERSE See CONTESTS
MR. MOONLIGHT (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
MITCHELL, CARLETON See BOAT RACING
MITCHELL, VIC See BRIDGE
MOCLIPS, WASHINGTON See OCEAN
MOFFO, ANNA See HORSE RACING—Harness
MOHS, LOU See FISH & FISHING
MONACO
See also AUTOMOBILE RACING; SOCCER
Donald LeVine scarcely had time to give his sister-in-law Grace Kelly a kiss when Prince Rainier requested a command performance on the golf course. 20 Jl 38
Leading Monaco Tenant Aristotle Onassis wants to modernize the kingdom, plans new casino, apartments, parking lots; now wants to drain the harbor where Prince Rainier moors his yacht to make a racetrack. 3 Ag 46
MONSTER (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
MONTANA See HUNTING
MONTE CARLO RALLY See AUTOMOBILE RACING
MONTI, EUGENIO See OLYMPICS
MONTREAL CANADIENS See HOCKEY
MOORE, ARCHIE See AGE
MOORE, TOM See HUNTING
MORABITO, MRS. JOHN See FOOTBALL—Professional
MORGAN, DAVID See ROWING 20 Jl 38
MORGAN, JOHN See CLOTHING
MORRISON, FRANK See RIVERS
MORROW, WINSTON V., JR. See ADVERTISING
MOSHER, CLURE See SPORTSCASTERS
MOSS, STIRLING See AUTOMOBILE RACING
MOTORBOAT RACING See BOAT RACING
MOTORCYCLE RACING
See also ACCIDENTS
Cinemactor Steve McQueen will be a member of U.S. team in world motorcycle championships in Europe. 23 Mr 46
MOTORCYCLING See CLOTHING
MOUNTAIN CLIMBING
Sherpa Guide Tenzing Norgay joins Americans Jim Whittaker, Lute Jerstad and Dr. Tom Hornbein to climb Washington's Mount Rainier. 3 Ag 46
Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, with wife Margaret and son Robert Craig, climb 2,000 feet short of top of Matterhorn. p. 7 S 86
Daisy Among The Edelweiss. German Track and Field Star Daisy Voog, with Toni Heibeler and Werner Bittner, successfully climbs north wall of Mount Eiger. 14 S 8
MOVIES
Sean Connery, movies' James Bond, gets black eye playing soccer in Turkey while filming From Russia With Love. Former Pro Player Connery is warned by studio not to put Bond in jeopardy. 13 Ap 103
Rave. After dispute over high distribution fees, Italian film The Grand Olympics is available to U.S. theaters. 4 My 16
Shirley MacLaine receives pass, runs in harem outfit with football helmet among pro football players in film John Goldfarb, Please Come Home. p. 1 Je 63
James Bond's Golfing Caper. Scenes from Ian Fleming's latest James Bond movie thriller Goldfinger, show the cunning and cheating Bond faces in his golf match with Goldfinger. p. 22 Je 22-25
In An Epic New Movie, One Dame Beats Another. Textpiece by Dan Jenkins and photos of scenes focus on Shirley MacLaine and the Notre Dame football team filming football movie titled John Goldfarb, Please Come Home! c.p., p. cov. 20 Jl 50-60
MUHAMMAD ALI (CASSIUS CLAY) See BOXING
MULLANEY, JOE See BASKETBALL
MULLINS, FRANK See DRAWINGS
MULLOY, GARDNER See TENNIS
MUNSON, BILL See FOOTBALL—Professional
MURAKAMI, MASANORI See BASEBALL
MURCHISON, CLINT, JR. See FOOTBALL—Professional
MURCHISON, JOHN See AUTOMOBILES
MURPHY, FRANK J., JR. See GOLF
MURPHY, GEORGE See SPORTS
MURRAY, ARTHUR See TENNIS
MURRAY, DON See BASKETBALL
MURRAY, ERIC R. See BRIDGE
MURROW, ED See GOLF
MUSIAL, STAN See BASEBALL; PHYSICAL FITNESS
MUSTANG (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILES

N

NACHMANN, FRITZ See OLYMPICS
NADANER, HUGO See ARCHITECTURE
NAMATH, JOE See FOOTBALL—College
NARUHITO, PRINCE OF JAPAN See TENNIS
NASH, ANTHONY J. D. See OLYMPICS
NASH, OGDEN See GOLF
NASON, JOHN See BASKETBALL—College
NASSAU SPEED WEEK See AUTOMOBILE RACING
NASSER, GAMAL ABDEL See FISH & FISHING; SPORTS
NATHAN, MARTIN See AUTOMOBILE RACING
NATIONAL BASEBALL LEAGUE See BASEBALL
NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSN. See BASKETBALL—Professional
NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY See FOOTBALL—Professional
NATIONAL CLUB ASSN. See CLUBS
NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSN.
See also BASKETBALL—College; FOOTBALL—College
Two Guys Named Joe Jolt Ithaca. Martin Kane reports that Oklahoma State University wins its 24th NCAA Wrestling title at Cornell U. in Ithaca, N.Y., spotlighting 130-pound Yojiro (Yo-Jo) Uetake (p.) and his heavyweight teammate Big Joe James (p.), who won State's championships in their own weight category and Colorado's Dean Lahr (p.), who was judged best in the tournament. 6 Ap 28-29, 92-93
The Playing Fields of West Point. SI proposes memorial to the late General Douglas MacArthur be resolution of differences between AAU and NCAA. 13 Ap 18
Fort Sumter. Big Ten college conference votes to declare ineligible any athlete who takes part in competition not sanctioned by the NCAA. 1 Je 18-19
NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE See FOOTBALL—Professional
NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE See HOCKEY
NATIONAL INDOOR TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS See TENNIS
NATIONAL RATTLESNAKE RODEO See HUNTING
NATIONAL RIFLE ASSN. See SHOOTING
NATIONAL SKI LEAGUE See SKIING
NEALE, ALFRED EARLE (GREASY) See BASEBALL
NEBRASKA, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
NEEDHAM, EARL See HUNTING
NEFERTITI (BOAT) See BOAT RACING
NEGROES
See also FOOTBALL—College; INTEGRATION
Lawyer Martha Louis, wife of former Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, will move from California to Denver where there is a need for good Negro lawyers; house will be only a stone's throw from former Champion Charles (Sonny) Liston's. 27 Jl 45
NELSON, RICKY See SPORTS
NEVADA See FANS
NEWCOMBE, JOHN See TENNIS
NEW HAMPSHIRE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
NEW LONDON, OHIO See ANIMALS
NEWMAN, MARVIN E. See BASKETBALL—Professional; FOOTBALL—Professional
NEW MEXICO
See also ANIMALS
U. of New Mexico's President Tom L. Popejoy writes to mail-order supply house, which refused his order on grounds of being outside the continental U.S., informing them of New Mexico's entry into the union. 10 Ag 48
NEW ORLEANS OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT See GOLF
NEWSPAPERS See FISH & FISHING
NEW YORK (STATE) See GAMBLING; RIVERS
NEW YORK ATHLETIC CLUB INDOOR GAMES See TRACK & FIELD
NEW YORK (CITY) See GAMES; SPORTS
NEW YORK GIANTS See FOOTBALL—Professional
NEW YORK JETS See FOOTBALL—Professional
NEW YORK KNICKERBOCKERS See BASKETBALL—Professional
NEW YORK METS See BASEBALL; SPORTS
NEW YORK NATIONAL HORSE SHOW See HORSE SHOWS
NEW YORK YANKEES See BASEBALL
NEW ZEALAND See TRACK & FIELD
NICHOLS, BOBBY See GOLF
NICKLAUS, JACK See GOLF; SPORTS
NIELSEN, A. C., CO. See TELEVISION
NILON, JACK See BOXING
NITZE, PAUL See SKIING
NIXON, RICHARD M. See BADMINTON; DOGS; AWARDS
NKRUMAH, KWAME See TABLE TENNIS
NORGAY, TENZING See MOUNTAIN CLIMBING
NORRIS, JAMES D. See BOXING
NORTH CAROLINA, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College
NORTHERN DANCER (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
NORWAY See FISH & FISHING; SKIING
NOTRE DAME, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College; FOOTBALL—College
NURMI, PAAVO See TRACK & FIELD

O

OAKLAND HILLS COUNTRY CLUB See GOLF
OAKLAND RAIDERS See FOOTBALL—Professional
OBOLENSKY, PRINCE ALEXIS See BACKGAMMON
O'BRIEN, PARRY See TRACK & FIELD
OCEAN
Sad Salvage. Dumping of oil and petroleum into sea off Moclips, Washington causes disappearance of all marine animals, closing of all commercial and recreational clamming. Storms and tides have cleaned most of beaches, but no sign of animal life remains. 30 Mr 9
Settlers at the Bottom of the Sea. Coles Phinizy spotlights efforts of Diver George F. Bond (p., career sketch) and others in experiments with living beneath the sea in special houses; chronicles experiences, difficulties in developing breathing compounds, prospects for eventual below-surface colonization. p. 29 Je 22-36
O'DONNELL, EMMETT (ROSIE) See BOXING
OERTER, AL See TRACK & FIELD
O'HARA, JOHN See FOOTBALL—College
O'HARA, TOM See TRACK & FIELD
OHIO STATE U. See BASKETBALL—College; FOOTBALL—College
OJI, AGGREY K. See BOXING
OJI, UDO See BOXING
OKLAHOMA STATE U. See WRESTLING
OLAV V, KING OF NORWAY See BOAT RACING
OLD HAT (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
O'LEARY, TOM See TRACK & FIELD
OLLAMALIZTLI
Strip Ollamaliztli. UCLA archaeologists have unearthed ancient Aztec playing arena for ollamaliztli (explained). c.d. 4 My 16
OLSEN, JACK
See also BASEBALL; BRIDGE
Profiles Heavyweight Boxer Jim Beattie. 31 Ag 64-68, 73-75
Describes wolf hunting experiences in south central Texas with Hunter Earl Needham. c.d. 14 S 66-74
Discusses Britons' addiction to soccer. 12 O 74-90
Reports on opening of XVIII Olympiad in Tokyo. 19 O 34-41
Discusses the unexplored interior jungles and rivers of Surinam. 9 N 62-66, 71-74
OLSON, BOBO See BOXING
OLYMPICS
See also specific sports
An Arena For Heroes. Drawing features site of Winter Olympics in Innsbruck, Austria; skiing, skating, bobsled, toboggan and Olympic Village areas shown. c.d. 27 Ja 30-31
A Fight For Life By the Home Team. Paul Ress reports on importance of skiing to the Austrian people, spotlighting Olympic gold medal prospects Egon Zimmerman (c.p., p.) and Christl Hass (p.); training program of Austrian Olympic team; strong U.S. challengers cited. Olympic form chart notes nation, favorite skier in each event. chart, cov. 27 Ja 32-39
Curls and Cold Steel. Israel Shenker reports on World Speed Skating Champion Lidia Skoblikova (quotes, c.p.), who is the surest bet to win a gold medal at the Winter Olympics. 27 Ja 40-41

A Flash Of Fire On The Ice. James Bell profiles Germany's Marika Kilius (c.p.) and Hans-Jurgen Baumler (c.p.), the pairs figure-skating champions of the world. 27 Ja 52-53
The Inflexible Flyer. Coles Phinizy profiles Bobsledder Eugenio Monti (quoted, p.) and Brakeman Sergio Siorpaes (p.), who will represent Italy in the Winter Olympics at Innsbruck. 27 Ja 54-57
Peace of Mind on a Fragment of Wood and Steel. Luging, similar to American sledding, will be included in the Olympic program for the first time; World Champion Luger Fritz Nachmann (p.) hopes to ride to a gold medal. 27 Ja 56-57
A Question of Honor. Robert Creamer discusses problems of putting together an amateur ice hockey team to represent the U.S. in the Olympics 27 Ja 58-61
Downhill Danger. While competing in the Olympics, Ross Milne, 19, of Australia, only three years a skier, is killed, and two members of the Liechtenstein team are gravely injured on the men's downhill course in Innsbruck. 3 F 8
Aga Khan, who placed 36th in the world championship in Chamonix, is competing in the Olympics merely because he enjoys skiing. 3 F 46
Wilma Rudolph, the world's fastest woman, will not compete in the Olympics this year because she will be giving birth to a track star of the future. 3 F 46
Russian Blades And Fast French Skis. Dan Jenkins reports that during the first week of Winter Olympics the Russian skaters, particularly Lidia Skoblikova (c.p.), winner of four gold medals, were overpowering, and Austria's Egon Zimmerman (cov.) or Jean Saubert (p.) of the U.S. could not diminish the brilliance of French Alpine Racers Marielle Goitschel (p.), Christine Goitschel (p.) and Leo Lacroix; Finland's Veikko Kankkonen (p.) wins 70-meter ski jump. Games open at Bergisel Stadium. (c.p.) 10 F 14-21
Two Proper Britishers In A Bob. Profile of British Bobsledders Robin Dixon and Anthony J. D. Nash, who beat the Italian sleds and won England's third Olympic gold medal in 40 years. p. 10 F 22-23
Regal Splendor On The Sidelines. International set attends Winter Olympics at Innsbruck, including smartly clad Queen Farah Diba of Iran and Mrs. Gerhard Porsche. p. 10 F 24-25
In And Out Of A Jam. Dan Jenkins reports that after a dismal beginning for all U.S. skiers, Billy Kidd and Jimmy Heuga emerge from the slalom, the last Olympic race, with a silver and bronze medal, respectively; U.S. Skiing Coach Bob Beattie (quotes), who struggled to get better seedings for his team, spotlighted. p. 17 F 15-19
The Sweet Triumph Of 'Napoleon' Bonnet. Huston Horn reports on French Olympic Ski Coach Honoré Bonnet (p., quotes) and how he developed his top-notch ski team. 17 F 17
A Bashful Barber And A Worldly Kid From Smoke Rise. Huston Horn profiles Olympic gold medal winner, Speed Skater Terry McDermott (p.), whose shy demeanor is a sharp contrast to 14-year-old Figure Skater Scotty Allen (p.), a pampered celebrity who came away with a bronze. 17 F 20-21
Sir George Robertson recalls first modern Olympiad in which he took part, in 1896, winning a 4th in the shotput, a sixth in the discus and an olive branch from the King for reciting a Greek ode of his own composition. 17 F 44
France's Minister of Sports, Maurice Herzog, is adjudged the top twister of the Winter Olympic games with his partner Princess Ira von Furstenburg. 17 F 44
France's Olympic Skiing Gold Medalist Marielle Goitschel quoted on taking up automobile racing after the 1968 Olympics. 20 Ap 47
Rave. After dispute over high distribution fees, Italian film The Grand Olympics is available to U.S. theaters. 4 My 16
At the Fair with Fat Buster. Robert H. Boyle reports Olympic boxing trials at New York World's Fair. U.S. team will be led by 295-pound Buster Mathis (biopers, p.), and Light Middleweight Toby Gibson (career sketch, p.). 1 Je 26-31
The Setting For a Glorious Olympiad. Color photos by Pete Turner of Tokyo's partially constructed Olympic structures point up architectural quality in Japan's attempt to make Asia's first Olympiad a memorable one. c.p., c. map 6 Jl 32-43
At Home In The World's Largest Enigma. Fred R. Smith provides travel guide to inscrutable city of Tokyo, interspersed with renderings of Olympic stadiums. d. 6 Jl 44-47
U.S. Olympic hopeful Ron Laird is fined $12 for crossing a Los Angeles street against a red light. 10 Ag 48
Noriko Ikeda and her sister Sachiko (quoted), daughters of Japan's Prime Minister, signed on with 27 other Japanese socialites to serve as official Olympic Companions. 31 Ag 54
To Tokyo By Inches. John Underwood reports on U.S. athletes who qualified in Los Angeles for the 1964 Olympic teams. Chart lists the 59 men who qualified. p. 21 S 18-21
The Tokyo Games. John Underwood analyzes modern Olympics since 1896 founding; examines reasoning behind various countries' Olympic drives, outlines beliefs and aspirations of Olympians, suggests contenders, possible winners in various sports. c.d., cov. 5 O 34-42
From Faraway Places. Photos depict likely Olympic medal winners from foreign countries against native backgrounds. c.p., p. 5 O 42-55
The Favorites in Tokyo 1964. Chart lists, sport by sport, favorites for first, second and third places in Tokyo's Olympic games. chart. 5 O 64-69
Eddie Fisher pulls in $1,000 per song in Las Vegas as he tries to raise funds for the U.S. team in Tokyo in his capacity as chairman of the Olympic Entertainment Committee. 5 O 70
Nobuhiko Higashikuni (quoted), one of Emperor Hirohito's grandsons, takes job at $1.95 a day waiting on tables in Tokyo's Olympic Village dining rooms. 5 O 70
Manslaughter Born of a Fixed Race. Alexander Eliot chronicles history of ancient Olympics in small Greek state of Elis, includes known records, legends, heroes; describes various events, sequence, problems. c.d. 5 O 104-122
The Doves and Gongs of Tokyo. Jack Olsen reports on opening of XVIII Olympiad in Tokyo, delineates lengths gone to by Japanese to make games successful; relates difficulties, complaints of athletes, humorous incidents. p., cov. 19 O 34-41
We Win The Five And The Ten. John Underwood reports on the Tokyo Olympics, spotlighting the 5,000 and 10,000-meter runs won by Bob Schul and Billy Mills. p. 26 O 20-22, 29-31
Gallery of photos spotlight Olympic Gold Medal winners: Billy Mills in the 10,000-meter run, Japan's Featherweight Wrestling Champion Osamu Watanabe, Mary Rand in the broad jump, Rowers Ed Ferry and Conn Findlay, Bob Hayes in the 100-meter run, Swimmer Don Schollander. c.p. 26 O 22-28
A Dominant Swimmer For A Dominant Country. Gwilym Brown reports on the U.S. Olympic swimming and diving medal winners, spotlighting Don Schollander, the first swimmer to win 4 gold medals in one Olympics. p. 26 O 30-33
An Exuberant Finish in Tokyo. John Underwood chronicles end of Tokyo Olympics, captures unforgettable fun and ceremony; Russians took most medals, but U.S. had more gold. p. 2 N 24-31
Results and medal winners for all Oympic events listed; photos show twenty-four gold medal winners; number of medals and totals listed by country. p. 2 N 84-90
Songwriter Hoagy Carmichael loses ticket to Tokyo Olympics swimming meet while signing autographs outside National Gymnasium. 9 N 47
Miler Herb Elliott recalls his nervousness at the Rome Olympics. 23 N 67
Nantymoel, Wales, home of Olympic Broad-jump Winner Lynn Davies, paints two white lines on pavement of street exactly 26 feet 5½ inches apart—the span of Davies' winning jump. p. 21 D 70

O'MALLEY, WALTER See BASEBALL; HUNTING
O'MEARA, BEN See HORSE SHOWS
ONASSIS, ARISTOTLE See MONACO
ORANGE BOWL See FOOTBALL—College
OREGON, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
OREGON STATE U. See FOOTBALL—College
O'REILLY, JOHN See HUNTING
ORTEZ-PATINO, JIMMY See BRIDGE
OSBORN, ROBERT See ART
OSWALD, JOHN See FOOTBALL—College
O'TOOLE, PETER See BRIDGE
OTTUM, BOB
See also AUTOMOBILE RACING; BASKETBALL—Professional
Reports that Davidson College's basketball team is the only undefeated major college team in the south. 13 Ja 12-13
Profiles Criminal Lawyer George M. Levy. 27 Jl 30-42
Profiles Bill Cox, skipper of the potential America's Cup defender 'American Eagle'. 31 Ag 46-48
Features Cyclist Jackie Simes III. 14 S 22-25
Spotlights General Motors' new Chevrolet Corvair Corsa. 21 S 96-97
OWEN, MICKEY See SPORTS

P

PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE See FOOTBALL—College
PACIFIC OCEAN See GOLF
PACKER, SIR FRANK See BOATS
PAINTINGS See ART
PALEY, WILLIAM S. See BASEBALL
PALM CITY See GOLF 13 Ja 26-37
PALMER, ARNOLD See BUSINESS; GOLF
PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA See GOLF
PANYA ALAIN SOUVANNA PHOUMA, PRINCE See AUTOMOBILE RACING
PAPPAS, MILT See BASEBALL
PARACHUTES
TV Writer Rod Serling (p.) was challenged by wartime friends to jump from plane. Ex-Paratrooper Serling made perfect-landing jump at Fort Bragg. 13 Ap 103
French Ski Champions Marielle and Christine Goitschel try new sport called in French parachutisme ascensionnel, flying along behind a speeding motorboat with parachutes strapped to their backs. 14 S 45
PARKER, AL See ART
PARKS, DAVE See FOOTBALL—Professional
PARKS See JAPAN
PARSEGHIAN, ARA See FOOTBALL—College
PARTULA (BOAT) See BOAT RACING
PASCUAL, CAMILO See BASEBALL
PASTRANO, WILLIE See BOXING
PATIENCE (HEN) See BIRDS
PATTERSON, FLOYD See BOXING; LAWRENCE, CAROL
PATTERSON, RAY See BOXING
PAUL VI, POPE See BICYCLE RACING; HOCKEY
PEABODY, ENDICOTT See HUNTING; SKIING
PEALE, NORMAN VINCENT See HOCKEY
PEARSON, LESTER See FISH & FISHING
PEETERS, GEORGES See BOXING
PELL, CLAIBORNE See BICYCLE RACING; PHYSICAL FITNESS
PENNEL, JOHN See TRACK & FIELD
PENNSYLVANIA STATE U. See BASEBALL
PENSKE, ROGER See AUTOMOBILE RACING
PEPITONE, JOE See BASEBALL
PERALTA, GOYO See BOXING
PERCENTAGE BASEBALL See BASEBALL
PERLMUTTER, ALFRED See CONSERVATION
PERRY, DOYT L. See FOOTBALL—College
PERRY, FRED See GOLF
PERRY, ROBERT See BOAT RACING
PETERSON, HAL See AAU
PETERSON, HAROLD See FISH & FISHING; HUNTING
PETULANCE (HEN) See BIRDS
PGA See GOLF
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA See BASEBALL
PHILADELPHIA EAGLES See FOOTBALL—Professional
PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES See BASEBALL
PHILADELPHIA 76ERS See BASKETBALL—Professional
PHILIP, PRINCE, DUKE OF EDINBURGH See BOAT RACING; GREAT BRITAIN; POLO
PHINIZY, COLES
Closeup on SI's Senior Editor and Sportsman Coles Phinizy. p. 20 Ja 4
Takeout on the unspoiled Caribbean island called Marina Cay. 20 Ja 22-29
Profiles Bobsledder Eugenio Monti and Brakeman Sergio Siorpaes. 27 Ja 54-57
Spotlights Australian bachelor brothers John and Frank Livingston. 16 Mr 70-74, 79-82
Spotlights efforts of Diver George F. Bond and others in experiments with living beneath the sea in special houses. 29 Je 22-36
Spotlights 18-year-old Swimmer Don Schollander. 10 Ag 16-17
Profiles Mexican Diver and Millionaire Don Pablo Jose Bush Romero. 30 N 80-84, 89-90
PHIPPS, OGDEN See BOAT RACING
PHOTOGRAPHY
The Kitemaker. Photographer Pete Turner uses colored filters to add ethereal quality to depiction of kites made and flown by Artist Tomi Ungerer. c.p. 3 Ag 28-35
The Mad Hatter In Photoland. Edwin Shrake profiles Jim Laughead, the most successful photographer of athletes, who puts his subjects through a strenuous drill for his photography sessions. p. 21 S 78-87
PHYSICAL FITNESS
Teamster Boss James R. Hoffa, under the guidance of Gym Instructor Bill Floyd, is keeping fit at the YMCA while jury ponders the weight of his evidence. p. 3 F 46
Ohio's 74-year-old Senator Stephen Young (p.) pulls away on a Cleveland Y rowing machine to get in trim for a nomination challenge by 45-year-old Astronaut John Glenn. 24 F 40
Lillian Musial comments on having to exercise since her husband Stan has been appointed by President Johnson as the nation's fitness chief. 24 F 40
The Moderate Muscleman. New isometric exercise program for golfers from AMF's Ben Hogan Sales Company follows RCAF exercise booklet in urging moderation. 16 Mr 9-10

New Equitable Life Assurance Society President Grant Keehn forsakes usual lavish executive lunches for workouts at local gym, in keeping with sphere of company he now heads. 16 Mr 63
Brigham Young U. President Ernest Wilkinson, resigning post to run for senate, refuses to accept letterman's Y blanket before doffing coat, shoes, doing 47 pushups (p.) on the spot. 16 Mr 63
Jack Ruby's defense lawyer Melvin Belli (quoted) works out at Dallas Athletic Club while preparing higher court appeal, claims to be 30 pounds overweight. 23 Mr 46
Against the day when he may meet up with some of his old associates, Cosa Nostra's top canary Joe Valachi is conducting a one-man fitness program in jail. 6 Ap 80
Bestsellers. President's Council on Fitness offers booklets Vim for girls and Vigor for boys because of success of earlier booklet, Adult Physical Fitness. 13 Ap 23
Teamster President James Hoffa gains ten pounds during Chicago trial for fraud, has no gym available as he had when he was being tried in Tennessee for fixing juries. 15 Je 57
Actor Cary Grant is amazed to read that he goes to great health lengths to maintain youthful vigor and appearance; says he only swims and rides horseback, because they are not exertive. 29 Je 48
Workout for the Rat Pack. Stress Authority Dr. Hans Selye conducts experiments with "athlete rats," says humans should begin exercising no later than age 35. 6 Jl 14
Wife of French Ambassador to U.S., Mme. Herve Alphand, rises early to do 20 minutes of yoga exercises. 27 Jl 45
Former British High Commissioner to Australia, Sir Stephen Holmes, who is now a councilman in Sandwich, England, argues with manager of merry-go-round on which he gets his daily exercise. 31 Ag 54
Stan Musial collapses at St. Louis' Busch Stadium; his wife, Lil, explains post-retirement activities too strenuous. 14 S 45
A Leg Up On A Good Heart. George Crozier reports on the First International Conference on Preventive Cardiology, held at the U. of Vermont, at which experts in the fields of cardiology, physical education and rehabilitation agreed that exercise benefits the young and healthy as well as those with previous heart trouble. p. 21 S 28, 33-35
Rhode Island's Democratic Senator Claiborne Pell comments on his 65-year-old sweater after panting through his morning exercises. 21 S 88
Boston Heart Specialist Dr. Paul Dudley White, long favoring exercise to tune up heart, proposes airlines install bicycle machines for pilots. 19 O 62
Sit-Uppers, Take Notice. John Greenshields sets record of 14,000 sit-ups, beating last year's record of 8,500. 2 N 15-16
Sir Hamilton Kerr (p.), re-elected Conservative M.P., promises to continue his daily exercises and early-morning romps over the rooftops of London just as vigorously as he has for the past 40 years. 30 N 54

PICHE, RON See BASEBALL
PICKETT, LAURENCE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
PIERCE, EDWARD ALLEN See GOLF
PILNEY, ANDY See FOOTBALL
PING-PONG See TABLE TENNIS
PITTSBURGH PIRATES See BASEBALL
PITTSBURGH STEELERS See FOOTBALL—Professional
PLANTE, JACQUES See HOCKEY
PLAYER, GARY See GOLF
PLAYER, IAN See GOLF
PLIMPTON, GEORGE See BOXING; FOOTBALL—Professional
POETRY See GOLF
POLE VAULT See TRACK & FIELD
POLO
Lance Reventlow quoted on losing interest in auto racing, but keeps boredom at bay by ballooning, surfing, skiing, swimming, water skiing, polo and hill climbing on a motor bike. 10 F 46
Britain's Prince Charles plays polo with father, then drives to castle from mother's Windsor Great Park with Prince Philip as passenger. 27 Ap 64
Great Britain's Princess Anne (p.) helps father, Prince Philip, get ready for polo game at Windsor Great Park. 18 My 76
Britain's Prince Philip manages to score winning goal at Windsor Horse Show Polo Cup finals despite three broken sticks; Queen presents trophy to husband. 1 Je 63
Princess Anne won a yellow rosette for finishing third in the dressage challenge cup for 14 and under; her father, Prince Philip, took a spill playing for the Windsor Park polo team, was hospitalized for strained ligament. 27 Jl 45
Former Auto Racer Lance Reventlow, slowing down in deference to age (28) has taken up polo; last week he was named to play No. 1 position on the California Crescents team at the National Twenty Goal Tournament. 3 Ag 46

POLO GROUNDS See BASEBALL
POMPIDOU, GEORGES See BOULES; OLYMPICS
POOL See BILLIARDS
POOR BOY OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT See GOLF
POPE, BUCKY See FOOTBALL—Professional
POPE, GEORGE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
POPEJOY, TOM L. See NEW MEXICO
POPOVICH, PAVEL See HOCKEY
PORRITT, SIR ARTHUR See HIKING
PORSCHE, MRS. GERHARD See OLYMPICS
PORTER, DOREEN See TRACK & FIELD
PORTER, RICHARD See CLOTHING
PORTUGAL, HELEN See BRIDGE
PORTUGAL See RESORTS
POTOMAC RIVER See RIVERS
POTTER, RICHARD C. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
POWELL, ADAM CLAYTON See SURFING
POWELL, EDWARD See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
POWER, THOMAS S. See GOLF
PRAGER, JAN See FISHING
PREAKNESS (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
PRESLEY, ELVIS See BOATS
PRICE, JOE See BOATS
PRINCETON U. See BASKETBALL—College; FOOTBALL—College
PUERTO RICO See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49
PURINA AWARD See DOGS
PUTNAM, LINDA JOYCE See CONTESTS

Q

QUADRANGLE (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
QUAST, ANNE See GOLF
QUEENSBERRY, MARQUESS OF See CONTESTS
QUINN, ANTHONY See BRIDGE
QUIZZES See AAU; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
QUOIT (GAME) See GAMES
QVALE, KJELL See HORCE RACING—Thoroughbred

R

RABBITS See HUNTING
RADIO See GOLF; SPORTSCASTERS
RAINIER, PRINCE OF MONACO See MONACO
RAINSFORD, HUGO See FOOTBALL—College
RALSTON, DENNIS See GOLF; TENNIS
RAMOS, PEDRO See BASEBALL
RAMOS, SUGAR See BOXING
RAMSAY, JACK See BASKETBALL—College
RANCHO GOLF CLUB See GOLF
RAND, MARY See OLYMPICS
RANGER (BOAT) See BOAT RACING
RATSEY, COLIN See ADVERTISING
RATTLESNAKE HUNTING See HUNTING
RAWLS, BETSY See GOLF
REAL GOOD DEAL (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
REBNER, STELLA See BRIDGE
RECIPES See FOOD
REEDY, GEORGE See SPORTS
REESE, TERENCE See BRIDGE
REEVES, RICHARD STONE See ART
REFEREES See specific sports
REICHARDT, RICK See BASEBALL
REICHART, BILL See HOCKEY
RESNICK, ASH See BOXING
RESORTS
The Spas: Goo, Golf And Games. British Author Alec Waugh discusses the part Europe's historic health resorts play in the life of the modern sportsman and what part sport plays in the life of the modern spa. Takeout gives tips to tourists who may wish to visit spas in France, Germany, England, Italy, Spain and Portugal. c.p. 25 My 88-106
A&P Heir Huntington Hartford is selling his society resort in the Bahamas for $32 million because the hotel is too small to sustain such luxuries as Pancho Gonzalez and Gary Player. 12 O 57
Girl Behind a Golden Door. Barbara La Fontaine describes week-long experience at California's beauty resort, The Golden Door; gives day-by-day account of treatments, rigors, other women present; briefly describes accounts given of periods when men take over the resort. c.p., p. 2 N 68-80
Six Square Miles of Powder. Fred R. Smith's report with photos by Fred Lyon focus on Colorado's two-year-old Vail Ski Resort, spotlighting double-chair lifts and the modern ski village. c.p., p., c. map. 23 N 52-62

RESS, PAUL EVAN
See also AUTOMOBILE RACING; OLYMPICS
Spotlights Matadors Paco Camino and El Cortdobes. 10 Ag 44-47
Profiles Aga Khan. 10 Ag 58-67

RESTON, JAMES (SCOTTY) See GOLF
REVENTLOW, LANCE See POLO
REXALL DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO. See TENNIS
REYNOLDS, NICK See ACCIDENTS
REYNOLDS, RICHARD J., III See CRIME
RHODES, JAMES See SPORTS
RHOME, JERRY See FOOTBALL—College
RIBICOFF, ABRAHAM See GOLF; SCUBA DIVING
RICHARD, MEL See GOLF
RICHARDS, ROBERT See TRACK & FIELD
RIGNEY, BILL See BASEBALL
RING (CHILD) See SPORTS
RIPPON, GEOFFREY See BASEBALL
RIVA, CARLOS See BOATS
RIVERS
Exploring Ugh! Bil Gilbert recounts his and two other bumbling explorers, Norman Carver's Jr.'s and Billy Rosenberger's, expedition to El Sumidero—the gorge of the Grijalva River in Central America. c.d. 27 Ja 72-83
The Columbia: A Gem of a River. Robert Cantwell reports on the Canadian reaches of the Columbia River that flows north and south through vast wilderness; relationship with the Kootenay River, Author Baillie-Grohman's (p.) scheme for the Columbia discussed. p., c. map. 24 F 56-66
Spring On A Florida River. Shelly Grossman photos capture early spring along Florida's Weeki Wachee River. Mary Louise Grossman byliner interprets photos, provides glimpses of animal life during lush season. c.p., c. map. 30 Mr 38-46
Exaltation at the Smokehole. Bil Gilbert chronicles rapids-shooting experience in West Virginia gorge on the Potomac River called The Smokehole (takeout); describes natural wonders of gorge. c.d. 27 Ap 76-88
From A Mountaintop To 1,000 Fathoms Deep. Robert H. Boyle follows Hudson River from origin in Adirondack Mountains to its canyon on ocean floor; outlines types of fish, animal life, hunting along river; spotlights people who derive livelihood from river; plans by conservationists. p., pictorial map. 17 Ag 74-82
Nebraska Governor Frank Morrison and Missouri Governor John Dalton sail down Missouri River to search for marina sites; Morrison (quoted) says river will someday be to the Midwest what the Rhine is to Europe. 7 S 86
My Quarry Eye to Eye. Roderick Haig-Brown relates experiences diving in pools of Vancouver Island's Campbell River as he turns from fisherman to amateur naturalist. c.d., c.map. 19 O 84-97
Beastly Place For A Hunt. Jack Olsen discusses the unexplored interior jungles and rivers of Surinam, the new hunting-and-fishing frontier for those with cash and raw courage. c.d. 9 N 62-66, 71-74

RIZZUTO, PHIL See HORSE RACING—Harness
ROBBERY See CRIME
ROBERTS, ARCHIE See FOOTBALL—College
ROBERTS, EDWARD GLENN (FIREBALL) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
ROBERTS, ROBIN See BASEBALL
ROBERTSON, OSCAR See BASKETBALL—Professional
ROBERTSON, SIR GEORGE See OLYMPICS
ROBIN (BOAT) See BOAT RACING
ROBINSON, ARTHUR See BRIDGE
ROBINSON, BROOKS See BASEBALL
ROBINSON, JACKIE See BASEBALL; GOLF; SPORTS
ROBINSON, SUGAR RAY See BOXING
ROCKEFELLER, DAVID See BOAT RACING
ROCKEFELLER, DAVID, JR. See BOAT RACING
ROCKEFELLER, WINTHROP See SPORTS
ROCKY FORK LAKE (OHIO) See FISH & FISHING
RODRIGUEZ, CHI CHI See GOLF
RODRIGUEZ, LUIS MANUEL See BOXING
ROELANTS, GASTON See TRACK & FIELD
ROGERS, ANNE HONE See DOGS
ROGIN, GILBERT
See also BASEBALL
Account of San Diego Chargers overwhelming the Boston Patriots for the AFL championship. 13 Ja 8-11
Close-up on SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's Associate

Editor Gilbert Rogin (p.). 17 F 4
Profiles Multimillionaire Businessman William B. MacDonald, Jr. 17 F 54-62
Spotlights the Texas Track Club. 20 Ap 30-36
Recalls games he and his younger brother played on the streets of New York as children. 20 Ap 75-88
Profiles Tournament Tennis Player Gardner Mulloy. 13 Jl 56-62
Spotlights Long Distance Swimmer Mary Martha Sinn. 24 Ag 58-64
Profiles New Zealand Distance Runner Peter Snell. 5 O 56-63
Reports that Sonny Liston is odds-on favorite to defeat Cassius Clay. 16 N 22-27

ROI, SONJI See BOXING
ROLAND, GILBERT See BULLFIGHTING
ROLL CURLING See SPORTS
ROLLINS, RICH See BOWLING
ROLLO, PINKIE See AUTOMOBILE RACING
ROMAN BROTHER (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
ROMERO, DON PABLO JOSÉ BUSH See SCUBA DIVING
ROMERO, JOHN See BOXING
ROMNEY, GEORGE See GOLF
ROONEY, ART See FOOTBALL—Professional
ROOSEVELT, FRANKLIN D. See BOATS
ROOSEVELT RACEWAY See GAMBLING; HORSE RACING—Harness
ROSE, MANNY See CARDS
ROSE, MURRAY See ACCIDENTS; SWIMMING
ROSE BOWL See FOOTBALL—College
ROSENBERG, ALLEN See ROWING
ROSENBERGER, BILLY See RIVERS
ROTH, ARNOLD See DRAWINGS
ROTZ, JOHN See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
ROUNICK, JACK See FISH & FISHING
ROUTZONG, ART See BASEBALL
ROWING
Son of Finnish Ambassador to Peru, Heikki Hannikainen, rescues seven-year-old girl from Harlem River while rowing in a Columbia University shell. 13 Ap 103
The Race Problem at Howard Is How to Win. Hugh Whall's rowing column features fast-improving Howard University crew team, the first Negro college to crash the ranks of college racing; white Coach Stuart Law, a George Washington University Law Professor, runs practice sessions. 27 Ap 72, 75
Eight Men in a Boat. MIT Rowing Coach Jack Frailey plans to take outstanding individual rowers from the boats of season's also-rans to compile all-star team for Olympic trials. 18 My 18, 20
An Easy Row On The Road To Japan. Tom C. Brody reports on the perfectly coordinated Harvard rowing team (p.), which won the Eastern Sprint Championships. 25 My 30-31
Four X Eight—Crew of the Decade. Brody's rowing column reports emergence of four equally strong rowing teams as California (p.) wins over Harvard, Vesper Boat Club and College Boat Club of Pennsylvania at IRA Championships. 6 Jl 53-54
Anything That Boys Can Do. Tom Brody reports on the Vesper Boat Club rowing crew (p.), coached by Allen Rosenberg (p.) and coxed by Robert Zimonyi (p.), that defeated Harvard and the U. of California in the Olympic rowing trials. p. 20 Jl 12-15
Harvard's varsity rowing crew that won the 1914 Henley regatta get back intact this year to show the youngsters how they did it. p. 20 Jl 38

ROYAL, DARRELL See FOOTBALL—College; GOLF; JOHNSON, LYNDON B.
ROYAL FLEA ASSOCIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN See FLEA RACING
ROYAL KAANAPALI GOLF COURSE See GOLF
ROZELLE, PETE See FOOTBALL—Professional
RUDEEN, KENNETH See AUTOMOBILE RACING; FOOTBALL—College; FOOTBALL—Professional
RUDOLPH, MASON See GOLF
RUDOLPH, WILMA See OLYMPICS
RUMSFELD, DONALD See BICYCLE RACING
RUNNING See BASEBALL; TRACK & FIELD
RUPP, ADOLPH See BASKETBALL—College
RUSK, DEAN See BASKETBALL—College
RUSSELL, BILL See BASKETBALL—Professional; FOOTBALL—Professional; SPORTS
RUSSELL, CAZZIE See BASKETBALL—College
RUSSIA See OLYMPICS; TRACK & FIELD
RYAN, E. BARRY See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
RYAN, PATRICIA See HORSE RACING—Harness; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
RYUN, JIM See TRACK & FIELD

S

SAARI, ROY See SWIMMING
SACHS, EDDIE See AUTOMOBILE RACING
SADAIR (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SADOWSKI, BOB See BASEBALL
SAIGH, FRED See BASEBALL
SAILBOAT RACING See BOAT RACING
SAILBOATS See BOAT RACING
ST. LOUIS U. See BASKETBALL—College
ST. LOUIS CARDINALS See BASEBALL; FANS
ST. LOUIS CARDINALS (FOOTBALL) See FOOTBALL—Professional
ST. LOUIS HAWKS See BASKETBALL—Professional
SAINT-MARTIN, YVES See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
ST. PETERSBURG-FORT LAUDERDALE OCEAN RACE See BOAT RACING
ST. PETERSBURG OPEN GOLF TOURAMENT See GOLF
ST. THOMAS (ISLAND) See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49
SALINGER, PIERRE
See also SPORTS; TENNIS
Quashes rumor that his trip to Aspen is for skiing, informs reporters that his wife will do all the skiing. 10 F 46
Upon his return from the LBJ ranch, saddle sore presidential Press Secretary chooses to stand rather than sit at a Washington preview of Seven Days In May. 2 Mr 51
SALISBURY, MARYLAND See TENNIS
SALMON (FISH) See FISH & FISHING
SALTON CITY 500 (POWERBOAT RACE) See BOAT RACING
SALTONSTALL, LEVERETT See ROWING 20 Jl 38
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS See FOOTBALL—Professional
SAN DIEGO TO ACAPULCO SAILBOAT RACE See BOAT RACING
SANFORD, TERRY See BROWN, EDMUND G. (PAT); FISH & FISHING
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA See AGE
SAN FRANCISCO, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College
SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS See FOOTBALL—Professional
SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS See BASEBALL
SAN FRANCISCO WARRIORS See BASKETBALL—Professional
SAN JOSE BEES See BASEBALL
SAN JUAN ISLAND, WASHINGTON See HUNTING
SAN RAFAEL PRIMITIVE AREA See BIRDS
SANTA ANITA DERBY See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SANTA CLAUS (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SARATOGA RACE TRACK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SARK, DAME SYBIL OF See DOGS
SAUBERT, JEAN See OLYMPICS
SAVITT, DICK See TENNIS
SAWYER, GRANT See BROWN, EDMUND G. (PAT); HIKING
SCHALLER, CHRIS See HIKING
SCHELL, MAXIMILIAN See SOCCER
SCHENKEN, HOWARD See BRIDGE
SCHERMAN, DAVID See GAMBLING
SCHEU, ED See BOAT RACING
SCHILLING, GEORGE See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SCHLESINGER, ARTHUR, JR. See TENNIS
SCHOLLANDER, DON See SPORTS; SWIMMING
SCHOOR, GENE See BOXING
SCHUL, BOB See TRACK & FIELD
SCHULBERG, BUDD See BOXING
SCOTT, PETER See BOAT RACING
SCOUNDREL (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SCRANTON, WILLIAM
See also HIKING; TENNIS
Timmy Mayer, nephew of possible G.O.P. Presidential Candidate William Scranton, will be No. 2 man on British Cooper Grand Prix auto team. 6 Ja 45
Scranton runs 50 yards (p.) with Olympic torch as one of the 3,000-odd runners selected to carry flame across U.S. to help raise money for U.S. Olympic fund. 14 S 45
SCRANTON, MRS. WILLIAM See SKIING
SCUBA DIVING
The Amphibious Resorts. Coles Phinizy takeout on the unspoiled Caribbean island called Marina Cay, one of the Virgin Islands, and its proprietor, Allan Batham (brief biopers, p.); scuba diving and other sports are available to tourists. c.p. 20 Ja 22-29
Sneakers And Snorkels. Fred R. Smith's travel facts and map of the Caribbean show beginning and experienced skin divers, scuba divers where to find the best guides, gear, fish, reefs and wrecks. c. map., c.d. 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49
Toward Safer Scuba Diving. Senator Ribicoff submits bill in Congress aiming for regulation of purity standards for scuba divers' compressed air. 23 Mr 8
Riviera vacationers have hauled in more than a thousand potential museum pieces for Underwaterman Jacques-Yves Cousteau, who has inspired them by offering prizes ranging from complete scuba outfits to face masks. 31 Ag 54
My Quarry Eye to Eye. Roderick Haig-Brown relates experiences diving in pools of Vancouver Island's Campbell River as he turns from fisherman to amateur naturalist. c.d., c.map. 19 O 84-97
The Lost Worlds Of Don Pablo. Coles Phinizy profiles Mexican Diver and Millionaire Don Pablo José Bush Romero (p.), who founded CEDAM, an underwater exploring club, and has spent a lifetime diving for archeological treasures and probing jungle ruins. 30 N 80-84, 89-90

SCULLY, VIN See SPORTSCASTERS
SCULPTURE See ART
SEARLE, RONALD See ART
SEATTLE U. See BASKETBALL—College
SEBERG, JEAN See BOULES
SEBRING GRAND PRIX See AUTOMOBILE RACING
SEKI, MITSUNORI See BOXING
SELECTIVE FISHING See FISH & FISHING
SELLERS, PETER See AUTOMOBILES
SELYE, HANS See PHYSICAL FITNESS
SENATE See BOXING
SERLING, ROD See PARACHUTES
SEVAREID, ERIC See SPORTSCASTERS
SHAD (FISH) See FISH & FISHING
SHARIF, OMAR See BRIDGE
SHARK (FISH) See FISH & FISHING
SHARNIK, MORTON See BOXING; FOOTBALL—Professional
SHARP, ULYSSES SIMPSON GRANT, JR. See GOLF
SHASTRI, LAL BAHADUR
Indian Prime Minister Shastri (p.) plays badminton shortly after sustaining what looked like a heart attack. 2 N 53
SHELBY, CARROLL See AUTOMOBILE RACING
SHELL, JOSEPH C. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
SHENKER, ISRAEL See OLYMPICS
SHEPARD, TAZWELL See TENNIS
SHEPPARD, LAWRENCE B. See HORSE RACING—Harness
SHERIDAN, THOMAS, JR. See SKIING
SHERMAN, ALLIE See FOOTBALL—Professional
SHERMAN, MIKE See GAMBLING
SHIELDS, BILL See ART
SHIELDS, CORNELIUS See BOAT RACING
SHIPS
'And All I Ask Is A Tall Ship.' Photo essay spotlights a salute to the seagoing past in which windjammers of 13 nations raced from Lisbon to Bermuda then cruised to a rendezvous in New York Harbor. Takeout by Alan Villiers, guest of honor aboard Portugese ship Sagres, on his sporting days at sea. c.p. 20 Jl 22-29
SHOEMAKER, BABS See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SHOEMAKER, WILLIE See ART; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
SHOES See FOOTBALL—College
SHOLTY, GEORGE See HORSE RACING—Harness
SHOOTING
A Month of Bull's-Eyes and Maggie's Drawers. Paintings by Franklin McMahon focus on the National Rifle and Pistol Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, conducted by a 2,900-man armed forces team with the help of the National Rifle Association. c.r., d. 10 Ag 28-33
Sandy Dennis used to shoot down the 50 helium balloons set free at each performance of the Broadway hit Any Wednesday, until someone decided it was too dangerous; Sandy has been replaced by a net. 31 Ag 54
SHOR, TOOTS See BOXING
SHORT, EDWARD See BASEBALL
SHOT PUT See TRACK & FIELD
SHRAKE, EDWIN
See also FOOTBALL—Professional; GOLF
Reports on inauguration of International Backgammon Tournament at Grand Bahama Islands' Lucayan Beach Hotel. 4 My 42-49

Examines pressures surrounding acquisition by Los Angeles Angels of Bonus Baby Rick Reichardt for a record $200,000. 6 Jl 16-21
Profiles Jim Laughead, the most successful photographer of athletes. 21 S 78-87
Reports on Light-heavyweight José Torres' victory over Bobo Olson, 7 D 30-31

SCHWILLER, SEYMOUR See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

SIEFF, MRS. JONATHAN See BOWLING

SIERRA MADRE RIDGE See BIRDS

SIKES, ROBERT See HUNTING

SILVER ANNIVERSARY ALL-AMERICA AWARDS See AWARDS

SIMES, JACK, III See BICYCLE RACING

SIMMONS, CURT See BASEBALL

SIMONT, MARC See DRAWNGS

SIMPSON, ALBERT D. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

SIMPSON, BUD See SPORTS

SIMPSON, JOHN See HORSE RACING—Harness

SIMROSS, LYNN See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

SINATRA, FRANK See ACCIDENTS

SINN, MARY MARTHA See SWIMMING

SIORPAES, SERGIO See OLYMPICS

SIRIUS II (BOAT) See BOAT RACING

SKI-CRAFT See WATER SKIING

SKIING
See also CLOTHING; OLYMPICS
Despite the fact that his mother, the Duchess of Kent, was awarding the trophy, the best Prince Michael could do was a first reserve on the 11th Hussar regimental ski team for the British army championships. 6 Ja 46
Houston Horn describes the indomitable skiers at Snoqualmie Ski Area (takeout) in Washington, where neither constant rain nor fog keeps skiers off the slopes; Ski School Business cited. c.r. 6 Ja 50-59
Everyone at Big Bear Lake (Calif.) including Gina Lollobrigida, the resort's mascot, was out to watch John Glenn soloing the ski slopes. p. 13 Ja 38
An impartial judge at Aspen, Colo., comments on the skiing abilities of Bobby Kennedy, Ted Kennedy, Steve Smith, Robert McNamara, Paul Nitze. 13 Ja 38
Gamin With a World of Guts. Dan Jenkins closeup on Jean Saubert (p.), who, coached by Bob Beattie (quoted), led the American ski team to a string of pre-Olympic triumphs; Buddy Werner's (p.) pre-Olympic accomplishments cited. 20 Ja 12-15
Man Who Jumps With the Devil. John Lovesey closeup on Norway's world champion Ski Jumper Toralf Engan (quoted, c.p.), who made the finest jump in modern ski history (p.); training program to conquer nervousness and fear cited. 27 Ja 42-45
Lonely Quest In Lapland. Donald S. Connery reports on Finnish Lapland's Cross-Country Skier Eero Mantyranta (biopers, quoted, c.p., p.), who will compete in the Winter Olympics. 27 Ja 46-50
Let's Not Spoil Their Sport. Textpiece by ex-Olympic gold medal winner for skiing, Andrea Mead Lawrence discusses what makes a successful athlete and warns parents that emphasizing winning is depriving children of the real rewards of skiing. p. 3 F 18-21
Pennsylvania's First Lady Mrs. William Scranton comments on difficulties she encountered teaching her four children to ski. 3 F 46
Steps To The Stars. Huston Horn profiles 54-year-old Sportsman John Stewart Day (p.), who did not make the U.S. Olympic cross-country ski team this year because he lacked certain requirements set forth by the Olympic subcommittee. p. 3 F 52-58
Massachusett's Governor Endicott (Chub) Peabody, who often shoots the ski slopes with Senator Ted Kennedy, manages to visit five of his state's 40 ski areas in a single weekend and crown a Winter Carnival queen in the bargain. 24 F 40
Lutheran Princess Irene, despite her family's disapproval, appeared on the ski slopes of Kitzbuhel with Prince Carlos Hugo de Borbon y Parma, who is from Catholic Spain. 2 Mr 51
French Finance Minister Valery Giscard d'Estaing (p.) dons skiing gear, races downhill as forerunner of race for customs officers from five Alpine nations. 23 Mr 46
Jacqueline Kennedy, Caroline and John-John spend Easter weekend skiing in Stowe, Vt. with the Kennedy brothers. 6 Ap 80
The Man With No Luck. America's best Skier Buddy Werner (brief biopers) suffocates under avalanche while filming a fashion movie for Wally Bogner, German stretch-pants manufacturer. 20 Ap 15
Birth of A Notion. TV Producer Marlo Lewis with Thomas Sheridan, Jr. of the Windham, N.Y. ski area have organized a National Ski League in hopes of filling in the TV scheduling gap between pro-football and baseball by televising professional ski races. 11 My 18
Throw Away That Stem. Austrian Skier, Stowe Instructor Helmut Falch demonstrates parallel skiing in sketches by Robert Handville. c.r., cov. 23 N 46-51
Six Square Miles of Powder. Fred R. Smith's report with photos by Fred Lyon focus on Colorado's two-year-old Vail Ski Resort, spotlighting double-chair lifts and the modern ski village. c.p., p., c. map. 23 N 52-62
Maurice Herzog, Gaullist Minister of Youth and Sports, after hearing Lyons Mayor Louis Pradel criticize the Gaullist regime for its handling of Algerian crisis, turns down invitation to Lyons, France opening ceremonies of Europe's first year-round competitive artificial ski piste. 14 D 49

SKIN DIVING See ISLANDS

SKOBLIKOVA, LIDIA See OLYMPICS

SKY DIVING
Miss Iceland of 1960, Kristin Thor, (quoted), tries sky diving over open farmland near Dallas. 1 Je 63

SLOT MACHINES See GAMBLING

SMASH See SPORTS

SMATHERS, GEORGE See FOOTBALL

SMITH, FRED R. See RESORTS; TRAVEL

SMITH, J. FREDERICK See CLOTHING

SMITH, KEELY See AUTOMOBILE RACING

SMITH, LEWIS See ACCIDENTS

SMITH, MRS. LLOYD H. See CROQUET

SMITH, MARGARET CHASE See SPORTS

SMITH, STEVEN See SKIING

SMITH, WARRIE LYNN See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.

SNAILS See BIRDS

SNAKES
See also HUNTING
Geraldine Chaplin (p.), daughter of Charlie Chaplin, comments on pet snake she gave herself for her 20th birthday. 12 O 57

SNEAD, JESSE See GOLF

SNEAD, SAM See GOLF

SNELL, PETER See TRACK & FIELD

SNIDER, DUKE See BASEBALL

SNOOK (FISH) See FISH & FISHING

SNOQUALMIE, WASHINGTON See SKIING

SNORKELING See ISLANDS

SNOWBALL, JENNIE See CANADA

SNOWDON, EARL OF (ANTHONY ARMSTRONG-JONES) See ACCIDENTS

SNYDER, JAMES See BOOKMAKERS

SOCCER
A Jump For Joy Too Soon. Gerry Cranham photo captures John Hollowbread, goalkeeper for London's Tottenham Hotspur soccer team, suspended in air. Vision blurred by fog, Hollowbread thought teammates scored winning goal against Chelsea but shot was blocked. d.p. 20 Ja 20-21
Screen star Maximilian Schell, who stopped off in Istanbul with his friend Princess Soraya, is praised by French newspaper L'Equipe for kicking the winning goal in a local soccer match. 27 Ja 65
Archdeacon of Westminster Edward Carpenter comments on his fondness for soccer, a game which he considers a "religious exercise." 24 F 40
Lastest popular song on Rome's Via Veneto sung by Sophia Loren asks in Italian—"Why, why do you always leave me alone on Sundays to go and see the soccer game?" 2 Mr 51
Saudi Arabia's Prince Abdullah al Faisal (quoted) complains of preoccupation with soccer of Saudis, admits own addiction to game. 16 Mr 63
Color of the Cup Final. Photographer Gerry Cranham captures excitement of Britain's soccer Cup Final between Winner Manchester United and Leicester City, c.p. 27 Ap 48-52
West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt takes afternoon off to kick soccer ball with 3-year-old son, Matthias. p. 27 Ap 64
Kenneth Kaunda's cabinet soccer team (p.) challenges the British cabinet, but it is uncertain whether Queen Elizabeth will ask either Sir Alec Douglas-Home or Harold Wilson to form a football team to defend her nation's honor. 11 My 62
Six Dreary Days—Then Saturday. Jack Olsen discusses Britons' addiction to soccer outlining fans' enthusiasm, sportsmanship, British playing style and the workingman's interest in the game. p. 12 O 74-90
Six-year-old Prince Albert of Monaco (p.) romps out on the field at Monte Carlo's Louis II Stadium in an informal debut as a soccer player. 26 O 59

SOCIETY See BACKGAMMON

SOFTBALL See BASEBALL

SOLICH, FRANK See FOOTBALL—College

SOPHIAAN, MANAI See KHRUSHCHEV, NIKITA

SORAYA, PRINCESS OF IRAN See SOCCER

SORENSEN, TED See TENNIS

SOUCHAK, MIKE See GOLF

SOUTH CAROLINA, U. OF See BASKETBALL—College

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College

SOVEREIGN (BOAT) See BOAT RACING

SPADA, LOU See FOOTBALL—Professional

SPAIN See RESORTS

SPANISH RIDING SCHOOL See HORSE SHOWS

SPAS See RESORTS

SPECTATORS See FANS

SPEED SKATING See OLYMPICS

SPEEDY SCOT (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Harness

SPELUNKING
Pottery Boss Sir John Wedgwood will descend into France's 4,000-foot Berger Cave with team of British spelunkers. 18 My 76

SPILSBURY, MAX See FOOTBALL—College

SPIRIT OF AMERICA (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING

SPOCK, BENJAMIN See SPORTS

SPORTS
Neal Barr's photo gallery of 1963's top athletes features Roger Staubach, Jim Clark, Mrs. Richard C. duPont, Don Schollander, Bill Russell, Jim Whittaker, Jack Nicklaus, Robert Lee Hayes, Sandy Koufax, Gary Anderson; achievements and major contributions noted. p. 6 Ja 30-40
Games Worth the Candle. The fastest-growing participant sport in the U.S., according to the Athletic Institute, is volleyball, 5 million ahead of cycling; least known sport is smash; newest accepted sport is roll curling, played without ice; very newest sport is Elliptipool, a variant of pool. 20 Ja 8
The New Boss of the Army, Secretary Stephen Ailes, is an avid sportsman who participates in squash, golf, tennis, and maintains several fly-fishing ponds on his Martensburg, W. Va. farm. 27 Ja 65
Athletes take to the political scene as Oklahoma's Football Coach Bud Wilkinson soon to declare for the U.S. Senate, Catcher Mickey Owen wants to be sheriff in Greene County, Mo., Heavyweight Zora Folley was defeated for councilman in Chandler, Ariz., Jackie Robinson helping to nominate Rockefeller, and former basketball player Margaret Chase Smith (p.) is running for President. 10 F 46
The Old College Try. The students of New York City's Cooper Union College, which lacks adequate sporting facilities, travel throughout the city for instruction in skiing and horseback riding, two courses which are obligatory requirements for an engineering degree. 2 Mr 8
Versatile Specialist. Texas High-Schooler Pat Brown establishes records in track & field, baseball, football. 16 Mr 10
Exit. Andy Frain (brief biopers), organizer of ushering system at various sporting events, dies of heart attack in Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. 6 Ap 20
Onetime (1924) Olympic crewman, Dr. Benjamin Spock (p.), turns to ice skating to regain his old athletic shape. 6 Ap 80
Press Secretary George Reedy comments on fishing and hunting as being his #1 & 2 sports as he carries 9-foot 6-inch sailfish, 44-inch northern pike, a pheasant and a deer head into his new home. 6 Ap 80
A Child's Guide to Sport in New York. Photo essay by Bruce Davidson focuses on children Ring and Illona in their quest for sporting activities all over New York City. p. 20 Ap 66-75
Ici On Parle Français. Academie Française Professor René Etiemble urges French to stop using English in French Sports terms, offers examples of pure terms for yachtsmen, blue jeans, football and soccer. 4 My 16
Orson Welles gives up London town house to spend more time with bullfighting in Madrid; villa has swimming pool where Welles (quoted) begins each day with a 20-minute dip. 18 My 76
Fort Sumter. Big Ten college conference votes to declare ineligible any athlete who takes part in competition not sanctioned by the NCAA; despite AAU-NCAA truce to guarantee strong U.S. Olympic showing, feud will probably explode when games are over. 1 Je 18-19
Among the few who found time to relax while in Cleveland for their convention were Governor John Connally of Texas, who took in the harness races, James Rhodes of Ohio, who went to the baseball game and Mrs. Pat Brown, who won top honors in a golf tournament among the wives of the state governors. 22 Je 48
Recording Star Ricky Nelson (quoted), a black-belt man in karate, surfer and once the fifth-ranked 15-and-under tennis player in California, exchanges "Stingrays," little bikes with big handlebars, with his wife for their first wedding anniversary. 22 Je 48
Queen Elizabeth's birthday honorees include: Scottish Racing Driver Jimmy Clark, Australian Miler Herb Elliott, Cricket Player Alex Bedser, Soccer Player Jimmy Dickinson and Women's World Cycling Pursuit-Race Champion Mrs. Beryl Burton. 29 Je 48

Though Winthrop Rockefeller is building four bowling alleys, two exercise rooms and a couple of squash courts at his Winrock Farm in Arkansas for his family, he does not believe in competitive sports. 29 Je 48

Nikita Khrushchev went shooting with Tito, hiked with Hungary's Premier Kadar, fished with Nasser; last week he rowed 300 yards on private lake with Sweden's Premier Tage Erlander. 6 Jl 48

Frontrunning Republican Presidential Candidate Barry Goldwater (quoted) says there is too much importance placed on winning in sports participation. 6 Jl 48

Author Leon Uris (quoted) is too busy at his Acapulco retreat water skiing, skin diving, sailing and swimming to think about knocking out another bestseller. 20 Jl 38

A Bold Proposal For American Sport. Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy outlines importance of American prestige in sport during an Olympic year, proposes steps to be taken, including government role, in improving national participation in all amateur sport. 27 Jl 12-15

Democrats opposing Former Oklahoma Football Coach Bud Wilkinson's bid for the Senate claim that the Anheuser-Busch beer slogan, "I like Bud!" is giving unfair aid. 3 Ag 46

The Word For New York Is Bush. Former New Yorker and San Francisco Sports Columnist Charles McCabe visits city to report on sports atmosphere; finds New York a deplorable caricature of its former self, acidly satirizes New York Mets, their fans, and Manager Casey Stengel. c.d. 3 Ag 56-63

Prince Karim Aga Khan. Paul Evan Ress profiles Aga Khan, spiritual leader of 15 million Ismaili Muslims, owner of a huge horse racing establishment, Olympic skier, and builder of a vast Mediterranean resort. p., c.d. 10 Ag 58-67

1954-1964. On SI's tenth anniversary, photos show sports highlights from each year, depicting trends and moods of ferment in sports of skiing, football, horse racing, ice hockey, golf, gambling and swimming. p., c.p. 17 Ag 31-59

Mamie Van Doren (quoted) thinks there are better ways to compete than in competitive sports. 17 Ag 63

Fan. Walter Augustine Brown, president of Boston Garden, the Boston Athletic Association, basketball's Celtics and hockey's Bruins, dies of a heart attack in Cape Cod Hospital. 21 S 17

An official Soviet release notes that it is possible Aleksei Nikolaevich Kosygin owes his ability to work to his devotion to sport. 26 O 59

Senatorial Candidate George Murphy may think he has the sportsman's vote pretty well tied up in California because his father was head coach of a U.S. Olympic team, but Murphy's opponent, Pierre Salinger, boasts an athletic distinction of greater rarity having knocked himself out in a World War II Navy boxing match. 26 O 59

A Star And A Sportsman Riding A Wave. Joe David Brown profiles athlete and show business personality Art Linkletter, who, at the age of 52, remains extremely athletic; popularity, favorite sports, and income discussed. pa 26 O 84-96

A Vote for Dope. French Minister of Youth and Sports Maurice Herzog loses fight in French Senate to outlaw doping of athletes. 16 N 18

A Catalog Cache. Fred Eng photographs, with drawings by Bud Simpson, depict array of goods available for Christmas shopping through mail-order catalogs; highlight new specialization in sport gifts, show 80 items, lists best catalogs representing 39 firms with complete names and addresses. c.p., c.d. 16 N 54-60

White House Press Secretary George Reedy (quoted) catches six sailfish, shoots three ducks and ten pigeons while vacationing in Acapulco, Mexico. 30 N 54

A Bowl of Orange For A Pick-Me-Up. Paintings by Milton Glaser focus on assorted sports events held in Florida during winter season. c.r. 14 D 40-47

Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall, who has been praised for being a baseball player, iron man on a football team, and a basketball star, was actually just a run-of-the-floor basketball player at Arizona. His brother Morris Udall was the all-conference football man. 14 D 49

Predictable Glories and Grand Surprises. Sports highlights of 1964 recounted. p. 21 D 30-31

The New Wave In Sports. Robert H. Boyle predicts changes in American sport, outlines specific sports, such as water sports and skiing, which will grow, sees greatest increases in participant sports; projections include 60's, 70's, 80's, up to year 2,000. 21 D 40-45

Get Set, Folks, Here Comes Tomorrow. Photos show highly possible sports ideas of tomorrow. c.p., c.d., c. diag. 21 D 46-59

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko tells U.N. General Assembly about White House hot line; says to check condition of line, Russian operators transmit extracts from I.S. Turgenev's Hunting Sketches, Americans transmit results of baseball games. 21 D 70

SPORTSCASTERS

The Transistor Kid. Robert Creamer byliner spotlights Los Angeles Dodgers' Radio Announcer Vin Scully (biopers, p.), chronicles career from early days in New York as protege of venerable Red Barber, to present-day wide popularity in southern California. p. 4 My 96-108

Miami Sportscaster Clure Mosher, who is heading north to become sports director at WOR, comments on his plans to blast Yogi Berra, Ralph Houk and Casey Stengel. 13 Jl 46

Fond Farewell. Miami Sportscaster Clure (Scrooge) Mosher honored with "I, Hate Mosher" dinner (described) to celebrate his departure to New York's station WOR; when Mosher was finally introduced, all 500 in the room got up and walked out. 3 Ag 7

How About That? CBS's Eric Sevareid comes to aid of Mel Allen, prevented from announcing World Series, cites "creeping Rizzutoism." 19 O 17

Friends will give Joe DiMaggio a 50th-birthday dinner in San Francisco; fired Yankee Announcer Mel Allen will be toastmaster. 2 N 53

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

Closeup on SI Senior Editor and Sportsman Coles Phinizy. p. 20 Ja 4

Close-up on SI's Associate Editor Gilbert Rogin. p. 17 F 4

Close-up on SI's Turf Writer Whitney Tower. p. 9 Mr 6

A Honeycomb House For All Seasons. A-Frame designer John Carden Campbell designs all-weather, all-terrain hexagonal house for SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. c.d. 23 Mr 40-45

Publisher spotlights Tennis Editor Walter Bingham (sketch) and Contributing Editor Bill Talbert (sketch). p. 13 Jl 4

Editorial Chairman Henry R. Luce congratulates Publisher Sidney L. James and Managing Editor Andre Laguerre (p.) on S.I.'s 10th anniversary; restates magazine's aims, outlines progress made; singles out leading contributors. 17 Ag 4

1954-1964. On SI's tenth anniversary, photos show sports highlights from each year, depicting trends and moods of ferment in sports of skiing, football, horse racing, ice hockey, golf, gambling and swimming. p., c.p. 17 Ag 31-59

Goodby C. D. C. D. Jackson dies at 62; SI eulogizes the Time Inc. Senior Vice President, who enabled SI to help the defecting Hungarian athletes at the 1956 Olympics to come to the U.S. and start new lives. 28 S 15

Publisher spotlights SI Associate Editor William Leggett. p. 19 O 4

Profile of Basketball Editor Jerry Tax. p. 26 O 4

Publisher spotlights SI Writer Barbara (Heilman) La Fontaine (p., career sketch). 2 N 4

Let Them Begin Slowly. SPORTS ILLUSTRATED suggests that high school football be modified because of the high death and injury rate on the high school gridirons as compared to that in college and pro football. 30 N 16

An Era Shaped By War. Brief sketches by Robert Cantwell on the 25 winners of SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's Silver Anniversary All-America Awards, college football heroes selected for outstanding achievements. c.d., d. 30 N 36-45

Publisher spotlights Nature Writer Bil Gilbert (p., career sketch). 7 D 4

Alfred Wright reports SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's choice of Golfer Ken Venturi (c.p., p., cov.) as Sportsman of the Year. c.p. 21 D 32-39

Covers

Berra, Yogi, New York Yankees Manager with Casey Stengel. 2 Mr 12

Bradley, Bill, Princeton U. Basketball Star. 7 D 36

Burleson, Dyrol, U.S. Olympic Track Star with other Olympians. 5 O 34

Butkus, Dick, U. of Illinois Linebacker. 12 O 30

Callison, Johnny, Philadelphia Phillies Right Fielder. 10 Ag 10

Carr, Henry, Olympic Sprinter with other Olympians. 5 O 34

Clay, Cassius, Heavyweight Boxer. 24 F 14; 9 Mr 20; 16 N 22

Crow, John David, St. Louis Cardinals (Football) Halfback. 9 N 20

Dark, Alvin, San Francisco Giants Manager. 6 Jl 26

Dempsey, Jack, Ex-Heavyweight Boxer. 13 Ja 48

De Varona, Donna, Olympic Swimmer with other Olympians. 5 O 34

Falch, Helmut, Austrian Skier. 23 N 46

Foyt, A. J., Automobile Racing Driver. 1 Je 78

Giardello, Joey, Middleweight Boxer. 18 My 30

Goren, Charles, caricatured as King of Hearts. 17 F 32

Hansen, Fred, Olympic Pole Vaulter with other Olympians. 5 O 34

Harmon, Claude, Golf Instructor. 27 Ap 38

Hartack, Bill, Jockey. 8 Je 30

Hazzard, Walt, UCLA Basketball Star. 30 Mr 16

Heinsohn, Tommy, Boston Celtics Star Forward. 26 O 38

Howard, Frank, Los Angeles Dodgers Outfielder. 25 My 66

Howe, Gordie, Detroit Red Wings Hockey Star. 16 Mr 30

Huarte, Johnny, Notre Dame Quarterback. 2 N 20

Hull, Bobby, Chicago Black Hawks Hockey Star. 3 F 10

Johnson, Charley, St. Louis Cardinals (Football) Quarterback. 14 D 16

Kaline, Al, Detroit Tigers Baseball Star. 11 My 32

Karras, Alex, Detroit Lions Defensive Tackle. 30 N 46

Koufax, Sandy, Los Angeles Dodgers Pitcher. 13 Ap 38

Lema, Tony, Pro-Golfer. 23 Mr 62

Liston, Sonny, Heavyweight Boxer with Cassius Clay. 9 Mr 20; 16 N 22

MacLaine, Shirley, in scene from her latest movie John Goldfarb, Please Come Home. 20 Jl 50

Mason, Tommy, Minnesota Vikings Halfback. 28 S 20

McDonald, Tommy, Dallas Cowboys Flanker Back. 27 Jl 58

McNertney, Gerry, Chicago White Sox Catcher with Brooks Robinson. 31 Ag 14

Nicklaus, Jack, Pro-Golfer. 6 Ap 30

O'Hara, Tom, Track Star. 22 Je 26

Palmer, Arnold, Pro-Golfer. 15 Je 32

Rawls, Betsy, Golfer. 3 Ag 18

Robinson, Brooks, Baltimore Orioles Third Baseman with Gerry McNertney. 31 Ag 14

Rozelle, Pete, National Football League Commissioner, Sportsman of the Year (1963). 6 Ja 22

Ryun, Jim, Long Distance Runner. 14 S 46

Schollander, Don, Olympic Swimmer with other Olympians. 5 O 34

Sidle, Jimmy, Auburn U. Football Star. 21 S 41

Stenzel, Casey, New York Mets Manager with Yogi Berra. 2 Mr 12

Tittle, Y. A., New York Giants Quarterback. 7 S 48

Trull, Don, Houston Oiler Quarterback. 17 Ag 16

Venturi, Ken, Pro-Golfer, Sportsman of the Year (1964). 29 Je 12; 21 D 32

Walther, Marie, Olympic Gymnast with other Olympians. 5 O 34

Werner, Buddy, U.S. Olympic Skier. 27 Ja 32

Willard, Jess, Ex-Heavyweight Boxer with Jack Dempsey. 13 Ja 48

Zimmerman, Egon, Austrian Skier. 10 F 14

Boats, Sovereign & Kurrewa V. 24 Ag 22

Girl In Surf 20 Ja 30

Kentucky Derby, Americana poster advertises event. 4 My 26

Olympics, Torch Bearer (Yoshinori Sakai) runs with flame. 19 O 34

Olympics, U.S. Team Members. 5 O 34

Tennis, racquet hitting ball over net, player blurred in background. 13 Jl 26

Texas Track Club, members of all-girl team. 20 Ap 30

Series

He Didn't Know The Gloves Were Loaded. by Jack (Doc) Kearns and Oscar Fraley
Part I: p., cov. 13 Ja 48-56
Part II: Days of Wine and Bloody Noses. p. 20 Ja 50-59

Goren's New Formula for Easier and Better Bridge by Charles Goren and Jack Olsen
Part I: Throw Out the Fads and Gimmicks. c.p., diag., cov. 17 F 32-43
Part II: The Game Favors the Bold. p. 24 F 24-32
Part III: Doubling Will Double Your Fun. c.d. 2 Mr 32-48
Part IV: Tricks of My Trade. r. 9 Mr 28-34
Part V: Winning Table Tactics. c.p. 16 Mr 52-53, 57-60

A Pro-Golfer's Candid Story by Tony Lema with Gwilym S. Brown
Part I: Survival Training for a Rookie. p., cov. 23 Mr 62-72
Part II: Bubbles at the Top and Two That Burst. p. 30 Mr 30-37
Part III: This One Is Fun, But The Open Is Torture. p. 6 Ap 45-69

Let Me Help Your Game by Claude Harmon with Alfred Wright
Part I: Be A Smart Curve-Ball Hitter. c.d., d., c.r., cov. 27 Ap 38-47
Part II: Little Ones That Matter The Most. c.d. 4 My 70-76

The Funny, Frantic Life I Lead by Jack Nicklaus
Part I: c.d. 11 My 80-90
Part II: Even A Winner Can Cripple In. c.d. 18 My 44-46, 51, 59
Part III: Ending Up Second Can Get A Man Down. c.d. 25 My 52-62
Part IV: So I Put A Coat On Arnie. c.d. 1 Je 46-58

The Monsters And Me by Tommy McDonald
Part I: c.p., p., cov. 27 Jl 58-65
Part II: A Title, A Tumble, A Trade. p. 3 Ag 39-42

Zero of the Lions by George Plimpton
Part I: p. 7 S 96-117
Part II: 'Hut—Two—Three . . . Ugh!' p. 14 S 26-35

SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR See AWARDS
SPRECKELS, CLAUS See BOATS
SPRING See FISH & FISHING; RIVERS
STACK, ROBERT See HUNTING
STACK, MRS. ROBERT See TENNIS
STADIUMS See BASEBALL; OLYMPICS
STAFFORD, ROBERT T. See BICYCLE RACING
STAMPS See FISH & FISHING
STANDARD OIL CO. (NEW JERSEY) See BOAT RACING
STANGE, LEE See BOWLING
STANLEY CUP See HOCKEY
STAUBACH, ROGER See SPORTS
STAYMAN, STAN See BRIDGE
STEARNS, RICHARD See BOAT RACING
STENGEL, CASEY See BASEBALL; SPORTS; SPORTSCASTERS
STEPHENS, LARRY See CONTESTS
STEPHENS, OLIN See BOAT RACING
STERNBERG, BRIAN See ACCIDENTS
STEVENSON, HAROLD See BULLFIGHTING
STEWART, PAUL See CLOTHING
STICHWEH, ROLLIE See FOOTBALL—College
STIGMAN, DICK See BOWLING
STOLLE, FRED See TENNIS
STONE, JAN See BRIDGE
STOOP BALL
Confessions of a Stoop Ball Champion. Gilbert Rogin recalls games he and his younger brother played on the streets of New York as children; these games included stoop ball, of which they were the self-declared champions of 96th street. 20 Ap 75-88
STORMVOGEL (BOAT) See BOAT RACING
STOTTLEMYRE, MEL See BASEBALL
STRACK, DAVE See BASKETBALL—College
STRAM, HANK See FOOTBALL—Professional
STRAM, STU See BASEBALL
STREISAND, BARBRA See BASEBALL
STURGEON, THEODORE See GAMES
SUBANDRIO See KHRUSHCHEV, NIKITA
SUGAR BOWL See FOOTBALL—College
SUN BOWL See FOOTBALL—College
SUNSHINE PARK RACE TRACK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred SURFING
See also CLOTHING
James Arness, TV's Matt Dillon, surfs on enormous 12-foot board; Arness (quoted) says he works 48 weeks a year on Gunsmoke, surfing is only thing that keeps him sane. 24 Ag 44
His Royal Highness Prince Tungi of Tonga has decided to introduce surfing to his tiny monarchy, but because of his 280-pound frame he had to commission a special foam-filled surfboard 12 feet 8 inches long and 28 inches wide. 23 N 67
New York Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, while in Honolulu with the former Miss Ohio, Corrine Huff, and Chief Investigator Odell Clark, comments on surfing and Cassius Clay. 30 N 54
SURINAM See HUNTING
SURTEES, JOHN See AUTOMOBILE RACING
SWAMPS See BIRDS
SWEDEN See BOXING
SWIMMING
The Amphibious Resorts. Coles Phinizy takeout on the unspoiled Caribbean island called Marina Cay, one of the Virgin Islands, and its proprietor, Allan Batham (brief biopers, p.); swimming and other sports are available to tourists. c.p. 20 Ja 22-29
Dawn Keeps Churning Along. Whitney Tower profiles the best woman swimmer in history, Australia's Dawn Fraser (p.), who, at the age of 26, is still in competitive swimming and practicing for the Toyko Olympics. 17 F 26-31
According to a top instructor of life saving for the YMCA, the Beatles are as close to drown-proof as men can be since there is no better way to pull a person out of the water than by the hair. 2 Mr 51
A Doctor Who Makes Agony and Fun Pay Off. Indiana University Swimming Coach Dr. James Counsilman uses high-pressure workouts spiced with tomfoolery and "Bozo" clown suit to build top team despite NCAA bar since 1960. p. 23 Mr 48-54
Thornton F. Bradshaw, who's in his pool at 6:30 a.m. each morning, is named President of Atlantic Refining Co. 13 Jl 46
Scotch And A Little Water. John Lovesey profiles Scotland's Olympic swimming hope, Bobby McGregor, who trains lightly to avoid getting stale; training schedule discussed. p. 20 Jl 34-37
Oil Millionaire Nubar Gulbenkian spends ten days at a Riviera hotel trying to master diving, returned to London after consistent belly landings. 27 Jl 45
1912 Olympic Swimmer Duke Kahanamoku decided against running for Congress after sampling mainland life at New York's World's Fair. 3 Ag 46
Who's Afraid Of An Old Troll? Coles Phinizy spotlights 18-year-old Swimmer Don Schollander (p.), who defeated Australia's Murray Rose and set two world records at the National AAU championships. 10 Ag 16-17
A Girl Named Sinn. Gilbert Rogin spotlights University of Michigan Art Major Mary Martha Sinn (biopers, p.), who, despite lack of enthusiasm, is one of the world's best long-distance swimmers. 24 Ag 58-64
How They Chose The Best Team of All Time. Herman Weiskopf reports results of swimming and diving Olympic trials in Queens; impressive performance by Roy Saari (p.) spotlighted. 14 S 58-59
Australian Olympic Swimmer Dawn Fraser announces her engagement to a Queensland bookmaker. 5 O 70
A Dominant Swimmer For A Dominant Country. Gwilym Brown reports on the U.S. Olympic swimming and diving medal winners, spotlighting Don Schollander, the first swimmer to win 4 gold medals in one Olympics. p. 26 O 30-33
Letter from Rudyard Kipling's father to his son's schoolmaster excerpted, in which he asked that Rudyard not be subjected to cold-water bathing. 7 D 83
SWINTON, LORD See HUNTING
SWORDFISH (FISH) See FISH & FISHING
SYRACUSE U. See BASKETBALL—College

T

TABARLY, ERIC See BOAT RACING
TABLE TENNIS
Premier Chou En-lai stops in Accra long enough to persuade Ghana's President Kwame Nkrumah that Red China packs a powerful punch on the ping-pong table, even if it so far lacks the atomic serve of rival Russia in other arenas. 9 Mr 49
Champ of the Chop and Loop. Barbara La Fontaine reports on the U.S. Open Table Tennis Championship won by Erwin Klein (p.), who defeated Bernard Bukiet (p.) in semifinals and Bobby Fields (p.) in the finals; USTTA's financial difficulties, world wide popularity of the sport discussed. 11 My 54-60
TALBERT, BILL See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED; TENNIS
TALBERT, DON See FOOTBALL—Professional
TALBERT, PETER See TENNIS
TALCOTT, JAMES See ROWING 20 Jl 38
TANGLE (GAME) See GAMES
TARPON (FISH) See FISH & FISHING
TAX, JERRY See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED
TAXATION See BOXING; GOLF
TAYLOR, CHARLEY See FOOTBALL—Professional
TAYLOR, E. P. See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
TAYLOR, MAXWELL See BEACHES; TENNIS
TELEVISION
See also SKIING
Reel Knockout. Jim Jacobs, who owns the largest collection of fight films (13,000) in the world, and Bill Cayton, owner of The Big Fights Inc., have produced a program called The Sonny Liston vs. Cassius Clay Special, soon to be shown to TV officials. 3 F 7
The 28-Million-Dollar Deal. William Leggett reports that CBS-TV, which out-bid ABC-TV and NBC-TV, wins the 1964-65 television rights to the NFL's regular season games; chart shows how the A. C. Nielsen Co. rated the most popular televised sporting events. chart, p. 3 F 16-17
TV Again. NBC-TV signs a $36 million, 5-year contract with the American Football League, which will go into effect in 1965 unless ABC drops its option for this fall. 10 F 8
Martin Milner, reaching the end of TV's Route 66, turns in his dust-covered Corvette for brand new motorcycle. 17 F 44
Pool's Richest Pool. George and Paul Jansco, who stage the annual Jansco Brothers $10,000 World's All-Round Pocket Billiards Tournament, sign two-year contract with ABC-TV to telecast future tournaments. 6 Ap 16
Brinkley vs. The Brontosaurus. David Brinkley's Journal Special on NBC-TV launches diatribe on boxing including slaps at both Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston. 4 My 16
Wide-Eyed TV. CBS announces that as part of their new telecasting of the National Football League games next season they are going to put one announcer on the field, use an "isolation" camera to concentrate on a single player and increase the number of commercials. 25 My 14
The Show. Review of the closed circuit television broadcast of the Indianapolis "500." 8 Je 17
The Armchair Golfer, or Whimpers of a Shortchanged Viewer. Poet Ogden Nash composes ode to the living-room golf tournament TV spectator, who sees only the last four holes of the U.S. Open. 15 Je 43
ABC uses Basketball Stars LeRoy Ellis and Gene Wiley of the Los Angeles Lakers as monsters in TV show The Outer Limits. 7 S 86
Actor Dennis Weaver has given up the law-enforcement business to set up TV shop as a horse trainer turned veterinarian. 21 S 88
If 6-foot 9-inch Basketball Player Clyde Lovellette (p.) gets elected sheriff of Jefferson County, Mo., 6-foot 6-inch James Arness, of TV's Gunsmoke, will no longer be the tallest lawman in the land. 21 S 88
TENNIS
Whitney Tower reports that U.S. regains Davis Cup in Adelaide, Australia as Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley, guided by Captain Bob Kelleher, defeat Roy Emerson and John Newcombe. p. 6 Ja 18-21
Bob Kelleher, captain of the U.S. Davis Cup team, in dire need of funds to outfit the team, acknowledges receipt of $2,200 from the Tupperware Company, a subsidiary of Rexall Drug and Chemical Co. 13 Ja 7
As tennis' Chuck McKinley, Dennis Ralston and Mrs. Pauline Betz Addie visit White House, Pres. Johnson's unfamiliarity with his new home becomes apparent when asked whether a tennis court is on the grounds. 27 Ja 65
The Pros Have A Friend. The New England Merchants National Bank, wanting an annual tournament to be held at Longwood, will sponsor a $10,000 national grass court tennis championship at Longwood Cricket Club, thus giving a boost to a sport that sadly needs one. 2 Mr 7
A Small Town Moves into the Big Time. Frank Deford reports on the National Indoor Tennis Championships, held in Salisbury, Maryland's new civic center, won by Chuck McKinley, the #1 tennis player in the U.S. p. 2 Mr 57-58
White House aid Mike Feldman ribs Ted Sorensen, claims real reason for leaving White House is his failure to make the tennis team; Feldman also notes tennis capabilities of McGeorge Bundy, Tazwell Shepard, Pierre Salinger and Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. 9 Mr 49
Long-time tennis buff General Maxwell Taylor earns place on Board of Directors of the National Lawn Tennis Hall of Fame. 30 Mr 49
Promoter Jack Kramer will use names of tennis greats to designate nine courts of new California tennis and swim club. 30 Mr 49
Pennsylvania's Democratic Senator Joseph Clark humiliated after losing serve and set in tennis doubles to Republican Governor William Scranton and his wife. 20 Ap 47
Arthur Murray plays tennis on private court, which is two-thirds regulation size, with wife, Kathryn (quoted). 27 Ap 64
Hollywood civic authorities refuse to let Pat Boone, James Franciscus, Mrs. Robert Stack, and James Garner charge admission for charity tennis tournament at club owned by Edie Adams, would-be players picket club with rackets. 4 My 78
Edward Everett Horton quoted on playing tennis with pros. 8 Je 53
NATO's newly appointed boss, Italian Ambassador to France Manlio Brosio plays tennis almost every morning in the Bois de Boulogne with his staff members. 8 Je 53
Busiest Voice In A Busy, Busy Clan. Barbara La Fontaine profiles Tennis Player Gladys Heldman, who, when she isn't nurturing family champions, edits World Tennis, the world's most successful tennis magazine. p. 22 Je 38-40, 45-47
Prince Hugo Carlos de Borbon y Parma is teaching his bride, Princess Irene, to play tennis. 29 Je 48
Waverly (Pa.) Community House Director Robert Dixon says Republican Presidential Candidate William Scranton could have been a top tournament tennis player. p. 29 Je 48
The Outcasts Are Counted In. John Lovesey recounts the Wimbleton Tennis Championships, spotlighting winner Roy Emerson (p.) and finalist Fred Stolle (p.), both of whom were banned from the LTAA, thus making them ineligible to represent Australia in Davis Cup play and Brazil's Maria Bueno (p.), who won her third Wimbledon Championship. 13 Jl 22, 25
A Way To Better Net Play. Bill Talbert with son Peter gives tennis instructions for net play outlining pointers on: the grip, stance, volley, overhead, positioning and poaching. p., cov. 13 Jl 28-33
An Era Of Elegance. Paintings by Paul Davis capture the bygone elegance of tennis when played in the '20's and '30's at the private tennis houses of the country's wealthiest families. c.p. 13 Jl 34-39
Please Keep Your Dog Off My Court. E. J. Kahn, Jr. recalls problems he encountered when he built his own "private" tennis court. c.d. 13 Jl 40-44
Prince Narukito (p.), son of Crown Prince Akihito of Japan, seizes a tennis racket and heads for the grass to have a look around. 13 Jl 46
The Irrepressible Mr. Mulloy. Gilbert Rogin profiles Tournament Tennis Player Gardner Mulloy, who at the age of 50 can still beat many of the world's young, top ranking tennis stars. p. 13 Jl 56-62

Bright Shine On An Old Shoe. Frank Deford previews U.S. tennis nationals at Forest Hills with profile of world's best amateur tennis player, Roy Emerson (p.), who is uncolorful, consistent and "fell" into the top spot as various amateurs turned pro. 7 S 38, 41-42

Former San Francisco Quarterback Frankie Albert's daughter Janie (quoted), the nation's 11th-best woman tennis player, after missing an easy shot at the U.S. championships at Forest Hills, wishes she could win more easily for her father's sake. 21 S 88

Another Long Chorus Of 'Waltzing Matilda.' Frank Deford spotlights Australian Tennis Players Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, who finished one-two at Forest Hills and Maria Bueno, who won her third U.S. title in the women's division. p. 21 S 93-95

A Young, Fresh Setting For The Old Davis Cup. Deford's column previews Davis Cup Challenge Round, spotlights man responsible for bringing Davis Cup tennis to Cleveland, Robert Malaga (career sketch, p.); outlines players, probable outcome of matches between U.S., Australia. 28 S 76-78

Failure of a Winning Formula. Frank Deford reports on Davis Cup Challenge Round in which Roy Emerson not only won his conceded two singles matches, but, with Teammate Fred Stolle beat Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley to return the Cup to Australia. p. 5 O 30-31

Supreme Court Justice Hugo LaFayette Black watches Davis Cup matches in Cleveland (p.); spends every sunny morning behind home vigorously practicing tennis against a mechanical ball boy. 5 O 70

Brazilian Tennis Player Maria Esther Bueno has her diplomatic passport withdrawn and must endure the ritual of customs upon her return to Brazil since her criticism of the Brazilian government appeared in the widely read magazine O Cruzeiro. 9 N 47

Onetime Tennis Star Jinx Falkenburg, a roving promotion expert for the American Gas Association, who called her lecture in Cleveland "Around the World with Jinx Falkenburg," has new found interest in golf. 23 N 67

Jackie Kennedy and Dick Savitt defeat Bill Talbert and his partner in tennis match at New York's River Club. 14 D 49

TENNIS COURTS See TENNIS

TENNIS WORLD (PERIODICAL) See TENNIS

TERRES, JOHN See ANIMALS

TEXAS See CONSERVATION; HUNTING

TEXAS, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College

TEXAS TRACK CLUB See TRACK & FIELD

TEXTILES See CLOTHING

THOMAS, DANNY See BOATS

THOMAS, JOHN See TRACK & FIELD

THOMAS CUP See BADMINTON

THOMPKINS, GLADYS See FOOTBALL—College

THOMPSON, FRED See CONSERVATION

THOMPSON, MICKEY See AUTOMOBILE RACING

THORP, EDWARD O. See GAMBLING

THUNDERBIRD GOLF COURSE See GOLF 13 Ja 26-37

THURMOND, STROM See WRESTLING

THURSTON, FUZZY See FOOTBALL—Professional

TIEFENAUER, BOBBY See BASEBALL

TIGER, DICK See BOXING

TIME INC. See SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

TITO, MARSHAL See SPORTS

TITTLE, Y. A. See ART; FOOTBALL—Professional; GOLF

TOBIN, JACK See FOOTBALL—College

TOBOGGANING See OLYMPICS

TOJO (DOG) See CRIME

TOKYO, JAPAN See JAPAN; OLYMPICS

TONGI, PRINCE OF TONGA See SURFING

TOMAS, AMERICO DE DEUS RODRIGUES See HUNTING

TOPPING, DAN See BASEBALL

TOPPING, NORMAN See GOLF

TOPPS CHEWING GUM, INC. See BASEBALL

TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS See HOCKEY

TORRES, JOSÉ See BOXING

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR SOCCER TEAM See SOCCER

TOWER, WHITNEY
See also HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
Reports that U.S. regains Davis Cup in Adelaide, Australia. p. 6 Ja 18-21
Profiles the best woman swimmer in history, Australia's Dawn Fraser. 17 F 26-31
Close-up on SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's traveled Turf Writer Whitney Tower. p. 9 Mr 6
Recalls childhood days he spent in C. V. Whitney's indoor tennis court. 13 Jl 34-39

TOYS See CANADA

TRACK & FIELD
Shotputter Dallas Long, who holds the world record at 65-feet 10½-inches, is now practicing for the 1964 Olympics with a plastic-covered indoor shot, which is designed to preserve gym floors against the hammering of the 16-pound ball. 6 Ja 8

Despite the fact that former pole vaulter Rev. Robert Richards has not voted since 1954, his friends urge him to give up his $100,000-a-year job selling breakfast foods and run as a G.O.P. candidate for Senator in California. 6 Ja 46

The Fastest Boy in the West Challenges a Champion. Robert Creamer reports on the Los Angeles Invitational Track Meet in which High School Senior Gerry Lindgren (p.) stole the show from Belgium's Champion Distance Runner Gaston Roelants (p.) in a two-mile race; performances of Pole Vaulter John Pennel and the girls of the Texas Track Club cited. 27 Ja 66-70

The Last Whale. Tribute to Simon P. Gillis, hammer thrower in the early days of this century and one of the famous Whales, who died at the age of 88. 3 F 9

Finland's 1920s Runner Paavo Nurmi visits President Johnson and remarks that runners in his day wasted time by walking to keep trim. 3 F 46

Young Druggist's Sure RX. Robert Creamer profiles Canadian Druggist and Track Runner Bill Crothers (p.), who is the best half-miler in the world. 10 F 56, 59

Texas Millionaire Tommy Mercer, coach and sponsor of a four-girl relay team called the Rinky Dinks, of which his daughter is a member, comments on team's performance at Fort Worth's Will Rogers Indoor Games. 17 F 44

The Din, the Color, the Mood of Indoor Track. Paintings by Jerome Martin illustrate the spills, body contact and violence encountered during indoor track and field meets. c.r. 24 F 34-39

From Humdrum to Well-Done In One Easy Mile. Article by Robert Creamer spotlights Tom O'Hara (p.), who set a new 1-mile indoor world record at the New York Athletic Club Indoor Games and Ron Clark, who is expected to win the Olympic 10,000-meter run. 24 F 46-50

Now, If O'Hara Really Tries . . . Tom O'Hara (p.) breaks own indoor mile record at Chicago Daily News Relays, defeating Jim Grelle. Brody's column examines timorous O'Hara personality, suggests that his lack of confidence cost him the chance to better Peter Snell's outdoor mark. 16 Mr 68-69

Going Going Gone! Missouri Pole Vaulter Bill Younger sinks into sawdust-replacing plastic foam after vault. p. 23 Mr 22-23

World-record-holding High Jumper Valeri Brumel reports in a Moscow newspaper that his old rival John Thomas is not working at his profession—physical training instructor—but as a salesman of medical equipment. 6 Ap 80

Flamin' Mamie's Bouffant Belles. Gilbert Rogin spotlights Coach Margaret Ellison's Texas Track Club which is celebrated for its athletic achievements and beautiful girls, who compete in dazzling uniforms, elaborate makeup and hairdos. p., cov. 20 Ap 30-36

They Came Out In Gale Force. John Underwood reports opening of track season with account of Al Oerter's record-breaking discus throw (p.) and New Zealand Runner Doreen Porter's (p.) win in 100-yard and 220-yard sprints at Mt. San Antonio Relays; Texas A & M's Randy Matson's winning shot put (p.) at Drake Relays in Des Moines; others. 4 My 36, 39

It's Warmup Time. Harvard Sophomore Walter Hewlett wins Greater Boston college two-mile run with unimpressive time after running twelve miles before race, and 16 miles the day before. c.d. 18 My 14

How Fast Is The Fastest Man Alive? John Underwood byliner features Florida A & M Runner Bob Hayes, who has equaled the world's record for the 100-yard dash; with account of recent 9.2-second 100 at Atlanta gingerbread track with little competition. p. 18 My 26-29

Aannnnghhh! John Underwood reports that at the Coliseum Relays in Los Angeles World Champion Shot-putter Dallas Long out-shoots Parry O'Brien and Randy Matson. Henry Carr defeats Bob Hayes in the 200-meter race. p. 25 My 84-86

Straight Man in a Twisty Race. John Lovesey spotlights U.S. Marathon Runner Buddy Edelen (biopers, p.), an expatriate school teacher in England; discusses training habits, chances in upcoming Olympics. 1 Je 40-45

A Brisk Tuneup for the Long Season Ahead. Underwood's track column foresees brisk summer season as early starts provide close finishes among front-running U.S. milers: Dyrol Burleson defeats Tom O'Hara at Modesto. p. 1 Je 64-66

A Very Fast Crowd at the Tape. Gwilym S. Brown recounts turning point in American distance running as California's Compton Invitational sees Dyrol Burleson win over seven other sub-four-minute milers (p.), but feat is overshadowed by Bob Schul's U.S.-record-setting 5,000-meter win. 15 Je 28-29

Running Is Such Sweet Torture. John Underwood profiles Loyola of Chicago's successful Miler Tom O'Hara (p., cov.), who like most trackmen, is beset with doubts; conditioning program and success discussed. 22 Je 26-31

A Joyful Theme at the AAU: Younger, Higher and Faster. Gwilym S. Brown reports how Tom O'Hara finally outran fellow Miler Dyrol Burleson in 1500-meter race at National AAU Championships. p. 6 Jl 22-25

Over The First Big Hurdle On A Golden Trail. John Underwood reports on the U.S. Olympic trials in New York, spotlighting the seventeen men who won places on the team and those who will get another chance in the final trials in September. p. 13 Jl 16-19

Weight Lifter Paul Anderson, the strongest man in the world, could quite possibly be the fastest, per ton, if his claim that he can run 100-yards in 12-seconds is true. 20 Jl 38

A Slight Blow For Extremism In Sport's Cold War. Dick Bank's track and field column previews U.S.-Soviet dual track meet in Los Angeles; lists possible winners in each event; photos show Janis Lusis and Tatiana Talysheva in midst of, respectively, javelin throw and broad jump. p. 27 Jl 46-47

Raves For The Young. John Underwood reports that Gerry Lindgren's win of 10,000 meter race at U.S.-U.S.S.R. dual track meet signals surge of youth in U.S. track and field as Americans crush Russians in Los Angeles; youthful American women athletes spotlighted. p. 3 Ag 8-13

At Last the Girls Are Ours. Brody's track and field column spotlights women's U.S. Olympic trials, signaling improvement in women's track in U.S. p. 17 Ag 68-69

Two Santa Clara, Calif. juvenile delinquents fail to outrun the new county youth counselor, Don Bowden, who became the first American ever to run a four-minute mile in 1957. 7 S 86

A Kansas Boy with a Man-Size Task. O'Leary's Olympic track and field trials preview spotlights Teen-aged Long Distance Runner Jim Ryun (biopers, career sketch, p., cov.). 14 S 46-53

The Fastest is Faster. Gilbert Rogin profiles New Zealand Distance Runner Peter Snell (character, career sketches); outlines home life with wife, Sally; Snell analyses training procedures, methods, c.p. 5 O 56-63

We Win The Five And The Ten. John Underwood reports on the Tokyo Olympics, spotlighting the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs won by Bob Schul and Billy Mills. p. 26 O 20-22, 29-31

Snell's Tortured Race To A Record Mile. Peter Snell, New Zealand's three gold-medal Olympian, struggled desperately in the second half of mile race which he ran in 3:45.1 to break his own world record. p. 30 N 28-29

TRANSISTORS See ANIMALS

TRAPSHOOTING
Nikita Khrushchev, while strolling along the Moskva River with Anastas Mikoyan, Andrei Gromyko, Alexei Kosygin, Leonid Brezhnev and Ahmed Ben Bella, suggests a round of trap-shooting and promptly brought down the first clay pigeon himself. 11 My 62

TRAVEL
See also RESORTS
The Amphibious Resorts. Coles Phinizy takeout on the unspoiled Caribbean island called Marina Cay, one of the Virgin Islands, and its proprietor, Allan Batham (brief biopers, p.); swimming, snorkeling, scuba diving, sailing, and fishing are the only sports available. 20 Ja 22-29

Sneakers And Snorkels. Fred R. Smith's travel facts and map of the Caribbean show beginning and experienced skin divers, scuba divers where to find the best guides, gear, fish, reefs and wrecks. c. map., c.d. 20 Ja 36-38, 48-49

Instant Voyageur. Hudson's Bay Company starts U-Paddle Canoe Rental Service for forages into wilds of northern Canada. 23 Mr 11

Mush For Tourists. Weekend dog team travel service opened in Churchill, Manitoba, includes tours across frozen mouth of Churchill River to Fort Prince of Wales. 27 Ap 17

22e Grand Prix Automobile. Takeout on travel tips for Monte Carlo visitors. c.r. 11 My 44-53

Muhammad Ali in Africa. Gerry Cranham photo essay follows Heavyweight Champion Muhammad Ali—nee Cassius Clay—through triumphant tour of Ghana. p. 1 Je 20-25

At Home In The World's Largest Enigma. Fred R. Smith provides travel guide to Tokyo. d. 6 Jl 44-47

Some Ships of the Desert on a Long, Long Safari. Enthusiastic boating fans who live near Albuquerque and call themselves Los Guajolotes travel 550 miles through the desert with their boats on trailers to Lake Mojave where they can take part in their favorite sport. p. 14 D 22-23

Nostalgic Note. Canada's Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources is putting up signs to point the way across the 3,000-mile canoe route. 21 D 16-17

TRAVERS (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

TREASURES See SCUBA DIVING

TREFGARNE, LORD DAVID See AVIATION

TRINIDAD See ISLANDS 20 Ja 36-38 48-49
TROPICAL PARK RACE TRACK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
TROWBRIDGE, OTIS See HORSE SHOWS
TRULL, DON See FOOTBALL—College; FOOTBALL—Professional
TRUMAN, HARRY S.
See also AGE
Former President Truman chastises New York woman for attempting to cross Park Avenue against light, guides her across. 4 My 78
TSUGARU, HANAKO See JAPAN
TULSA, U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
TUNNEY, GENE See BOXING
TUNNEY, JOHN VARIK See BOXING
TUPPERWARE CO. See TENNIS
TURLEY, BOB See BASEBALL
TURNER, PETE See OLYMPICS; PHOTOGRAPHY
TURNER, WACO See GOLF
TUSSAUD, MME. JOSEPHINE See BASEBALL
TUTWILER, ED See GOLF
TWAIN, MARK See BROWN, EDMUND G. (PAT)
TWINING, NATHAN F. See HUNTING
TYPEE (BOAT) See BOAT RACING

U

UCLA See BASKETBALL—College
UDALL, MORRIS See SPORTS
UDALL, STEWART See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.; SPORTS
UETAKE, YOJIRO (YO-JO) See WRESTLING
UNDERWATER EXPLORATION See SCUBA DIVING
UNDERWOOD, JOHN
See also BASKETBALL—College; FOOTBALL—College; TRACK & FIELD
Takeout on Middleweight Champion Joey Giardello. 18 My 30-43
Analyzes modern Olympics since 1896. 5 O 34-42
Chronicles end of Tokyo Olympics. 2 N 24-31
UNGERER, TOMI See ART; PHOTOGRAPHY
UNITAS, JOHNNY See FOOTBALL—Professional
UNITED STATES
See also SPORTS
By the Sea, by the Beautiful Sea. Drawings by Arnold Roth depict varied scenes along U.S. beaches. d., c.d. 27 Jl 22-28
America Down The Drain. Robert H. Boyle examines increasing destruction of U.S. through money-grabbing greed and ignorance; chides conservationists for lack of unity, outlines specific areas being ruined. c.d. 16 N 78-90
U.S. AMATEUR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP See GOLF
U.S. GOLF ASSN. See GOLF
UNITED STATES GRAND PRIX (AUTOMOBILE RACE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
U.S. OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT See GOLF
U.S. OPEN TABLE TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS See TABLE TENNIS
U.S. WILDLIFE & FISHERIES DEPARTMENT See BIRDS
U.S. WOMEN'S AMATEUR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP See GOLF
UNTOUCHABLE (HORSE) See HORSE SHOWS
URIS, LEON See SPORTS

V

VAIL SKI RESORT See SKIING
VALACHI, JOE See PHYSICAL FITNESS
VANDERBILT, HAROLD S. See BRIDGE
VANDERBILT U. See BASKETBALL—College
VAN DOREN, MAMIE See SPORTS
VAN EVERY, HAROLD See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
VAN FLEET, JAMES See FOOTBALL—College
VAN HOOSE, LARRY See FOOTBALL—College
VARGAS, IEDA See BRAZIL
VAUGHN, JACK HOOD See BOXING
VELDE, ROBERT See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
VENTURI, KEN See GOLF
VERMONT, U. OF See PHYSICAL FITNESS
VESPER BOAT CLUB See ROWING
VICAR HANOVER (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Harness
VILLANOVA U. See BASKETBALL—College
VILLIERS, ALAN See SHIPS
VINOGRADOV, SERGEI See HUNTING
VIRGIN ISLANDS See ISLANDS
VOLLEYBALL
Games Worth the Candle. The fastest-growing participant sport in the U.S., according to the Athletic Institute, is volleyball, 5 million ahead of cycling. 20 Ja 8
Driven Beyond Dignity. Eric Whitehead chronicles rigors of torturous practice during typical day with Japan's unbeaten world champion Nichibo Kaizuka women's volleyball team. All members employed by Kaizuka's Dai Nippon spinning mill, spend 51 grueling 7-day weeks working and drilling each year. Coach Hirofumi Diamatsu's degrading methods, girls' chauvinistic loyalty, outlined. p. 16 Mr 16-19
VOLLMER, RUSSELL See ATHLETES
VON FURSTENBURG, (PRINCESS) IRA See OLYMPICS
VOOG, DAISY See MOUNTAIN CLIMBING

W

WAGNER, DUNCAN See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.
WAGNER, LEON See BASEBALL
WAGNER, ROBERT See BILLIARDS
WAGNER, ROBERT F., JR. See JOHNSON, LYNDON B.
WALFORD, LIONEL A. See FISHING
WALKING See HIKING
WALKER, CLINT See FISH & FISHING
WALKER, MICKEY See BOXING
WALKER, WADE See GOLF
WALL, ART See GOLF
WALTER, DON L. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
WARD, FRED See HORSE SHOWS
WARD, ROGER See AUTOMOBILE RACING; AVIATION
WARFIELD, PAUL See FOOTBALL—Professional
WARREN, EARL See BASEBALL; HUNTING
WAR STORM (DOG) See DOGS
WASHINGTON, KENNY See BASKETBALL—College
WASHINGTON, D.C. See GOLF
WASHINGTON (STATE) See FISH & FISHING
WASHINGTON U. OF See FOOTBALL—College
WASHINGTON REDSKINS See FOOTBALL—Professional 7 S 47, 58-68
WASHINGTON SENATORS See BASEBALL
WASHINGTON TOUCHDOWN CLUB See FOOTBALL—College
WATANABE, OSAMU See OLYMPICS
WATER POLLUTION See FISHING
WATER SKIING
Science Rides Again. German invents do-it-yourself water-skiing device complete with six-foot hull, 24-hp motor and handlebar grips; called Ski-Craft, it is designed for small inland lakes impractical for big boats and long-tow skiers. 1 Je 18
With the Republican convention behind them, Candidate William Miller's wife Stephanie and their daughters Libby and Mary Karen hurry off to Lake Ontario for water skiing. 3 Ag 46
WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. See AUTOMOBILE RACING
WATSON, TOM, JR. See BOAT RACING
WAUGH, ALEC See RESORTS
WEALTH See BUSINESS
WEATHER See BIRDS; SKIING
WEATHERLY, JIM See FOOTBALL—College
WEAVER, DENNIS See TELEVISION
WEAVER, ROBERT See ART
WEDGWOOD, SIR JOHN See SPELUNKING
WEEKI WACHEE RIVER See RIVERS
WEINSTEIN, ROCKY See FISH & FISHING
WEISKOPF, HERMAN See BASEBALL; BASKETBALL—College; SWIMMING
WELK, LAWRENCE See GOLF
WELLES, ORSON See SPORTS
WERNER, BUDDY See OLYMPICS; SKIING
WEST, JERRY See BASKETBALL—Professional; FISH & FISHING
WESTMINSTER DOG SHOW See DOGS
WEST POINT See FOOTBALL—College; LACROSSE
WEST VIRGINIA See RIVERS
WHALL, HUGH
See also BOATING; BOAT RACING; BOATS
Points up new direction in dull Ferrari-dominated Sebring races. p. 30 Mr 20-23
Rowing column features Howard U. rowing team. 27 Ap 72, 75
WHITE, ELLINGTON See FISH & FISHING
WHITE, PAUL DUDLEY See PHYSICAL FITNESS
WHITE, BYRON (WHIZZER) See FOOTBALL—College
WHITEHEAD, ERIC See VOLLEYBALL
WHITEHURST, BURT See BOXING
WHITTAKER, JIM See MOUNTAIN CLIMBING; SPORTS
WHOOPING CRANE See BIRDS
WICHITA STATE U. See BASKETBALL—College
WILEY, GENE See TELEVISION
WILKINSON, BUD See SPORTS
WILKINSON, ERNEST See PHYSICAL FITNESS
WILLARD, JESS See BOXING
WILLARD, KEN See FOOTBALL—College 13 Ja 44-46
WILLIAM, PRINCE OF GLOUCHESTER See BOATING
WILLIAMS, TED See ACCIDENTS; FISH & FISHING
WILLS, MAURY See CRIME
WILLSON, MEREDITH See BASEBALL
WIL RAD (HORSE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
WILSON, GEORGE See BASKETBALL
WILSON, HAROLD See ACCIDENTS; GREAT BRITAIN; SOCCER
WIMBLEDON TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS See TENNIS
WINDJAMMERS See SHIPS
WINDSOR, DUKE OF See GOLF
WINGFOOT EXPRESS (AUTOMOBILE) See AUTOMOBILE RACING
WINTERHOLLER, JOHN See AWARDS 30 N 36-45
WINTERS, STORMY See BOXING
WITTENBERG U. See FOOTBALL—College
WOLMAN, JERRY See FOOTBALL—Professional
WOLVES See HUNTING
WOMEN
See also CLOTHING; specific sports
Driven Beyond Dignity. Eric Whitehead chronicles rigors of torturous practice during typical day with Japan's unbeaten world champion Nichibo Kaizuka women's volleyball team. p. 16 Mr 16-19
Flamin' Mamie's Bouffant Belles. Gilbert Rogin spotlights Coach Margaret Ellison's Texas Track Club, which is celebrated for its athletic achievements and beautiful girls, who compete in dazzling uniforms, elaborate makeup and hairdos. p., cov. 20 Ap 30-36
Words Will Never Hurt Them. Charles Goren discusses bridge hands played by Captain Paul Hodge's U.S. Olympiad team Jan Stone, Muriel Kaplan, Stella Rebner, Alicia Kempner, Helen Portugal and Agnes Gorden during practice games with Canadian Open team and Canadian Women's team in Toronto. 11 My 70-71
Room at the Top. Women's topless bathing suit available to swimsuit buyers arouses the interest of Dallas' Neiman-Marcus. 15 Je 17
Raves For The Young. John Underwood spotlights young American women athletes. p. 3 Ag 12-13
Fairway Woods—Swing Hard And Be Fearless. Champion Golfer Betsy Rawls, with Edwin Shrake, shows how women should compensate for comparative lack of strength on fairway wood shots. c.d., cov. 3 Ag 18-27
At Last the Girls Are Ours. Brody's track and field column reports women's U.S. Olympic trials, signaling improvement in women's track in U.S. p. 17 Ag 68-69
The Furious Fun of Pinkie and Pat. Barbara H. LaFontaine spotlights Women Racing Drivers Pat Mernone and Pinkie Rollo, who placed well in Upper Marlboro (Md.) 12-hour endurance run for small sedans, ahead of 17 teams of men drivers. p. 24 Ag 20-21
A Champion Conquers A Kansas Sea Breeze. Alfred Wright reports on the 64th U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship, won by Barbara McIntire, who defeated three time title winner JoAnne Gunderson and defending champion Anne Quast Welts, who was 6-months-pregnant and failed to qualify for the match play. Box details Anne Quast Welts' (p.) decision to play despite impending motherhood. 31 Ag 56-57
Two Women With Sharpened Fingernails. Charles Goren spotlights Helen Portugal and Dorothy Hayden the only two women who will take part in the 1965 trials for a place on the U.S. international bridge team. 9 N 58-59
WOOD, GAR See GOLF
WOOD, SYDNEY See BUSINESS
WOODEN, JOHN See BASKETBALL—College
WOOD MEMORIAL (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
WOODWARD STAKES (HORSE RACE) See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred
WORLD BOXING ASSN. See BOXING
WORLD BRIDGE OLYMPIAD See BRIDGE
WORLD SERIES (BASEBALL) See BASEBALL
WRESTLING
Stanilaus Zbyszko, who whipped and was whipped by Strangler Lewis for the heavyweight wrestling championship in the '20's, takes out a patent with his brother Wladek for a tilttable exerciser on which the subject can either sit or lie. 17 F 44

Two Guys Named Joe Jolt Ithaca. Martin Kane reports that Oklahoma State University wins its 24th NCAA Wrestling title at Cornell U. in Ithaca, N.Y., spotlighting 130-pound Yojiro (Yo-Jo) Uetake (p.) and his heavyweight teammate Big Joe James (p.), who won State's championships in their own weight category and Colorado's Dean Lahr (p.), who was judged best in the tournament. 6 Ap 28-29, 92-93
Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan quoted on "worthwhile" sport of sumo wrestling. 8 Je 53
Senators Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Ralph Yarborough of Texas put on poor, in more than one way, wrestling exhibition in hallowed halls of Congress. 20 Jl 38
Baltimore Theater Director Edward J. Golden Jr. attends wrestling matches, watches Gorilla Monsoon and The Golden Terror; compares wrestling to theater. 7 D 83

WRIGHT, ALFRED See FOOTBALL—College; GOLF; HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

WRIGHT, JAMES C., JR. See ACCIDENTS

WRIGHT, BISHOP JOHN J.
Pittsburgh's Bishop John J. Wright reminds delegates to Vatican Council II assembled at St. Peter's that the laity will judge them the same way a man judges a racetrack, on the basis of how well his horse runs. 12 O 57

WRIGHT, MICKEY See GOLF

WRIGLEY FIELD See FOOTBALL—Professional

WYATT, JOHN See BASEBALL

WYETH, ANDREW See ACCIDENTS

WYLIE, PHILIP See CONSERVATION

Y

YALE U. See FOOTBALL—College

YARBOROUGH, RALPH See WRESTLING

YCAZA, MANUEL See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

YEAGER, FREDERICK S. See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

YONKERS FUTURITY See HORSE RACING—Harness

YOSHI, PRINCE OF JAPAN See BIRDS; JAPAN

YOUNG, STEPHEN See PHYSICAL FITNESS

YOUNGER, BILL See TRACK & FIELD

YOUTH
See also TRACK & FIELD
Bestsellers. President's Council on Fitness offers booklets Vim, for girls, and Vigor, for boys, because of success of earlier booklet, Adult Physical Fitness. 13 Ap 23
Georgie Jessel (quoted) blames overprotective mothers for softness of American youth. 27 Ap 64

Z

ZAGARINO, FRANK See HORSE RACING—Thoroughbred

ZANHISER, JOHN See BASEBALL

ZBYSZKO, STANILAUS See WRESTLING

ZIMDAHL, WALTER See AWARDS 30 N 36-45

ZIMMERMAN, EGON See FOOD; OLYMPICS

ZIMONYI, ROBERT See ROWING

ZUYLEN, BARONESS VON See CLOTHING

©1965 Sports Illustrated. All rights reserved. Printed in U.S.A.